The Rev. H. I. Coe, Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, by invitation addressed the Assembly.

A list of nominations for members of the Board of Church Extension was, on motion, amended, by inserting a nomination of the Rev. John M. Lowrie, D. D., to fill the place of the Rev. J. Jermain Porter, who had entered another denomination.

The following report was then adopted:

The Committee to which was referred the Tenth Annual Report of the Board of Church Extension, has had the same under consideration, and begs leave to report the following for the adoption of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly highly approves the fidelity, ability, prudence, and liberality, that have characterized the Board in the administration of the trust committed to it during the past year. That the records of the proceedings of the Board be approved, and its Annual Report be adopted and published.

Resolved, 2. That this General Assembly acknowledges, with gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, the fact, that in the midst of troublous times, and while so many other large and pressing demands have been made upon the liberality of God's people, their interest in this enterprise has not abated, nor their contributions diminished, but, on the contrary, they are larger than in any former year.

Resolved, 3. That this Assembly approves of the action of the Board in increasing the amounts appropriated to the individual churches applying for aid during the past year, over those granted in former years, rendered necessary by the greatly increased expense of building. That, in the opinion of this Assembly, the time has fully come when larger and more liberal views touching this subject of church erection, as a means of extending the borders of our Zion over all the land, should prevail in the Church.

Resolved, 4. That we regard the work intrusted to this Board as an essential auxiliary to the Board of Domestic Missions, tending, as it does, to render more certain of success every effort made to plant the Church where it is not, and in each case hastening the period when the new church shall become self-sustaining.

Resolved, 5. That the times in which we live, the peculiar state and wants of our country, the vigorous efforts put forth by the enemies of our Zion to pre-occupy the ground, and to lead into soul-destroying errors those whom it is our duty to strive to save, all demand of this Church that she should rise to the occasion, gird herself to the conflict, and pour into the treasury of the Lord her means, until there shall be no feeble church houseless, and no city, town, or hamlet in the land where may not be found a Presbyterian church.

Resolved, 6. This Assembly commends the noble work of church erection to all who covet the honour of aiding in building up the Redeemer's kingdom, and enjoins upon all our ministers and church sessions to see that this cause is presented to their people for their contributions.

On motion of the Rev. S. F. Colt, it was Resolved, That it be made the second order of the day for Wednesday forenoon next, to receive, both from Standing Committees and from individual members of the Assembly, nominations to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries; and that all nominations, when closed, be printed by the Stated Clerk for the use of the members voting. And further, that it be the second order of the day for Friday forenoon next, to go into the election to fill vacancies in the Boards and Seminaries.

The Rev. James M. Platt, Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, offered the following report, which was adopted.

The Committee on Correspondence reports, that there seems to be a mutual desire for the establishing of friendly intercourse between the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church and our own General Assembly.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that immediate steps be taken towards the opening of correspondence with that body, towards which we entertain such a cordial esteem; and would recommend that the following persons be appointed as corresponding delegates to the General Synod now in session at Newcastle, Pennsylvania, viz. Rev. J. F. McLaren, D.D., and ruling elder Francis G. Bailey, principals, and Rev. A. Williams, D.D. and ruling elder Alexander Cameron, alternates.

The Rev. Dr. Green, Chairman of the Judicial Committee, reported,

I. That a notice of appeal and complaint by R. B. Westbrook against the Synod of Philadelphia had been placed in the hands of the Committee. On the ground both of its informality and of the non-appearance of any person to prosecute the appeal, the Committee recommend that it be dismissed.

The recommendation was adopted.

II. A complaint by the Presbytery of Cincinnati, against the Synod of Cincinnati, for sustaining in part the complaint of Elijah Slack. Owing to an oversight on the part of the Stated Clerk of the Synod, the papers are not present, and, at the request of the parties, the Committee recommend that its consideration be postponed to the next Assembly, without prejudice to either party. The recommendation was adopted.

III. The Judicial Committee recommend this Assembly to adopt the rule of the last General Assembly (Minutes of 1864, page 321), as follows:

Whereas, In the experience of this General Assembly and others, the confusion arising from the frequent interruption of important business by other items of business wholly disconnected, has greatly hindered the satisfactory interest and understanding of the members, as well as protracted our proceedings; therefore

Resolved, That it be made a standing rule of the Assembly, that all judicial cases be continued without interruption, during the sessions of the day, after the Assembly shall have entered upon them, according to appointment, for the order of the day.

The recommendation was adopted.

Dr. Howard, Chairman of the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported further arrangements for various pulpits upon the morrow.

The report was approved.

The Assembly agreed to take up the subject of appointing the next place of meeting. The following places were nominated, viz. Chicago, St. Louis, Albany, and Dayton, O. On the first ballot, no one of these places had a majority of all the votes cast. On motion, it was then Resolved, That the Second Church in the City of St. Louis, Mo., be the place of the next meeting.

It was made an order of the day for Monday next, at 10 A. M., to hear delegates from corresponding bodies, and the Rev. Theodore Monod, of France.

Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns, it be until Monday next, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by the Moderator.

MONDAY MORNING, May 22.

The Assembly met and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of Fairfield, asking the General Assembly to appoint a meeting of the Synod of Southern Iowa, at Oskaloosa, Iowa, on the third Thursday of October next, because the last Synod failed to obtain a quorum. The Committee recommended that, whereas, the minority of the last Synod adjourned to meet at Afton on the last Thursday of September, at 7 o'clock, P. M., the Assembly decline to interfere with the action of the minority about meeting at Afton.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 5, from the Synod of the Pacific, asking the Assembly to adopt certain resolutions with reference to the Board of Domestic Missions, and especially with reference to an extension of the work of that Board on the Pacific coast. The Committee recommended the reference of the overture to the Board of Domestic Missions, to take such action on the subject as the necessities of other fields may warrant. The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, asking the General Assembly to instruct the Board of Publication to establish a depository for the sale of its books and tracts in the city of New York. The Committee recommended that the overture be answered in the negative.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 14, from the Presbytery of Sidney, requesting the Assembly to answer the following questions.

1. When a church member, or an elder, is under process for absenting himself from the ordinances and means of grace in the church to which he belongs, is it proper for a session to admit statements or allegations to record which have a tendency to injure the pastor, or any other officer of the church?

2. Is it consistent with regular standing in our church, for church-members to be supporters and attendants in other churches not of our communion, while absenting themselves from and refusing to support the church to which they belong?

3. When an accused church-member is contumaceous on a second citation, and the member is suspended for contumacy, is it the duty of the session, after having examined witnesses and spread the testimony on the record, to decide the case and enter the judgment also on the record?

On motion of Dr. Lord, the whole subject contained in the first question of the overture, and the answer to it, was indefinitely postponed.

The order of the day was taken up, and the Rev. Theodore Monod, a delegate from the Union of Evangelical Churches of France, addressed the Assembly. A Committee consisting of Drs. Breckinridge and Elliott, and Mr. McKnight, was appointed to bring in a suitable minute on the subject of Mr. Monod's mission.

On motion of the Rev. S. F. Colt, the letter presented by Mr. Monod from the Evangelical Churches of France, was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Rev. Thomas C. Strong, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church; the Rev. J. G. Brown, D. D., from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America; and the Rev. Leroy Woods, from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, addressed the Assembly, and were severally responded to by the Moderator.

The Assembly again took up the Report on Overture No. 14, when that part of the report containing the answer to the second question was adopted.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by the Moderator.

MONDAY Afternoon, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. B. Graham.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business of the morning, viz., the Report on Overture No. 14, when, after discussion, that part of the report containing an answer to the third question of the overture was adopted. The entire report, as adopted, is as follows:

The Committee recommend that the second question receive a negative answer, with an injunction on church sessions to make such cases a matter of discipline. For answer to the third question, they refer to the Book of Discipline, chap. iv., sections 10, 11, and 13.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, the Report of Dr. Craven, from the Committee on Courts of Appeal.

Judge Leavitt moved to refer the report to the Presbyteries, with instructions to report their decisions upon it to the next General Assembly.

On motion, the business before the Assembly was suspended, in order to hear a Memorial presented by Dr. Lord. It was read, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Rev. Samuel R. Wilson, D. D., asked leave to enter his dissent from the action of the Assembly, in referring the above Memorial to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. Leave was granted.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. David Hervey.

TUESDAY Morning, May 23.

The Assembly met, and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the following Commissioners had presented their commissions and been enrolled:

Minister—F. F. Cornell. Ruling Elder—Samuel M. Rankin.

The Committee on Elections reported that the Rev. E. K. Lynn, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Topeka, had presented a defective commission, and recommended that he be enrolled.

The recommendation was adopted.

The same Committee also reported that Hamilton Smith, a ruling elder from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, had appeared without a commission, but with a written request from several ministers and ruling elders of that Presbytery, which had been able to secure no quorum for two years past, that he be allowed to sit as a Commissioner.

On motion, he was admitted to a seat in the Assembly.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overtures Nos. 6 and 7, from the Presbyteries of Richland and Madison, and from the Presbytery of California, with a report thereon, which was made the second order of the day for this afternoon.

Dr. Green, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Judicial Case No. 4—being a complaint of the Rev. J. W. Martin, D. D., against the Presbytery of Newcastle, for postponing action in reference to a memorial of his, having relation to the Trustees of the Ashmun Institute. The Committee find it not in order, because the complaint is made directly to the General Assembly, without having been first brought before the Synod; and no reason is assigned justifying this departure from the regular course in such proceedings. They therefore recommend that it be dismissed, and that the complainant have leave to withdraw his papers.

The report was adopted.

Also, Judicial Case No. 5—being a complaint of the session of the Seventh Church of Cincinnati, and the appeal and complaint of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, against the decision of the Synod of Cincinnati, in the case of the Misses Brown, which was referred to this Assembly by the last General Assembly, (see Minutes, page 313.) The Committee find the case in order, and ready to be taken up and adjudicated, if this body so please, in the usual manner. As it is, however, (Digest, p. 287,) declared to be the province of the Judicial Committee not only to ascertain whether appeals and references to the Assembly are in order, but also to propose to the Assembly the best mode of proceeding in each case, the Committee will be pardoned, perhaps, for the suggestion that all the ends of justice may be answered, and the whole matter harmonized, if this very unusual case be dealt with in a somewhat unusual way. It is of such a nature as to be unfit for public discussion, and it is in every way exceedingly undesirable that the testimony should be read or the case debated in the open sessions of this body. According to the Digest (p. 144, note,) no deviation from the regular order prescribed in the book should be allowed, unless upon the consent of all the parties, expressed in open court. The parties in this case, feeling as every one does who knows anything of its character, that it ought not to come directly before the Assembly, if a satisfactory result can be arrived at in any other way, have consented to have it referred to a committee of nine, of this body, taken from Presbyteries so remote as to be without prejudice in the matter. Influenced by these considerations, which are altogether of an extraordinary character, we venture to propose that such a committee be appointed, consisting of five ministers—Rev. Dr. Perkins of the Presbytery of Burlington, Dr. Bannard of the Presbytery of Albany, Dr. Samuel Wilson of the Presbytery of Redstone, Dr. Breed of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, and Rev. A. V. C. Schenck of the Presbytery of Missouri; and four ruling elders—J. K. Davidson of the Presbytery of Carlisle, T. T. Alexander of the Presbytery of Transylvania, D. W. Patterson of the Presbytery of Donegal, and Charles Crosby of the Presbytery of Rock River. That this Committee be directed to hear the parties, and report to this body during its present sessions, for their final action in the case; and that they hold their first meeting for this purpose at half-past seven o'clock this evening, in the lecture-room of this church.

The report was adopted.

Dr. Howard, Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, offered its Report, which, on motion, was accepted.

The Rev. W. E. Schenck, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Publication, was, on motion, invited to address the Assembly.

On motion of the Rev. N. McConaughy, the report was amended by adding the eighth resolution, with its preamble.

The report, as thus amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, report: That they have examined the Report of the Board, and the minutes of the Board and of the Executive Committee, and recommend the approval of these minutes, and respectfully submit the following resolutions as an expression of their judgment in relation to this important enterprise of the Church:

Resolved, 1. That each successive year affords additional evidence that the Board of Publication is a most efficient agency in disseminating and defending Divine truth, and that whilst the General Assembly rejoices in the increasing usefulness of the Board, it approves of the fidelity, discretion, and vigor with which its affairs are conducted.

Resolved, 2. That it is especially gratifying to the Assembly that the Board, in obedience to the calls both of piety and of patriotism, has continued to make liberal contributions of its publications to the army and navy, to the sick and wounded soldiers and sailors in our hospitals, to military prisoners, and to many among those whom God, in his righteous providence, has delivered from bondage; and affectionately urges upon the churches the importance of a still more liberal coöperation in a work which in itself is so excellent, and which has been so signally favoured by God.

Resolved, 3. That the endeavours of the Board to furnish the children and youth of our church and country with a literature, not only adapted to interest them, and beget a love of reading, but to cultivate their taste, to improve their understandings, and, by the grace of God, to purify their hearts, meets with the heartiest approval of the Assembly; and it is recommended, with especial emphasis, to all who love our beloved Zion and desire the improvement and salvation of our dear youth, by every means to aid the Board in this most important department of labour.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly, following the example of former Assemblies, renews its recommendation of the Home and Foreign Record, and the Sabbath School Visitor, and, while it desires the Board to make these periodicals, if possible, more and more excellent, it urges our people to use every means to give them a wide circulation.

Resolved, 5. That the temporary increase of salaries authorized by the Board, on account of the continued increased cost of living, be approved; whilst at the same time the Assembly reminds the Board of the urgent necessity of husbanding its resources, and, as speedily as possible, in regard to salaries and all other expenses, returning to the lower rates of former times.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly directs the attention of the Board to the importance of a more extensive distribution of the books, tracts, and papers of the Board throughout all the churches of our connexion; and urges every pastor and church session to see that the pure literature of our church, subjected, as it is, in advance of issue, to careful examination, be circulated in preference to any other. To this end prominent laymen, and the superintendents and teachers of Sabbath-Schools should be furnished with the well-arranged Descriptive Catalogue of the Board; and in many instances care should be taken to secure the occasional visits of a colporteur. While not depreciating the merits of other religious publishing societies, we are sure that the Presbyterian Board of Publication, judged by its works, has no superior, and it is due to the interest of religion and of the Church that preference should be accorded to them.

It has come to the notice of your Committee that in the city of Cincinnati there is no full supply of our publications, and even in the city of New York the tracts of our Board cannot be obtained, unless directly ordered from Philadelphia. In all the central cities it would be well that there should be a depository where all the publications of the Board could be procured; and if the Board itself has not the means at its command to secure this, the churches of these large cities should establish such Depositories, that the numbers, and especially the youth of the Church may become more familiar with the products of our Presbyterian press, and be brought more thoroughly under the influence of the doctrinal and practical culture thus afforded.

Resolved, 7. That the Board be authorized to hold their annual meetings on the fourth Tuesday in June of each year, instead of the second Tuesday, as heretofore directed by a resolution of the Assembly.

And whereas the General Assembly did, two or three years ago, discourage the Board from incurring expense by paying for contributions to the Sabbath-School Visitor, therefore,

Resolved, 8. That this Assembly now refers this matter to the Board, with instructions to use its discretion in regard to paying for such contributions.

Dr. Green, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Judicial Case No. 6, being a complaint of John Crozier and John Mack against the Synod of Illinois, referred to this Assembly by the last General Assembly. (See Minutes, p. 313.) The Committee find the case in order, and recommend that it be taken up and issued according to the prescriptions of the Book of Discipline.

The report was adopted, and the case was ordered to be placed upon the docket.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. J. G. Riheldaffer.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. C. M. Oakley.

Dr. Breckinridge reported from the Committee on that subject, the following minute, which was adopted.

The General Assembly has found great pleasure in the visit of the Rev. Theodore Monod, and in hearing his statements concerning the Union of Evangelical Churches in France, and the Evangelical Society of France, our beloved brethren, whom he represents in his mission to the churches in the United States.

It is the more grateful to the General Assembly to receive this brother, and to encourage him in his work, because it pleased God, having led him to this country in his youth, to bring him to the Saviour among our people, and to give him his training for the holy ministry in one of our Theological Seminaries, with his licensure and ordination by our Presbyteries; so that we recognize in him one of ourselves, recalled to his native land for the work of the Lord there, and now sent back to us for a season, to convey to us the Christian salutations of our brethren, and to receive such offerings as we can give them in their need. Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Rev. Theodore Monod is hereby affectionately recommended to the confidence and to the cordial and liberal assistance of all our churches in behalf of our brethren in France, for whom he has come to plead the cause of our Lord in that land.

Dr. Breckinridge reported a communication from J. A. Jacobs, which was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, viz., the reception of reports from the Committees on Synodical Records. The Records of the Synods of Buffalo, Allegheny, Chicago, and Iowa were approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh presented the following report, which was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh report, recommending their approval, with exception of a minute, page 152 of the Records, where an overture from the United Presbyterian Synod of Pittsburgh appears to have been answered, without any description being given of it.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Sandusky presented the following report, which was adopted.

The Committee recommend the approval of the minutes of last year. And further, that as the Synod have lost their book of records, and have been unable, after diligent search, to recover it, they be recommended to use their best endeavours to restore the lost minutes, marking in the new book the place where the minutes began again to be recorded in the regular way.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Wisconsin presented the following report, which was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Wisconsin report, recommending their approval as far as written, with these exceptions, 1st. The pages are not numbered. 2d. There seems to have been a want of proper care in the preservation of papers, as the Committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly made a verbal report, which was accepted; but the report is wanting. This thing the Synod itself condemns in the case of the Presbytery of Dane.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky presented a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee recommend that the records be approved with the following exceptions: 1st. The action of Synod on page 144, taking exception to the action of the last General Assembly on slavery. 2d. That the Synod has wholly failed to make any deliverance during the past year calculated to sustain and encourage our government in its efforts to suppress a most extensive, wanton, and wicked rebellion, aiming at nothing short of the life of the nation.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, May 24.

The Assembly met, and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the following Commissioner had presented his commission, and taken his seat: Ruling Elder—George P. Strong.

Dr. Martin gave notice that he would enter his protest against the disposal made yesterday of his case.

A communication from Dr. D. X. Junkin was received and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Rev. F. Senour, Chairman of the Special Committee of Five on the State of the Country, reported. The report was accepted, and placed upon the docket.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Newton, requesting the General Assembly to prepare and issue a Pastoral Letter to the Churches on the necessity of a revival of religion and an enlarged Christian benevolence, especially in view of the injurious tendencies of the war. The Committee refer the matter to the General Assembly to appoint a committee, if deemed expedient to draft such a letter, and report to this Assembly.

The report was adopted, and Dr. Wood was appointed the committee called for by the report.

The order of the day was then taken up, and Dr. Lord, chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, presented its report, which was accepted.

The Rev. T. L. Janeway, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

Mr. C. A. Preston moved to amend the third resolution by substituting the word "congregations," instead of "churches." Carried.

Dr. Monfort moved to further amend the same resolution by substituting the words "restore and build up," for "reclaim and rebuild." Carried.

The resolutions were ordered to be taken up seriatim.

The preamble and the first resolution of the report were adopted.

The second order of the day was taken up and nominations called for, for the Boards and Theological Seminaries.

The Rev. J. M. Platt, from the Committee on Correspondence, reported the following, which was adopted:

The Committee on Correspondence report, that having been informed of the inability of the delegates appointed last year to attend the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, about to sit in Washington, Iowa, on the 26th inst., they would recommend the appointment of Rev. S. McC. Anderson, as principal, and Rev. E. L. Belden, as alternate, to discharge this service, and that they be immediately notified of this action, by telegraph.

Dr. Green, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Case No. 3, being a complaint of L. R. Lockwood against the Synod of Iowa, for not sustaining his appeal from the Presbytery of Dubuque. No reasons accompany the complaint, and there is no evidence that any notice of complaint was given to the Synod. The Committee therefore recommend that it be dismissed, and the complainant have leave to withdraw his papers. The report was adopted.

Also, Case No. 7, being a complaint of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of St. Charles, Mo., against the Synod of Missouri, and Case No. 8, being a complaint of Rev. Robert P. Farris, against the Synod of Missouri.

These two cases are substantially identical, and may be regarded as one. The Committee find that in the matter complained of there was no action of the Synod as such, but only a decision of the Moderator affecting the complainants, from which they made no appeal to the body of the Synod, and consequently they have no just ground of complaint. They therefore recommend that it be dismissed, and that the complainants have leave to withdraw their papers. The report was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Wood, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow afternoon, to take up report on Overtures Nos. 6 and 7.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. D. J. Waller.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. H. Symmes.

The order of the day was taken up, and Dr. Craven presented the Report of the Standing Committee on the Committees on the Religious Instruction of the Freedmen. The report was accepted.

On motion, the Rev. S. C. Logan, and the Rev. Joseph Warren, D. D., were invited to address the Assembly, and did so.

Dr. Craven moved that the Rev. H. W. Cobb, who has brought credentials from the Northwestern Freedmen's Aid Commission, be heard for fifteen minutes on this subject. The motion was carried, and Mr. Cobb accordingly addressed the Assembly.

The report as amended was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Reports of the Committees for the Education of Freedmen, report:

That they have had placed in their hands the minutes of both these Committees, and also a full statement of their accounts of moneys received and disbursed. They have examined the same, and recommend their approval to the Assembly.

They have also carefully examined the Reports of the Committees, and have listened to statements from members thereof, and other gentlemen who have been engaged in the great work committed to their supervision.

Several important questions presented themselves to the attention of your Committee, upon which, after much deliberation, they were enabled to arrive at unanimous conclusions.

The first of these questions was:—Should the Assembly continue to conduct its operations by an agency or agencies distinct from existing Boards?

In view of the vast field suddenly opened to the Church by the emancipation of four millions of our race from bondage, and the peculiar nature of the work to be performed by them, in great measure indeed, the same as that now conducted by three of our Boards, and yet in some respects diverse therefrom, your Committee are unanimously and decidedly of the opinion that a separate agency should be employed, temporary in its character, to be continued only so long as in the judgment of the Assembly, the exigencies of the work may require.

The second question that presented itself was:—Should the work be conducted as at present, by two distinct agencies, or by one central committee?

In view of the superior efficiency of one committee, arising from unity of action and greater comprehensiveness of view, and also the greater economy of such a Committee, your Committee decided to recommend one Central Committee, empowered to employ two Secretaries, one having charge of the Eastern, and the other of the Western field.

Two other papers were placed in the hands of your Committee, the one an Overture from the Presbytery of Leavenworth, in reference to the establishment of a school (of a normal and theological character) in connection with the existing Western Committee; the other, a memorial in reference to the establishment of the Lincoln Memorial College. Whilst your Committee fully recognize the importance of the establishment of such institutions as are contemplated in these papers, and especially the importance of giving theological training to the recognized but ignorant ministry of the Freedmen; and whilst in reference to the last named paper, they recognize the deep obligation of the country and of the African race to the late venerated and beloved President, and also the peculiar fitness of such a monument as is contemplated to his memory, they are not prepared to recommend to the Assembly any immediate and definite action on the subject. The character of the higher institutions to be established, must in a great measure depend on the general policy to be inaugurated by the Church in reference to the African race. What that policy should be, your Committee do not feel that they have data sufficient to determine, nor time, if they had the data, sufficient properly to digest. They therefore determined to recommend that these papers be referred to the Committee on Freedmen, with directions to consider the whole subject of the policy of the Church in reference to the African race, and report to the next Assembly, empowering them, however, to make such temporary arrangements for higher instruction during the current year as to them may seem necessary.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly recognizing and rejoicing in the adorable Providence that has given civil liberty to nearly four millions of the enslaved African race; recognizing also, that the hope of that race, not only for the world to come, but also for this world, is in their possession of the gospel, that only by its influences can they be elevated to the proper standing of freemen, and that without its influences they must still further deteriorate physically, mentally, and spiritually. Recognizing further that the elevation of that people among us is essential to the highest interests of our own race, and of our beloved country, and is in order to the evangelization of the land of their fathers, and the consequent fulfilment of the prophecy that Ethiopia shall stretch out her hands unto God; in the belief also, that the system of truth taught by our Church, and the policy established by her in Church-extension, are in order to the highest development of that now degraded people, hereby declares that in its judgment it is the duty of the Presbyterian Church, as patriots, as philanthropists, as Christians, at once to enter upon and vigorously to cultivate the field that God has opened before them.

2. Resolved, That a Committee consisting of nine Ministers and nine Ruling Elders, be appointed by this Assembly, to be styled the General Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, and whose location shall be the City of Pittsburg, Pa., to whom shall be committed during the existence of present exigencies, and until the Assembly shall otherwise order, the religious and educational interests of so many of that people as may be brought under their influence.

3. Resolved, That the members of this Committee be arranged in three classes, consisting each of three Ministers and three Ruling Elders—the places of the members of the first class to be vacated at the termination of one year; those of the second class at the expiration of two years, and those of the third class at the expiration of three years, so that three Ministers and three Ruling Elders may be elected each for the full term of three years, every year after the present.

4. Resolved, That this Committee be directed to organize on the third Wednesday of June next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburg, Pa., and that the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to give official notice to each member of his appointment. And thereafter, the said Committee shall hold its annual meeting on the last Wednesday of April, in the city of Pittsburg, and a majority of its members shall always be a quorum for the transaction of business.

5. Resolved, That this Committee be empowered to receive, hold, and disburse all funds that may be contributed by the Church and by individuals, to the end contemplated; to employ such missionaries and teachers, and to secure such buildings as to them may seem necessary, and in general to take supervision of the whole field; yet so as not to interfere in their operations with the work already committed to the different Boards of the Church.

6. Resolved, That to this Committee be referred the overture of the Presbytery of Leavenworth, and the memorial on the establishment of "The Lincoln Memorial College," with directions to consider the whole subject of the policy of the Church in reference to the education of the African race, and to report to the next Assembly.

7. Resolved, That the Committee be empowered to make such temporary arrangements for the higher instruction of the Freedmen during the current year as to them may seem necessary.

8. Resolved, That this Committee, as fast as in their judgment they deem it consistent with the interests of the cause committed to them, be and hereby are directed to transfer to the Boards of the Church such parts of their work as may belong to the specific objects of these several Boards.

9. Resolved, That until the organization of this Committee, the existing Committees be directed to continue the supervision and direction of the work as already inaugurated by them, and that they be instructed upon the organization thereof, to transfer to them all papers, documents, property, and moneys then in their hands or under their control pertaining to their work.

10. Resolved, That two pages of the Home and Foreign Record be set apart to the use of the Committee.

11. Resolved, That the Assembly recommends that a collection be taken in all our churches, which may not have fixed another time for the purpose, upon the first Sabbath in October next.

12. Resolved, That while this Assembly rejoices in all evangelical efforts of the various associations for the Freedmen, it affectionately urges all the churches under its care to make their contributions for the benefit of this class of people to the Assembly's own Committee.

The Moderator announced that he had substituted the name of O. G. Keith, in the place of that of F. H. Tunison, on the Committee on Leave of Absence.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri, reported, recommending that they be approved. The report was adopted.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

THURSDAY Morning, May 25.

The Assembly met, and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the Rev. G. W. Heacock, D. D., and Horace Stillman, ruling elder, had presented their credentials as delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now sitting in Brooklyn, New York.

Rev. J. B. Graham, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to ruling elders John R. Coard and F. H. Tunison, after the sessions of yesterday. Approved.

The Rev. R. Morrison gave notice for himself and others, that they would enter a protest against the decision of yesterday, on the case of the Rev. Robert Farris; also, against the decision admitting Hamilton Smith as ruling elder from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri.

It was moved and carried, that the orders of the day be so far changed that the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education be presented at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day, and the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions at 10 A. M. to-morrow

Mr. Morris Patterson, from the Finance Committee, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Finance Committee, to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, respectfully report:

That they have examined the Report of the Treasurer, and compared the statements of accounts therein presented with his general ledger and account books, and find the same correct. The amount received from all sources, during the fiscal year ending May 1, A.D. 1865, was $67,179.22; the balance in the treasury, May 1, 1864, was $12,592,36—making a total of $79,771.58. The expenditures during the year were $67,389.34, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer at the close of the year of $12,382.24.

Whole receipts and balance, ...	$79,771 58
Whole amount of expenditures, . . .	67,389 34
Balance, ...	$12,382 24

Accompanying the Report of the Treasurer were the following papers:

1. Abstract of receipts and payments.
2. Balance-sheet of ledger.
3. Items composing cash balance.
4. Statement of income derived from investments.
5. Statement of permanent funds, showing balance uninvested.
6. Statement of investments held by the Trustees of the Assembly, amounting to $131,988.53, being an increase of $16,150.

The securities of the General Assembly, representing the above sum of $131,988.53, were not placed before the Committee, but the certificate of the Finance Committee of the Trustees was, from which it appears that the sum of $48,150 are invested in securities of the United States, $7000 in city of Philadelphia six per cent. loan, $69,338.53 in bonds and mortgages on property in the city of Philadelphia, and $7500 in bonds and mortgages out of the city of Philadelphia, the interest on all of which is paid regularly, and it is believed the principal is amply secured.

The Committee report four vacancies in the Board of Trustees, caused by the decease of the Rev. John McDowell, D. D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; Rev. Robert Steel, D. D., of the 2d Presbytery of Philadelphia; Rev. H. Steele Clarke, D. D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; and Alexander Mitchell, M. D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

On motion, the Report of the Standing Committee on the Disabled Ministers' Fund was presented by Dr. Steel, its Chairman.

The Rev Joseph H. Jones, D. D., Secretary for the Fund, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Assembly in relation to the Fund for Disabled Ministers, &c., would respectfully submit the following resolutions to the attention and consideration of this Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That it is a matter for congratulation, that each succeeding year shows a growing attachment on the part of our churches and members, to this important cause of benevolence, which is manifested by increased contributions.

Resolved, 2. That we express our pleasure in view of the fact that our disabled ministers, and destitute widows and orphans of deceased ministers, have had their wants readily and cheerfully supplied by the officers of this fund, so far as proper applications for aid have been presented to them.

Resolved, 3. That the friends of this cause throughout our churches be encouraged to continue their liberality, inasmuch as the demand upon this fund will no doubt be considerably increased the present year.

Resolved, 4. That the Report on this subject, presented by the Trustees, be appended to the Minutes of the Assembly, and be printed by the Board of Publication for the use of the churches and ministers.

Dr. Monfort, Chairman of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, reported nominations to fill vacancies in the several Boards of Directors.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 22, from the Trustees of the Cortland Van Rensselaer Memorial Institute, informing the General Assembly that this body, by the charter of the school, "has power, in their discretion, in each and every year, to elect one-third of said Trustees, by the appointment of others, and also to fill all vacancies which may occur." The charter also provides "that upon the failure of the General Assembly to elect Trustees," their "Board of Trustees have full power to fill all vacancies which may occur, by reason of resignation, death, or expiration of time"

The Committee recommend that the General Assembly transfer their right of election to the Board of Trustees, until such time as the Assembly shall deem it necessary, wise, or expedient to exercise this right.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. D. J. Waller, Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, presented its report.

The Rev. Thomas McCauley, Assistant Secretary of the Board of Education, by invitation addressed the Assembly.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Annual Report of the Board of Education would respectfully report, that every facility has been afforded them for a thorough examination of the proceedings and financial condition of the Board. After a perusal of its minutes, and a careful consideration of the whole subject, your Committee are unanimously of the opinion that the administration of the affairs of this important arm of the Church's service, has been faithful, efficient, and judicious.

Having reached this conclusion, the Committee were startled and deeply grieved by the announcement, that the Corresponding Secretary of this Board, the Rev. William Chester, D. D., had been removed by death. His labours, and his life, were terminated on Tuesday afternoon of the present week, in the city of Washington. We fondly anticipated meeting him on the floor of this Assembly. But alas! his familiar form shall be seen and his voice be heard no more in earthly courts.

The interests of the Board have been much less injuriously affected by the great rebellion than might have been feared. Let us hope the return of peace will bring a brighter day of prosperity to this, in common with all the organizations of Christian effort.

Your Committee would respectfully recommend the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly commend the Board of Education to the confidence and renewed liberality of all our churches.

Resolved, 2. That Christian parents are exhorted, renewedly and prayerfully, to consider their duty to the Lord, in training their children for his service, in the ministry of the gospel.

Resolved, 3. That the Board be charged by the Assembly with the duty of looking carefully over the claims of the colleges which may apply for aid or endowments, and in view of their location and prospective success and usefulness, to recommend to Christian liberality, only those which, in the deliberate judgment of the Board, give encouraging promise of speedy and permanent usefulness.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly earnestly recommend to our congregations in which circumstances will permit, the establishment of parochial schools. And for the encouragement of such, the Board is hereby directed to send a copy of its last Annual Report to each church session in our connection.

Resolved, 5. In view of the marked manifestation of God's favour and blessing upon the observance in the past, that this General Assembly recommend that all our churches unite with other Christian bodies, in setting apart the last Thursday in February, as a day of prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our children and youth, and especially upon those assembled in the schools, colleges and all institutions of learning in our land. And that a collection be taken on that day for the College Fund of the Board.

The Rev. James M. Platt offered a memorial from the Trustees of the Ashmun Institute, which was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. West presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the following Committee be appointed, to act in concert with other Committees similarly appointed by other Evangelical denominations, for the purpose of giving expression to our desire for more visible fellowship, and for securing a more vigorous co-operation in the defence of Protestant Christianity, as against the encroachments of Roman Catholicism and Infidelity in our land.

Philadelphia—Rev. Dr. Breed, John McArthur.
Brooklyn—Rev. Dr. West, Professor Eaton.
Jersey City—Rev. Dr. Imbrie.

Chicago—Rev. Dr. Lord, Charles Crosby.

The Report of the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions was taken up as unfinished business. The second and third resolutions were adopted. Pending the fourth resolution

Dr. Lord moved that it be the order of the day for 4 o'clock, this afternoon, to hear the delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now sitting in Brooklyn, New York. Carried.

Dr. Howard, Chairman of the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported arrangements for religious services on the next Sabbath.

The report was approved.

The Assembly then adjourned after prayer by the Rev. Dr. Dilworth.

THURSDAY Afternoon, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Robert Morrison.

The order of the day was taken up, and Dr. Wood reported

Overture No. 6. From the Presbytery of Richland, and from members of the Presbytery of Madison, asking the Assembly to drop from its roll the names of certain ministers, Presbyteries, and Synods, in the so-called Confederate States, with a report thereon. Also Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of California, inquiring what course ought to be pursued in regard to admitting to their body ministers who are known to be disloyal to the government of the United States, or who may be suspected of disloyalty.

As a sufficient and pertinent answer to this overture, the committee recommended the adoption of the memorial read to the General Assembly on this subject, and which had been referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

On motion, these two overtures and the reports thereon, were taken up together. Pending their consideration.

The second order of the day was taken up, and the Rev. G. W. Heacock, D. D., and Horace Stillman, ruling elder, delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church sitting in Brooklyn, N. Y., addressed the Assembly, and were responded to by the Moderator.

The first order of the day, viz, the consideration of overtures Nos. 6 and 7, was again taken up. Mr. A. E. Chamberlain moved to restore to the memorial certain words which had been stricken out by the Committee on Bills and Overtures. Carried.

Dr. Monfort offered a substitute for the report of the Committee on Overture No. 6, when

On motion of Dr. Breed, the report of the Committee on Overture No. 6 was laid upon the table, and Dr. Monfort's paper was substituted in its place.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

FRIDAY Morning, May 26.

The Assembly met and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

It was made the first order of the day for this afternoon to finish receiving reports from Committees on Synodical Records.

Dr. Perkins, Chairman of the Special Committee on Judicial Case No. 5, presented a report which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Judicial Case originating in the session of the Seventh Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati, beg leave to report:

1. They find that said session tried certain parties upon five several charges, and found them guilty upon the first, second, and fifth, and adjudged them worthy of serious admonition on the ground of the first and fifth, and suspension upon the second.

2. The Presbytery of Cincinnati deciding the case upon appeal, affirmed the decision of the session.

3. The Synod of Cincinnati also acting upon it under appeal, reversed the decision of the Presbytery and session.

4. Your Committee, after hearing all the testimony in the case, and all the parties thereto by their representatives; and after full and protracted consideration, while they find in the proceedings of the session and Presbytery no evidence of other than a kind and conscientious desire to do justice to all the parties concerned, respectfully recommend the following as the judgment of the Assembly in the case.

Resolved, 1. That the decision of the Synod reversing the action of the Presbytery and Session upon the first and fifth charges be itself reversed, and the session be instructed to administer the serious admonition of which they wisely judged the parties to be worthy.

Resolved, 2. That the decision of the Synod, reversing the action of the Presbytery and session, upon the second charge, be sustained in part, on the ground that the suspension of the parties accused was too severe in the case, and that the session be recommended to revoke the suspension, and admonish the parties.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No 1, from the Synod of Ohio, Presbytery of Richland, Presbytery of Redstone, Presbytery of Indianapolis, Presbytery of New Lisbon, and Presbytery of Muncie, asking the removal of the Board of Domestic Missions and the Board of Education to points farther west; also one from the Bloomington Presbytery, adverse to any removal.

These overtures, for the most part, ask that the Board of Education be located at Pittsburgh, and the Board of Domestic Missions at Cincinnati. One of them asks that the Board of Domestic Missions be located at Indianapolis.

In order to give further opportunity for our Presbyteries and Synods to express their views on this subject, the Committee recommend that final action be postponed until the next meeting of the General Assembly.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 17, from the Westminster Presbyterian Church, of Beloit, Wisconsin, asking permission of the General Assembly to sell their house of worship.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Whereas, the Westminster Church (Old-school) and the First Presbyterian Church (New-school), in the city of Beloit, Wisconsin, have agreed to unite and become one church, under the name of the First Presbyterian Church of Beloit, to be under the care of this General Assembly; and whereas, the house of worship of the Westminster Church is to be sold, and the proceeds to be applied to pay the debts due on the First Presbyterian Church, but such sale cannot be legally effected without the consent of the Trustees of our General Assembly, therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly instruct their Trustees to authorize the sale of the said house of worship of the Westminster Church, and the lot on which it stands, for the purpose aforesaid, taking care that the property so conveyed shall not be alienated from our body.

The report was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Lord, it was ordered that the unfinished business of Domestic Missions be taken up immediately after the second order of this forenoon.

On motion of Dr. Breed, the whole subject, and all the papers connected with Overtures Nos. 6 and 7, were recommitted to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. Monfort, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, reported nominations for Directors in the Seminary of the Northwest. Additional nominations were also made from other sources.

It was ordered that the election for Directors in this Seminary be made the order of the day for to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

Dr. Bannard, Chairman of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, presented its report.

Dr. John C Lowrie, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, addressed the Assembly.

The Rev. A. B. Cross moved as an amendment to the Report that a resolution presented by him be inserted as the 3d resolution of the Report. The motion was carried, and the resolution inserted in its proper place.

The Report thus amended was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions respectfully report to the Assembly, that their examination of its records impresses them with the conviction, that the Church is called to devout thanksgiving to God for his special favour to this cause.

The past year has been marked by extreme anxiety and threatened embarrassment, and also by hopeful progress and happy deliverances.

No operations of the Board have been suspended, no missionaries recalled from their field, or detained at home, as seemed at one time probable; but on the other hand the work has gone forward—though in some cases on a restricted scale. All who have been ready have been sent forth, the claims of the Board have been met, and the year ended with a small surplus in the treasury. Friends abroad and the churches at home have contributed with unprecedented liberality to its funds, so that a larger amount has been received than in any previous year of its history, while its affairs have been conducted with the marked prudence, economy, and skill which have previously characterized its official management. For these things the Assembly is called to thank God, while it ascribes to Him all the glory.

The report also calls for a devout recognition of the hand of God, in the removal by death, of an unusual number of the efficient friends and servants of the Board—two of them prized and useful missionaries, who fell suddenly at their posts by the hand of violence; two of them valued members of the Executive Committee; and another, the first Corresponding Secretary of the Society which was the germ of this Board, and who continued its warm friend to the close of his long and honoured life. While the Assembly rejoices in the marked favour shown this cause during the year, it also mourns the loss of these and others of its active friends and faithful labourers.

In view further of the condition and claims of this Board, as indicated by its report, the Committee recommend the following action to the Assembly:

Resolved, 1*st*. That the work of Foreign Missions calls for expansion.

The results achieved encourage the Church to greater efforts. The success secured imposes the necessity of more labourers and larger expenditures. Past retrenchment demands liberal outlays, now that our civil war is ended. The prayers and wants of our brethren in the field, the field itself white to the harvest, the loss occasioned by age, infirmity, and death among its labourers, all appeal for an increase of men and means; while the voice of God's providence in his favour to this work clearly says to his Church, "Go forward!"

Resolved, 2*d*. That the contributions of the Church the past year have proved her ability to sustain this cause with increased liberality in the future. Her resources have multiplied, as her bounty has abounded. While she has responded with a generous hand to the many and pressing calls of the Home and Foreign field, especially for the army, God has fulfilled his promise to "them that honour him with their substance," and thus placed at her disposal larger means, and encouraged her to larger liberality.

Resolved, 3*d*. That the promptness, energy, and abundance with which our young men have come forward during the past year to engage in our armies for the defence of our nation in its war against rebellion, should encourage Christians to pray for that increased devotion of our sons to the service of Christ, which is demanded to provide ministers and missionaries to go into the fields which are now open to hear the gospel.

And it is our earnest hope that the Church may testify her gratitude to God for the great deliverances and blessings which he has vouchsafed to our nation, by increased efforts for the extension of Christ's kingdom in foreign lands.

Resolved, 4*th*. That the General Assembly is impressed with the vital necessity of fervent and effectual prayer for the Holy Spirit to give success to the agencies employed by this Board for the spread of the gospel. The truth is preached, the seed sown, schools planted, churches formed, and the Bible distributed; but what is needed beyond all other things, and to give effect to all the plans pursued, is the mighty power of God's Spirit. The efficacy of prayer for home interests, as well as the Divine promise, encourages the Church to more importunity for God's blessing on the work abroad; while all the interests of that work, and all the labourers in it unite in the entreaty, "Brethren, pray for us."

The Permanent Clerk read a letter of credentials from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, presented by the Rev. David Herron, a delegate from that body. The letter was referred to the Committee on Correspondence, and it was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon next to hear Mr. Herron.

The second order of the day was taken up, and the Assembly entered upon the election to fill vacancies in the various Boards and Theological Seminaries. Printed tickets were distributed, and the Moderator appointed the Rev. Messrs. Chapin, Sutphen, and Jewett, tellers to collect and count the votes.

The Assembly took up the election of Trustees of the General Assembly, when the following persons were unanimously elected, viz. the Rev. Alexander Reed, in place of the Rev. John McDowell, D. D.; the Rev. V. D. Reed, in place of the Rev. Robert Steel, D. D.; the Rev. Wm. E. Schenck, D. D., in place of the Rev. Henry Steele Clarke, D. D.; and Samuel Hood, Esq., in place of Alexander W. Mitchell, M. D., deceased.

The Assembly then adjourned after prayer by the Rev. J. Aspinwall Hodge.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. R. Campbell.

The order of the day was taken up, and further reports from the Committees on Synodical Records were called for.

The Records of the Synods of the Pacific, New York, Philadelphia, Wheeling, Albany, Ohio, Northern Indiana, Illinois, and St. Paul, were approved.

The Records of the Synods of Nashville, Northern India, Baltimore, Indiana, and Southern Iowa, were reported as being not present in the Assembly.

The Records of the Synod of New Jersey were approved, and on the recommendation of the Committee on these Records, it was Resolved, That that portion of the Records relating to the usage of Presbyteries in dismissing their members to join Associations, be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Records of the Synod of Cincinnati were approved, with the following exceptions: 1. When, on page 5th the Synod adjourned without prayer. 2. Where, on pages 6 and 13, a complaint was received, referred and decided, without any statement in regard to the character of said complaint.

Mr. Charles Crosby, from the Committee on Mileage, reported the following, which was adopted.

The Committee on Mileage would respectfully report that there have been paid into the Commissioners' Fund $563.16, that there have been 14,079 miles travelled by the Commissioners in coming to the present Assembly, who claim mileage, which, at four cents per mile, will amount to the said sum of $563.16. They therefore recommend that the General Assembly direct their Trustees to draw an order on their Treasurer for the sum of $563.16, and that he pay it out in sums as herein stated, provided that no Commissioner receive more than his expenses in coming to and going from the Assembly.

The Report of the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions was taken up as unfinished business, the fourth resolution being under discussion. The fourth, fifth, sixth, and eighth resolutions were adopted. The seventh resolution was, by leave of the Assembly, withdrawn, and a substitute offered by Dr. Lord, was adopted in its place. The whole report, as thus amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Anual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, would represent to the General Assembly that in their judgment no report since the organization of the Board has been fraught with deeper interest, or furnished more satisfactory evidence of the wisdom and vigour with which its affairs have been prosecuted. It is manifest that the Board have been mindful of the signs of the times, and have been preparing to meet the enlarged responsibilities which God in his wondrous providence toward our beloved land has devolved upon them.

The Committee recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That in view of the vast field for missionary labour opened up before the Church by the termination of the war, and the reëstablishment of the government, the Assembly enjoin upon the churches under their charge renewed effort and increased liberality to meet this great enlargement of the missionary work to which God in his providence so manifestly calls them, and particularly by every means in their power to increase the number of laborers in this field, now white for the harvest, and the occupation of which is hindered more by a deficiency of men than of means.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly approve of the action of the Board in the extra appropriation of twenty-five per cent., which they have been enabled to send to our missionaries at a time when it was demanded by their necessities, and when their faithful and devoted laborers in their distant fields were under the pressure of a monetary crisis now happily passed.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly direct the Board of Domestic Missions to take prompt and effectual measures to restore and build up the Presbyterian congregations in the Southern States of this Union by the appointment and support of prudent and devoted missionaries.

Resolved, 4. That none be appointed but those who give satisfactory evidence of their loyalty to the national government, and that they are in cordial sympathy with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in her testimony on doctrine, loyalty, and freedom.

Resolved, 5. That special efforts be made to instruct and evangelize and gather into churches, on a credible profession of faith, the colored population.

Resolved, 6. That in view of the extensive and urgent demand for pious and loyal ministers, elders and teachers, in the southern States, such be earnestly recommended to direct their course to that now opening and inviting field, as presenting a loud call from the Lord Jesus Christ to pass over and help to rebuild that part of the American Zion which has been so sadly laid waste by the rebellion and civil war.

Resolved, 7. That the Board of Domestic Missions be and are hereby authorized to substitute the word Home for Domestic, in title of said Board, and take the measures necessary to secure from the Legislature of Pennsylvania a change in the charter.

Resolved, 8. The Committee would further respectfully report that, agreeably to the order of the General Assembly, the books of the Board have been presented to them and examined and approved.

On motion of the Rev. F. Senour, the Report on the State of the Country was recommitted to the Committee on that subject.

Dr. Howard, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported further arrangements for religious services on the next Sabbath.

On motion, the papers in Judicial Case No. 5, were ordered to be returned to the parties in the case. This was done.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. J. S. Braddock.

By leave of the Assembly, Dr. Green, and Dr. Wm. M. Paxton, addressed the Assembly in reference to the Princeton Review, urging a larger subscription thereto.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported a communication from Joseph M. Wilson, and moved that he be heard. The motion was carried, the paper read, and Mr. Wilson heard, when on motion the resolutions attached to the paper were adopted. They are as follows:

Resolved, That the churches under the care of this General Assembly be requested to reply to the following questions:

1*st*. Please give the name of your church, the year of its organization, and the name of the Presbytery to which it belongs?

2*d*. What has been about the annual amount of rent paid by your minister for a house to live in?

3*d*. Have you a Manse, thereby securing a comfortable home for your minister?

4*th*. If you have a Manse, how long has it been finished, and (about) what amount in rent does your minister annually save by living in The Manse?

5*th*. What was the plan adopted to awaken the interest of your people, and thus secure the means to build the Manse?

6*th*. Have you a Glebe attached to your Manse, what is its extent and value, and about what is saved to a minister's family by tilling a few acres?

Resolved, That the Ministers, Ruling Elders, Deacons, Trustees, and members of the churches be requested to make replies to these questions, adding any information likely to awaken an interest in the subject.

Resolved, That said replies be sent to Joseph M. Wilson, of Philadelphia, to be by him arranged and classified in time to be presented to the General Assembly of 1865.

An examination of the circular will show that replies to the first question will give a chronological history of the growth of the Church, interesting and valuable to intelligent Presbyterians.

Replies to the second question will give the amount the ministers are taxed for the privilege of preaching the gospel, for in connection with this fact it should be understood by the people, that it would be as fair and honest to charge a minister for the use of the pulpit where he preaches his sermons, as for the house where he prepares them.

Replies to the third question will give the happy results of earnest and zealous Christians, who have supplied their minister with a Manse, thereby securing him a valuable home.

These circulars were issued in the autumn of 1864, but up to this time the returns have not been sufficient to warrant any special classification of them; the letters accompanying the returns manifest a lively interest in the subject, and a hope that it may be pushed forward with zeal; therefore,

Resolved, That the churches under the care of this General Assembly, that have not yet responded to the circular referred to in this report, be requested to do so at their earliest convenient opportunity, sending said report to Joseph M. Wilson, at Philadelphia, Pa.

Resolved, That in order more fully to awaken the attention of the churches to the importance of this subject, the Stated Clerks of each Presbytery be instructed at the semi-annual meetings of their Presbytery of each church under its care—what they have done in times past—what they are now doing—or what they propose to do towards building a Manse, thereby securing a comfortable home for their minister.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery in their annual report to the General Assembly of 1866, be requested to make known the condition of their Presbytery in this particular, showing what churches have Manses, what churches are building them, and what churches are without them.

Resolved, That the returns from the Presbyteries concerning Manses be added to the Presbyterial Narrative of the State of Religion, which is usually handed in by the Commissioners from the Presbyteries, and the Assembly to take such action on the subject as may seem proper.

The next order of the day was taken up, when Dr. Monfort moved to postpone the order and make it the second order of the day for next Monday afternoon, to elect Directors for the Seminary of the Northwest.

While this motion was under discussion, the hour for adjournment arrived, and it was left as unfinished business.

On motion, it was ordered that all speeches on this subject be limited to ten minutes each. Drs. W. L. Breckinridge and Elliott were afterwards, by special votes, allowed to speak at such length as they might desire. After which the report went over as unfinished business.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. J. F. Coons.

MONDAY Afternoon, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. G. W. Shaiffer.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, when the Rev. David Herron, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, addressed the Assembly, and was responded to by the Moderator.

Dr. Samuel Wilson presented, from the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, a resolution referred to it, with a recommendation thereon. The resolution was as follows:

Resolved, That the General Assembly requests each of the Presbyteries to take action at the earliest practicable moment to send, and when it can be done, to keep in the service of our Domestic Mission Board in the Southern field now open, one or more of their members; and directs that the Board of Missions pay travelling and other expenses of such delegates while employed in the service, and that no delegate be accepted for a shorter time than three months in the field assigned him.

The Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions respectfully recommends that this General Assembly refer the above paper to said Board, and recommend it to their serious consideration, and direct it as far as may be found practicable, to carry into effect the proposed plan of evangelical work in the border and other States of the South, having due regard to the rules adopted to regulate the action of the Board and the funds at its disposal. The recommendation was adopted.

The unfinished business of the forenoon was taken up, viz., the report on Overture No. 6.

The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following minute:

Whereas, During the existence of the great rebellion which has disturbed the peace and threatened the life of the nation, a large number of Presbyteries and Synods in the Southern States, whose names are on the roll of the General Assembly as constituent parts of this body, have organized an Assembly denominated "The General Assembly of the Confederate States of America," in order to render their aid in the attempt to establish, by means of the rebellion, a separate national existence, and "to conserve and perpetuate the system of slavery," therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly regards the civil rebellion for the perpetuation of negro slavery as a great crime, both against our National Government and against God, and the secession of those Presbyteries and Synods from the Presbyterian Church, under such circumstances and for such reasons, as unwarranted, schismatical, and unconstitutional.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly does not intend to abandon the territory in which these churches are found, or to compromise the rights of any of the church courts, or ministers, ruling elders, and private members belonging to them, who are loyal to the government of the United States, and to the Presbyterian Church. On the contrary, this Assembly will recognize such loyal persons as constituting the churches, Presbyteries and Synods, in all the bounds of the schism, and will use earnest endeavours to restore and revive all such churches and church courts.

Resolved, 3. The Assembly hereby declares that it will recognize as the church, the members of any church within the bounds of the schism, who are loyal to the government of the United States of America, and whose views are in harmony with the doctrines of the Confession of Faith, and with the several testimonies of the Presbyterian Church on the subject of domestic slavery. And where any three ministers, who entertain the views above mentioned, belong to the same Presbytery, such ministers are hereby authorized and directed to continue their organization as a Presbytery; or any two such ministers are authorized to receive any minister of the same views, regularly dismissed to them, and thus continue their organizations with the churches above described in the same bounds, in connection with this Assembly. But if a sufficient number are not found in one Presbytery, they are authorized to unite with the loyal ministers and churches of one or more adjacent Presbyteries, retaining the name of one or both such united Presbyteries as shall be deemed expedient. A similar course is also authorized with regard to Synods.

Resolved, 4. In cases where there is not a sufficient number of loyal ministers and churches within a convenient district to form a Presbytery, such ministers are directed to supply churches and other places around them, as God may open the way, with the preaching of the gospel, and such churches are exhorted to use all diligence to secure the stated means of grace; and both ministers and churches are directed to report to the next General Assembly what has been done in these respects, that further order may be taken by the Assembly in the premises as the interests of Christ's cause may require.

Resolved, 5. The General Assembly furthermore give counsel to the Presbyteries and churches which may be revived and restored under the provisions of the above action, to treat with kindness ministers and churches or parts of churches, who are disloyal, or who are not in sympathy with the former deliverances of the General Assembly on the subject of slavery, and to inform such persons of their readiness to receive them into ecclesiastical fellowship, when they properly acknowledge and renounce their errors.

Resolved, 6. The Board of Domestic Missions is hereby authorized and requested to give special attention to the Southern field, in providing missionaries and appropriating pecuniary aid in order to carry into effect the measures contemplated in this Minute. And the Board is also authorized to employ any loyal minister whose residence may be in the South, as a missionary, provided he shall furnish satisfactory evidence of his fitness for the work, though circumstances may render it impracticable for him to obtain a Presbyterial recommendation.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, again reported Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of California, asking what course should be pursued in reference to the admission of disloyal ministers from other Presbyteries.

Mr. A. E. Chamberlain moved to substitute for the report, a memorial on the same subject last week referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Mr. A. C. Preston moved that the paper just reported from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, be amended by reinserting certain paragraphs voted out of it by a majority of that Committee, and that it be read by the Chairman as a separate report. Carried.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, Dr. Monfort moved that when the Assembly adjourn, it be to meet at 7½ o'clock this evening, and that this subject be taken up at that time. Carried.

The Rev. D. J. Waller moved that the Report from the Committee on Courts of Appeal be taken up as the first order of the day to-morrow forenoon, in place of the first order previously appointed. Carried.

On motion of the Rev. S. F. Colt, it was made the first order for to-morrow afternoon, to hear the report of the Committee on Correspondence.

On motion of Dr. Elliott, it was made the second order of the day for to-morrow afternoon, to receive the Report of the Special Committee of which he is Chairman, on the State of the Country.

The Rev. R. Morrison, for himself and others, presented and read a protest, which, on motion, was placed upon the docket.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. J. E. Nassau.

MONDAY Evening, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. S. R. Wilson.

It was moved and carried, that when the Assembly adjourn it be at 9 o'clock.

Dr. S. R. Wilson presented and read a protest against the disposal made of Judicial Cases Nos. 7 and 8. The protest was admitted to record, and it was ordered that a Committee be appointed to answer it.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was taken up, the motion of Mr. Chamberlain being under discussion.

On motion, the length of speeches during the discussion of this subject was limited to ten minutes.

Pending the discussion on Mr. Chamberlain's resolution, the Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

TUESDAY Morning, May 30th.

The Assembly met, and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the following, as the Committee to answer the protest of Dr. S. R. Wilson and others, viz., Dr. W. H. Green and Dr. Monfort, and ruling elder, G. P. Strong.

On motion, the Protest of Rev. R. Morrison and others, yesterday presented, was admitted to record, and it was ordered that a Committee be appointed to answer it. The Moderator announced as the Committee the Rev. S. F. Colt, the Rev. W. P. Breed, D. D., and ruling elder, O. N. Stoddard.

The first order of the day was taken up; viz., the consideration of the report of the Committee on Courts of Appeal, the motion before the Assembly being that offered by Judge Leavitt on Monday the 22d inst., to refer the report to the Presbyteries, with instructions to report their decisions on it to the next General Assembly.

After discussion, Dr. Bannard moved the previous question which was duly seconded, and the question was ordered, when the motion of Judge Leavitt to refer the report to the Presbyteries was carried.

The unfinished business of last evening was taken up, viz., the consideration of Mr. Chamberlain's motion on the report on Overture No. 7. After discussion, the Rev. E. Erskine moved an indefinite postponement of the motion in order to take up the second Report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on that Overture. Carried.

The second Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Overture No. 7, was then adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of California, inquiring what course they ought to take in admitting to this body ministers who are suspected of disloyalty to the government of the United States, whether they may examine them, &c., and also to the memorial referred to them on the same subject, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following minutes:

I. The right of every Presbytery to examine ministers asking admission into their body, as to their soundness in the faith, which has been long acknowledged and practised by our Presbyteries, implies their right by parity of reasoning to examine them on all subjects which seriously affect the peace, purity, and unity of the Church.

II. The exercise of this right becomes an imperative duty, in the present circumstances of our country, when, after the crushing by military force of an atrocious rebellion against the government of the United States, for the perpetuation of slavery, many ministers who have aided and abetted this revolt, may seek admission into Presbyteries located in the loyal States. Therefore,

III. It is hereby ordered that all our Presbyteries examine every minister applying for admission from any Presbytery or other ecclesiastical body in the Southern States, on the following points:

1. Whether he has in any way, directly or indirectly, of his own free will and consent, or without external constraint, been concerned at any time in aiding or countenancing the rebellion and the war which has been waged against the United States; and if it be found by his own confession or from sufficient testimony, that he has been so concerned, that he be required to confess and forsake his sin in this regard before he shall be received.

2. Whether he holds that the system of negro slavery in the South is a Divine institution, and that it is "the peculiar mission of the Southern Church to conserve the institution of slavery as there maintained," and if it be found that he holds either of these doctrines, that he be not received without renouncing and forsaking these errors.

IV. This injunction to Presbyteries is in like manner applicable to Synods, and it is hereby ordered that upon the application of any Presbytery to be received into any Synod where such Presbytery is or has been connected with the Southern General Assembly, such Synod shall examine all the members of said Presbytery on the points above named, and the reception of such Presbytery or any of the ministers thereof by such Synod shall depend upon their compliance with the conditions before mentioned.

V. Church sessions are also ordered to examine all applicants for church membership by persons from the Southern States, or who have been living in the South since the rebellion, concerning their conduct and principles on the points above specified; and if it be found that of their own free will they have taken up arms against the United States, or that they hold slavery to be an ordinance of God, as above stated, such persons shall not be admitted to the communion of the church till they give evidence of repentance for their sin and renounce their error.

VI. The General Assembly gives counsel to the several church courts specified in these orders, that in discharging the duties enjoined therein, due regard be paid to the circumstances of the case, and that justice be tempered with mercy. Especially is this counsel given to churches in the border States, where many impulsive and ardent young men, without due consideration, have been led away by their superiors, or seduced from their loyalty by their erroneous interpretation of the doctrine of State rights. Such persons, though highly criminal, are far less so than their unprincipled and ambitious leaders. While, in the treatment even of these, the honour of religion ought to be fully vindicated, more tenderness may be properly exercised than duty requires or admits in dealing with their guides and deceivers. By kind and faithful instruction and admonition, and by the presence of the Holy Spirit, most of them, it is hoped, will be reclaimed from the error of their ways, and become loyal citizens and valuable church members.

VII. It is further ordered, that if any minister or ministers belonging to any Presbytery or Presbyteries under the care of the General Assembly, have fled or been sent by civil or military authority beyond the jurisdiction of the United States on account of their disloyalty, or who may have gone for the same reason to any of the Southern States, and have aided in this rebellion, such Presbytery or Presbyteries shall take action on the subject, and unless they obtain satisfactory evidence of the repentance of such ministers, they shall declare and enter upon their records that they are thenceforth suspended from the functions of the gospel ministry until their cases can be regularly issued. And if after two years they shall still remain beyond the reach of such Presbytery or Presbyteries, the names of such ministers shall be erased from the roll, and they shall thereupon be no longer deemed ministers of the Presbyterian Church.

The Assembly received an invitation from the Pittsburgh Subsistence Committee, inviting the members to visit their dining-rooms for soldiers.

On motion, the invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Assembly voted to the Committee.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Moderator.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. S. M. Irvin.

Dr. S. R. Wilson, for himself and others, presented and read a protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the fourth resolution of the report on the Board of Domestic Missions.

The protest was received, and the Rev. Dr. Samuel Wilson, S. J. Niccolls, and elder C. A. Preston were appointed a committee to answer it.

Dr. S. R. Wilson, for himself and others, also presented a protest against the action of the Assembly in adopting the report on Overtures Nos. 6 and 7.

The protest was received, and referred to a committee, consisting of Dr. Craven, Rev. D. J. Waller, and elder S. A. Bonner, to prepare an answer thereto.

The Rev. James M. Platt, Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, presented its report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence report that they have had referred to them the following papers, viz.

1. A letter from the Rev. E. P. Humphrey, D. D., reporting his attendance as the delegate of this body to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church which met last year at Dayton, Ohio. The Committee recommend that his report be accepted, and his fidelity approved.

In connection with this, Mr. A. E. Chamberlain has reported verbally his failure to attend the sessions of the same Assembly, for the reason that he was unable to be present at the opening, and having telegraphed to Dr. Humphrey that he would be there on Tuesday, he received for answer that it would be too late, as an earlier hour had been fixed for his reception. Concerning this, your Committee recommend that Mr. Chamberlain's reasons for non-attendance be sustained, and that the Assembly express its regret that he was unable to discharge the service intrusted to him.

2. A report from the Rev. E. R. Craven, D. D., stating that he had attended to the duty assigned him as delegate to the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in June last, and that he was cordially and fraternally received. The Committee recommend that his report be accepted, and his fidelity approved.

3. A letter from the Rev. W. W. Colmery, reporting his attendance at the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church last year in Lebanon, Ohio, according to the appointment of our last Assembly, stating briefly the terms in which he addressed them, and the cordial manner in which he was received through the venerable Dr. Lowrie. Your Committee recommend that the fidelity of this delegate be approved.

4. A letter, certifying the appointment of the Rev. David Herron by the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America to present to this body the fraternal congratulations of that Synod, and to invite a correspondence with them by delegation or otherwise. Your Committee had previously reported, recommending the appointment of delegates, with the view of opening such a correspondence, and would here express the gratification of the Assembly at so pleasant a coincidence.

5. A letter from the Rev. J. T. McLaren, D. D. and the Hon. Francis G. Bailey, reporting their attendance upon the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, at Newcastle, Pennsylvania, having been appointed to that duty by this Assembly. Your Committee recommend that the report of these delegates be accepted, and their fidelity approved, and that the correspondence thus happily inaugurated be continued.

6. A letter from the Union of the Evangelical Churches of France, accrediting to us their delegate, the Rev. Theodore Monod, and conveying to us sundry expressions of Christian sympathy and regard. The Committee recommend the appointment of delegates to present to that body, or to its Commission Synodale, our most friendly salutations; and would herewith report also a reply to the letter received through Mr. Monod. [See Appendix.]

7. A letter from the Evangelical Society of France, commending the Rev. Theodore Monod as its delegate to the several ecclesiastical bodies in this country which he may visit, and conveying cordial assurances of sympathy and fraternal fellowship.

The Committee further report, that as the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which met this year in Brooklyn, has appointed St. Louis as the place of its next meeting, and as our own General Assembly will meet in the same city at the same time, we recommend that it be left to that Assembly to make such arrangements as may then seem most expedient for the more perfect development of that fellowship which we desire to see established between these two bodies.

The Committee further recommend that the following persons be appointed to represent this Assembly to the several ecclesiastical bodies with which we are in correspondence, viz.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church—The Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., principal, and the Rev. John Hall, D. D., alternate.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—The Rev. S. T. Wilson, principal, and the Rev. F. Senour, alternate.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church—The Rev. A. Donaldson, D. D. and ruling elder Hon. R. McKnight, principals, and the Rev. S. C. Logan, and Dr. Thomas McKennan, alternates.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America—The Rev. Samuel Steel, D. D. and ruling elder Hon. S. A. Bonner, principals, and the Rev. Moses A. Hoge, and ruling elder Hon. James W. Robinson, alternates.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of New York—The Rev. W. Bannard, D. D., principal, and the Rev. L. M. Miller, alternate.

To the Union of Evangelical Churches in France, the Evangelical Society of France, the Evangelical Society of Geneva, the Central Protestant Society of France, and the Synod of the Vaudois Church—The Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., the Rev. M. Newkirk, Jr., and the Rev. Edwin Emerson.

Dr. Elliott, Chairman of the Special Committee on the State of the Country, presented its report. The report was adopted unanimously, by rising; and is as follows:

This General Assembly, recognizing the special providence of Almighty

God, the Ruler of nations and Redeemer of men, in all the events connected with the terrible civil war which for four years has desolated our land, would here record our devout thanksgiving and gratitude to Him by whom "kings reign and princes decree justice," for his divine favour to us as a nation, in filling the hearts of the loyal people of these United States with an inextinguishable love for our national Union, and an unconquerable resolution to preserve it—in raising up a mighty host of valiant men, ready to give their lives in defence of our national government; in blessing the various departments of that government in their work of organizing, equipping, and maintaining, throughout the entire conflict, our vast army and navy; in providing leaders of wisdom, courage, and skill, suited for every emergency; in calling forth such unwonted benevolence in promoting the physical comfort and spiritual welfare of our soldiers and sailors, and in bringing so many of them to a saving knowledge, as we trust, of the plan of salvation through a crucified Redeemer; in bringing to confusion the counsels and overwhelming the power of our enemies, and in crowning our arms with triumphant success.

We would also render hearty thanks to Almighty God, that in this crisis of our nation's history, he gave us, in Abraham Lincoln, a Chief Magistrate who acknowledged his dependence on Him for wisdom and strength, and who eminently illustrated, in his life and character the virtues of fidelity to official duty, integrity and uprightness, firmness of purpose, patient endurance, courage and hope in disaster, moderation in victory, sympathy with the suffering, and kindness to foes;—one who exhibited that wisdom, sagacity, and mercy in administering the affairs of the nation, which secured for him the confidence and esteem of friends, silenced the calumnies of enemies, and constrained from malignant opposers and rebels, expressions of respect and admiration, and which will cause his name and memory to be honoured and revered by the pure and good in all time to come.

While we deeply deplore the loss of such a Chief Magistrate, and bow in humble submission to that mysterious providence which permitted treason, as its culminating act of atrocity and wickedness, to terminate his life by the hand of an assassin, we would render devout thanksgiving to God, that he was protected from all the machinations of his relentless enemies until he was permitted to see the power of the rebellion crushed, its strongholds repossessed, its conquered armies forced to surrender; the national honour, untarnished by acts of barbarism or cruelty, vindicated; the integrity of the Union preserved;—that scheme of emancipation, which he had the wisdom to devise, and the courage to execute, made effective to the deliverance from bondage of four millions of slaves, for whose perpetual enslavement the rebellion was inaugurated; and peace, upon principles of righteousness and universal freedom, already dawning upon the land.

In closing this record, we would invoke the Divine blessing upon our present Chief Magistrate, and would ask for him the prayers of all Christian people, that he may be endowed with the fear of God, and with the spirit of wisdom and of a sound mind, and be enabled, through wise counsels, and by just and prudent measures, to secure to this nation the full enjoyment of that peace which has been obtained at the price of so much blood; and we commend all our rulers and all the people to the gracious favour of Him who, by his recent providences, has given renewed assurance that though "clouds and darkness are round about him, righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne."

The Rev. S. F. Colt, from the Committee to which was referred the protest of the Rev. R. Morrison, in relation to the admission of Hamilton Smith, ruling elder, as a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, presented and read an answer to said protest, which, on motion, was put upon the docket.

Dr. Monfort, Chairman of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented its report, which was accepted and placed upon the docket.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow forenoon, to hear the Narrative on the State of Religion.

It was moved and carried, that when the Assembly adjourn, it be to 7½ o'clock this evening.

On motion, it was ordered that a copy of the report this afternoon adopted, on the state of the country and the death of President Lincoln, be signed by the officers of the Assembly, and transmitted to the President of the United States.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, presented a report on Overture No. 21, from the Synod of Wheeling, asking the General Assembly to define the eastern boundary of the Presbytery of West Virginia.

On motion, the report was placed upon the docket, and made the first order of the day for this evening.

The Assembly then adjourned, with prayer by Mr. David Irwin.

TUESDAY Evening, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Mr. Morris Patterson.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Indiana reported that the records had not been handed in. The Committee was discharged.

The Assembly took up the first order of the day, being the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Overture No. 21, from the Synod of Wheeling, asking the General Assembly to define more fully the northeastern boundary of the Presbytery of West Virginia.

The Committee recommended, that inasmuch as the Assembly of 1863 (see Minutes, p. 21) fixed the boundaries of that Presbytery, no further action is required at the present time.

The Rev. A. B. Cross moved to amend the report as follows: "That this Assembly define the said boundary by saying, that at present it should conform to the lines of the Presbytery of Winchester, in the Synod of Baltimore, and the Presbytery of Carlisle in the same Synod, not including any of the ministers or churches belonging to either of those Presbyteries."

The amendment was carried, and the report, as thus amended, was adopted.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business of this forenoon, viz., a motion to make an addition to the report then adopted, on Overture No. 7.

After discussion, the previous question was moved and duly seconded. The question was then put, and the addition was lost.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. J. Sanderson.

WEDNESDAY Morning, May 31.

The Assembly met, and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

On motion of the Rev. J. M. Platt, it was ordered that the Report of the Committee on Appellate Courts be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes. [Afterwards re-considered and amended.]

The Rev. W. Y. Brown moved the appointment of a Committee to present to the President of the United States, the paper yesterday adopted on the State of the Country, and the death of President Lincoln. Carried.

On motion of the Rev. H. B. Chapin, the Rev. P. D. Gurley, D.D., the Rev. W. Y. Brown, and the Rev. S. F. Colt were appointed the Committee.

On motion, the first order of the day, viz., to hear the Narrative on the State of Religion, was postponed, and made the first order for the evening.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 8, from the Synod of the Pacific, and from the Presbyteries of Saline, Bloomington, Miami, Luzerne, Mohawk and Ogdensburg, asking the General Assembly to take steps for the reunion of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reiterate their former expressions of fraternal feeling towards their brethren of the other branch of the Presbyterian Church, and their desire for still more intimate relations when the providence of God shall make it clear that this measure is expedient.

Resolved, 2. That in the judgment of this Assembly an attempt to force a general reunion, before there is evidence by the action of the Presbyteries, that the two branches of the Church are fully prepared for it, will be likely to retard this result, and incur the danger of the formation of three bodies instead of two.

Resolved, 3. That in order to strengthen the feeble missionary churches belonging to each, and enable them to become self-sustaining, the Presbyteries under our care be recommended to take such action as to them may be deemed wise and expedient.

Resolved, 4. That the essential condition of organic reunion is an agreement in Scripture doctrine and ecclesiastical order, according to the standards of the Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, 5. That in the meantime fraternal intercourse, both personal and official, be encouraged between us and them for the purpose of cultivating friendly feelings, and of learning by a more intimate acquaintance whether an organic reunion will probably be cordial and beneficial to the cause of Christ.

The report was amended and adopted.

The same Committee also reported a memorial of J. A. Jacobs, offering $5,000 to aid in establishing a school for the education of coloured children. The Report of the Committee was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to which was committed the memorial of J. A. Jacobs, Esq. of Danville, Ky., respectfully report to the General Assembly that the memorialist offers to the General Assembly the sum of $5000, "to be placed by them in the hands of the Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary, for the use and purpose presented, to wit: to educate and train coloured youths of suitable age, piety and character, of any Evangelical Christian denomination, and more particularly of the Presbyterian Church, for the Gospel ministry."

But as certain preliminaries need to be settled and arranged in order to render this fund available and efficient for the purpose intended, the memorialist "respectfully petitions that a Committee of this body and others, of which he suggests that the Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D., Professor in the Danville Theological Seminary, a life-long friend of the negro race, be made chairman, be appointed, whose duty it shall be to take the subject and proposition herein presented into consideration, and to report to the next meeting of the General Assembly in 1866," therefore,

The Committee recommend the appointment of such a Committee as is called for in the memorial—which, from the tenor of the memorial appears to be all that the memorialist expects the General Assembly to do at this meeting. The report was adopted, and

The following persons were appointed said Committee.

Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, D.D., Rev. E. P. Humphrey, D.D., Rev. W. L. Breckinridge, D.D., Rev. R. L. Stanton, D.D., J. A. Jacobs, Prof. O. Beattie, A. E. Chamberlain, Rev. James Wood, D.D., Samuel A. Bonner.

Also, Overture No. 13, from the Presbyteries of North River and Indianapolis, asking the General Assembly to adopt measures for raising a sustentation fund to supplement the salaries of pastors who have an inadequate support; a third from the Kaskaskia Presbytery on the subject of an increase of ministers' salaries, and providing for them manses by their own congregations.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the object contemplated in these overtures is highly desirable, and the churches are hereby earnestly exhorted to increase the salaries of their pastors, where they are now inadequate, either by adding to their annual subscriptions, or by providing suitable manses, or both.

2. That it is deemed inexpedient in the unsettled condition of our country to adopt measures at present to raise a special sustentation fund by collections in the churches for this object.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 16, from the Presbyteries of Steubenville and Washington, asking whether it is competent and constitutional for a Presbytery to appoint a committee to dismiss unsettled ministers, licentiates, and candidates without a call for the body to assemble. This question has already been decided by the General Assembly in the negative. (See Minutes of the General Assembly for 1830, p. 27.)

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture 25, from certain ministers and others, in South-Western Missouri, requesting the Assembly to constitute the persons named in the petition, a new Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of South-Western Missouri. The Committee recommend that the prayer of the petition be granted, except that the Presbytery be attached for the present to the Synod of Upper Missouri; that the territory embrace all the ministers and churches south of the Osage river, and formerly belonging to the Presbytery of La Fayette; that they meet in the city of Springfield on the third Thursday of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, and that the Presbytery shall be opened by a sermon by the Rev. John McFarland, or the oldest minister present.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 20, which, on motion, was recommitted to the same Committee.

Also, Overture No. 22, requesting the General Assembly to appoint its Stated Clerk and the Treasurer and Secretary of its Board of Trustees, a Permanent Committee to assess the Synods, subject to their approval, for the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the proposed measure be adopted, and that the Committee hereby created be recommended to make the assessment on the two-fold basis of numerical strength and pecuniary ability.

The report was adopted.

Also, a referred communication from the Rev. David Herron, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, laying before the Assembly the following resolution of that Synod:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to co-operate with Committees of other bodies in the preparation of a new version of the "Book of Psalms" in a variety of metres.

"The object of this action is to obtain, if possible, such a version of the Psalms as will be acceptable to all the churches. Committees have been appointed by one or two other bodies to act in this matter. The chairman of our Committee has requested me to bring this matter to the notice of the Assembly, and to ask them to appoint a similar committee, if they should deem the matter of sufficient importance."

The Committee recommended the appointment of a Committee in accordance with the request of the Synod.

The report was adopted, and the Revs. W. P. Breed, D.D., H. A. Boardman, D.D., and Ruling Elder Morris Patterson were appointed the Committee.

Also, a report on the memorial from the Executive Committee of the Trustees of the Ashmun Institute, recommending the adoption of the memorial by the Assembly.

After discussion, the report was recommitted to the same Committee.

Also, Overture No. 18, on the subject of Intemperance, from a meeting recently held in Allegheny City, and another from a meeting in New York, asking for such a deliverance by the General Assembly as may encourage virtuous and philanthropic men in their efforts to purge our country from this gigantic evil.

The Committee recommended the following minute, which was adopted:

The General Assembly have repeatedly expressed their earnest desire for the universal prevalence of temperance among the people of this land. But as a new exigency has arisen, growing out of the demoralizing tendency of war, this Assembly enjoins upon all their ministers, ruling elders, and church-members, to use their influence upon those around them, particularly on our young men now returning from the army, and on our youth in academies and colleges, to practise entire abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage, which it is believed is the only sure protection against drunkenness. "Intemperance is a great sin against God, as well as a bitter curse to man—obstructing the progress of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in the world, and weakening its power over the heart of men." Hence it is an imperative duty, required alike by piety and patriotism, to do whatever may be practicable, "to stem the torrent that is sweeping myriads into the vortex of irretrievable ruin." Especially should there be the frequent utterance of friendly warning to the young and inconsiderate, "Touch not, taste not, handle not," accompanied by a corresponding example. This simple and effective remedy, carried into all the walks of life, will make our nation as prosperous and happy in peace as it has been heroic and victorious in war.

Dr. Elliott offered an additional paper.

After discussion thereon, the previous question was moved and duly seconded. The question was then put, when Dr. Elliott's paper was also adopted, and is as follows:

The great increase of intemperance throughout the land, especially in our towns and large cities, renders it imperative on the Church to put forth her influence to arrest it in its destructive progress. But, to render her influence effective, she must purge herself from all participation in the sin, by removing from her pale all who are engaged in the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks for use as a common beverage.

When a person has been admitted to sealing ordinances in Christ's house, he ought not to be excluded, but upon grounds which are sanctioned by the word of God, and the discipline of the Church; and where such exclusion takes place, it is always founded upon an alleged offence against the authority and laws which Christ has established in his house. Hence, one of the ends of discipline, as laid down in our standards, is "the removal of offences" from the Church of Christ. In the very outset, then, it becomes necessary to ascertain what is an offence. In our Book of Discipline, it is defined to be "anything in the principles or practice of a church member, which is contrary to the word of God, or which, if it be not in its own nature sinful, may tempt others to sin, or mar their spiritual edification." (Chap. i. § 3.) That the practice of manufacturing and retailing intoxicating drinks, is, in its own nature sinful, we do not affirm, and need not therefore consider it, in this sense, an offence against the laws of Christ's house. But that it tempts others to sin and mars their spiritual edification, is too obvious to require proof. The retailer is the proximate agent in tempting many to drink to drunkenness, and in forming in others the appetite for strong drink, which leads to brutal intoxication. In doing this, he offends against God's children, who are grieved at his conduct, which is productive of such injurious results, both to the bodies and souls of men. On these grounds, therefore, he is guilty of "an offence" against the word of God, which is very explicit in setting its seal of condemnation on such conduct. In the eighth chapter of his 1st Epistle to the Corinthians, the apostle has decided this point with great precision. In the church of Corinth, some thought it to be right to eat meat which had been offered to idols—others thought it wrong. The matter was submitted to the apostle, who decided, that although the act was not in its own nature sinful, yet if it became the occasion of offence or injury to a weak brother, it ought not to be done. "But meat commendeth us not to God; for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the worse. But take heed, lest by any means, this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to them that are weak. For if any man see thee, which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idol temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols, and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died. But when ye so sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend." According to this decision of the apostle, therefore, men "sin against Christ," when they "sin against the brethren," by doing that which, though not sinful in itself, becomes a stumbling-block to them, and tempts them to the commission of sin. Against such a course, the apostle guards professing Christians, and declares that he had determined to avoid it.

Now the apostle's decision in regard to the case at Corinth, applies to the use of intoxicating drinks, when manufactured and sold for a common beverage. When prepared and sold for this purpose, those who do so "sin against the brethren and wound their weak conscience," and thus "sin against Christ." Hence, they are guilty of "an offence," their conduct being "contrary to the word of God."

Thus far, the subject appears very plain. That a manufacturer and retailer of intoxicating drinks for the purpose mentioned, is guilty of an offence proved to be such from Scripture, the foregoing remarks clearly demonstrate. But is it such an offence as ought to exclude persons from the full privileges of the Church? In maintaining the affirmative of this question, it is important to remark, that whatever would prevent the admission of a person to the sealing ordinances of the Church, on his first application, ought, if found in connection with his character or conduct after his admission, to exclude him from her communion. This is so evident as to require no proof. What then would be considered a sufficient bar to the full enjoyment of the privileges of the Church? To this we reply, that anything in the principles or practice of the applicant for admission, which greatly impaired or destroyed the credibility of his profession of faith in Christ, would be a sufficient ground of refusal. For the ground of admission, as presented both in the word of God and the standards of the Church, is a credible profession of faith in the Son of God. In the case of the jailor, of the Ethiopian eunuch, and even of Simon Magus, who afterwards apostatized, a credible profession was required and exhibited, before they were admitted to the communion of the society of the faithful. The same principle is recognized in our standards. "Those who are admitted to sealing ordinances shall be examined as to their knowledge and piety." (Dir. Wor. chap. 1, § 3.) (See also chap. 4, § 4.) From these passages, it is manifest, that such a profession as involves credible evidence of Christian character, in which knowledge and piety are essential elements, is required by our Book, of those who would be admitted to sealing ordinances. Such being the case, whatever essentially impairs or destroys this evidence, bars the way to their admission. Accordingly, it is provided, that "such as are found to be ignorant or scandalous, notwithstanding their profession of the faith, and desire to come to the Lord's Supper, ought to be kept from that sacrament, by the power which Christ has left in his Church, until they receive instruction and manifest their reformation." (L. Cat. 2, 173.) Ignorance and immorality of conduct are here indicated as sufficient grounds on which to refuse an applicant admission to the table of the Lord. The reason is, that where either or both exist, there is a want of credible evidence of Christian character, and where this is wanting, the person ought not to be admitted. And on the same ground, a person who has been admitted, if he be afterwards found to be ignorant or scandalous, and thus destitute of the evidence of Christian character, ought to be excluded.

In the case which we are considering, the person in question does not give credible evidence in favour of his Christian character. He does not give such satisfaction with respect to his "knowledge and piety," as is sufficient to entitle him to continue in the full privileges of the Church, as a member in good standing. For the man who, at the present time, is ignorant of the effects of the practice of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a common beverage, in tempting others to sin, and "marring their spiritual edification," must be criminally regardless of what is going on around him. And he who, knowing this, perseveres in the practice, evinces a state of heart directly the reverse of that which is produced by "the grace of God," that "teaches us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly, in this present world." On the ground therefore that his profession of religion is destitute of the attributes which are necessary to render it credible, he ought not to be continued in the communion of the Church, nor certified as a member in good standing.

We are aware that it has been objected to this view of the case, that it is establishing a new term of communion, not before known in the Church. But, upon the principles laid down and established, it is not. We have seen that credible evidence of Christian character, involving the exhibition of "knowledge and piety," is the old term of communion laid down in God's word, and the standards of our Church. It has also been made to appear, that the practice of manufacturing and retailing intoxicating drinks as a beverage, is a sin against the brethren, and against Christ, and while persevered in, vitiates this evidence, and works a forfeiture of the privilege of Christian communion. If the practice of the Church has been, to any extent, favourable to the admission, or continuance of such persons in her communion, it only proves that the Church, in these cases, has overlooked or neglected to enforce the true principle of her standards. It cannot be fairly drawn into argument to prove, that the principle is not there; or if there, that it ought not to be applied in this, as in other cases of visible offence against Christ and his Church. We conclude, therefore, that it is not adopting any new term of communion to exclude persons from sealing ordinances, on the ground of their manufacturing and vending intoxicating drinks as a beverage. On the contrary, it is only falling back upon the teachings of the Bible and the Constitution of the Church, which requires visible Christianity, in a credible form, of those who would partake of these ordinances, and refuse the privilege to those who, by overt acts of offence, fail to present such evidence.

On motion, the two papers on this subject were referred to the Board of Publication to be printed as a tract.

Dr. Monfort moved to take up the election for Directors of the Seminary of the Northwest.

The Rev. E. Erskine moved as an amendment, that that election be made the order of the day for four o'clock this afternoon. The hour for adjournment having arrived, this motion was left as unfinished business.

On motion of the Rev. James M. Platt, the Committee on Correspondence had leave to withdraw a letter to the Evangelical Society of France, in order to furnish the delegates from the Assembly with a general letter to the several bodies to which they had been appointed.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Noah Bishop.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. A. V. C. Schenck.

On motion of the Rev. M. C. Sutphen, the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries was taken from the docket.

The general resolutions of the report, and all that part of it relating to the Princeton Seminary, were adopted, excepting two resolutions, which were referred to the next General Assembly, with a recommendation to the favorable consideration of that body. They are as follows:

Resolved, That the Assembly approve of the extension of the course of study in the Princeton Theological Seminary from three years to four, agreeably to the prayer of the Professors of that Seminary, communicated through its Board of Directors; and that a like extension be allowed to the other seminaries under the care of this body, provided it be deemed expedient by the Professors and Directors of those institutions.

Resolved, That in order to give effect to the above resolution the following changes be made in the Plan of the Princeton Theological Seminary, viz., Article 4. section 2, shall be changed so that the first sentence shall read. "The period of continuance in the Theological Seminary shall in no case be less than four years previous to an examination for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity." Also, section 3 of the same article, by substituting for the words "certificate of the same," the words "diploma certifying the same." And also sections 2, 3, and 4, of the same article, by substituting "four years" for "three years."

Dr. Howard, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, moved that

Whereas, the first day of June has been set apart by the President of the United States as a day of humiliation and prayer, the General Assembly will observe this day, and that there be divine service in this church in the afternoon at three o'clock. In this service the Rev. Dr. Elliott will preside, and addresses will be made by the Rev. Dr. West, and the Rev. Messrs. Senour and Colt.

Dr. Breckinridge moved the following:

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of five be appointed to consider the method now in use of receiving and considering the Reports of the several Boards and Permanent Committees, (Church Extension, Freedmen, &c.)

Resolved, 2. That the Committee be directed to report to the next General Assembly immediately upon its organization—proposing a briefer and more direct method of disposing of the business of the Boards and Permanent Committees, if in the judgment of the Committee this can be done without detriment to these great interests.

The following persons were appointed as the committee, viz. J. C. Lowrie, D. D., T. L. Janeway, D. D., W. E. Schenck, D. D., the Rev. Thomas McCauley, the Rev. H. I. Coe, and the Rev. W. P. Breed, D. D.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been granted to the following ministers and elders, viz.

Ministers—J. L. Nevius, after the sessions of Monday; John A. Reiley, Adam McClelland, W. J. Alexander, J. C. Tidball, and John M. Pratt, after the morning session of yesterday; J. M. Hughes, and L. Hervey, after the session of this morning; and C. W. Cooper, optional attendance, after the sessions of Monday last. Ruling Elders—Robert Dean, E. M. Hunt, M. D., T. T. Alexander, George W. Allen, and R. Campbell, after the morning session of yesterday; J. Ackerman, B. F. Cannon, R. G. Boyd, William L. Awl, E. B. Hillis, John Bushnell, O. M. Hoagland, D. Olyphant, E. A. Moore, S. M. Rankin, Levi D. Wright, F. Bush, M. M. Green, and S. H. Jamison, after the sessions of yesterday.

The Assembly then adjourned to 7½ P. M., after prayer by the Rev. A. D. L. Jewett.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. A. Murray.

Mr. Chamberlain moved the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That the members of the next General Assembly, to convene in St. Louis, be requested to meet in the Lecture Room of the Second Presbyterian church of that city, on the evening previous to meeting of the Assembly, and that the evening and morning preceding the opening be devoted to devotional exercises.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was taken up, viz., the report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, and the remainder of the report was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries report that they have examined the several reports of the Directors and Trustees of the Theological Seminaries under the care of the General Assembly, which were committed to them, and they recommend their publication in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly. In regard to these reports, the Committee ask the attention of the Assembly to certain things contained in them, and recommend action as follows:

Resolved, 1. That it is a cause of devout thanksgiving to the Head of the Church, that he has so signally favoured the several Theological Seminaries under the care of the General Assembly during the past year; that the health and lives of the professors and students have been preserved; the course of instruction has been pursued without interruption; three hundred and two students have been in attendance in the Seminaries under our care, of whom eighty-one have finished the course of study on the plans of these institutions; valuable additions have been made to their libraries and funds, and the promise of their prosperity and usefulness has not been so great in any previous year.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly cordially commends these schools of the prophets to the confidence, the prayers, and the liberal benefactions of the churches under our care.

Princeton Seminary.—1. The Committee recommend that the Assembly authorize an addition of thirty-three per cent. to the salaries of the professors, and also authorize an application to the churches for means to defray this increased expense.

2. The Committee also recommend that the Assembly authorize the Board of Trustees to employ an agent to raise funds to enlarge the endowment of the Seminary, so as to meet the increase of the salaries of the professors, and to raise funds for the increase of the number of scholarships, and for other purposes of the institution.

Danville Seminary.—The Committee recommend the following:

Whereas, The Report of the Board of Directors presents a condition of things, in this Institution, which is a source of great anxiety and perplexity to the Directors, and urges upon the Assembly, that all proper support and encouragement be given to the cause of the Church in that region, by the continuance of the Seminary; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, accepting this judgment of the Board of Directors, advise this Board to use every effort to continue the regular exercises of the Seminary during the ensuing year.

Resolved, 2. In view of the condition of the country, and of the Church, in the region most proximately allied to this Seminary, and in view of the state of the case, which has probably lost, to that institution, for the coming year, the services of its two senior professors, Drs. Breckinridge and Humphrey, this Assembly, with the view of promoting the interests of our beloved Church, and of supporting and encouraging those of her servants who seek to advance these interests in that distracted region, feel it due

(1.) To Dr. Breckinridge, that he should have the assurance, that he is sustained in this highest court of our Church, in his efforts, in these times of trial and difficulty, to defend and advance those principles, which the General Assembly has declared to be the principles of the Presbyterian Church, and while we regret, that he has felt constrained to retire temporarily from the chair which he has so ably filled, we earnestly hope that he may soon be able to resume it.

(2.) The Assembly furthermore feels it due to Dr. Humphrey, the associate of Dr. Breckinridge, in this Seminary from the first, to express our regret that the condition of his health has impelled him to ask to be relieved for a time from the duties of his chair. In view of his past services, the Assembly entertain the hope that he may soon be able again to undertake the duties of the professorship, which he has so successfully discharged.

(3.) That the Committee appointed by the Board of Directors to secure persons to give instruction in the chairs from which Drs. Breckinridge and Humphrey have asked to be relieved for the next year, are advised, if possible, to employ the Rev. Dr. R. W. Landis for the chair of Dr. Breckinridge, and the Rev. Dr. J. Edwards for that of Dr. Humphrey, provided Drs. Breckinridge and Humphrey, or either of them, do not see their way clear to resume their chairs at the commencement of the next session.

The election of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Northwest was taken up. The following tellers were appointed, viz. Messrs. A. L. Armstrong, A. Phillips, and C. A. Evans.

Dr. Green presented and read an answer to the protest of Dr. S. R. Wilson and others, against the decision of the Assembly in reference to Judicial Cases Nos. 7 and 8.

The answer was adopted, and ordered to be entered on the minutes with the protest. They are as follows:

The undersigned would respectfully protest against the decision of the General Assembly, whereby they dismissed the complaints of the Session of the First Church of St. Charles; and also of the Rev. Robert P. Farris against the Synod of Missouri, on the ground that "in the matter complained of there was no action of the Synod, as such, but only a decision of the Moderator affecting the complainants, from which they made no appeal to the body of the Synod, and consequently they have no ground of complaint."

Against this decision we protest—

I. Because the decision of the Moderator of the Synod being acquiesced in by the silence of the members became thereby the decision of the body itself, for which they are strictly responsible.

II. Because the decision against which complaint is made was a decision refusing even to recognize the complainants as members of the Synod, and denying that they had any more right to appear there, or demand seats in the body, than John Smith, who might step into the house from the street and make a similar demand. As one of the complainants affirms in his statement of grounds and reasons of complaint, "it was declared by a member that Synod would not listen to the assertion of his right." And when he attempted to make a remark by way of remonstrance against the Synod proceeding to organize, by the election of a Moderator and Stated Clerk, without first admitting him to a seat, he was called to order and required to be silent both by the Moderator and the members. How was it possible then for the complainants to take an appeal under such action both of the Moderator and members of the Synod? Plainly they could not; and it was in part the design of bringing the matter before the Assembly, to obtain redress of this grievous injustice.

III. Because the Moderator had put it out of his power to entertain an appeal or conduct the business of the Synod agreeably to the government and order of the Presbyterian Church, by declaring it to be his intention "to conduct the business of Synod in accordance with" the following military order, to wit:

HEAD-QUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE MISSOURI,
OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL, St. Louis, March 8th, 1864.

Special Orders, No. 62.

"1. While it is the determination of the General commanding this department that due protection shall be given, within its limits, to all religious convocations which may assemble to promote the cause of religion and morality, whether convening as Conventions, Synods, Ministeria, Assemblies, Conferences, Councils, or under any other name or title, the interests of the country at the present time require, that no such assemblages of persons, whose proceedings would be disloyal and tend to foment discord and encourage rebellion, should be permitted. It is right and proper, therefore, that all members of such assemblages should give satisfactory evidence to the public of their loyalty to the government of the United States, that their patriotism may be known, and that they be distinguished from those who seek its overthrow.

"2. It is therefore deemed expedient, and hereby ordered as a condition precedent to such privilege of assemblage and protection, that each and every person attending such Convention, Synod, Ministerium, Assembly, Conference, Council, or by whatever name it may be called, and participating in the proceedings thereof, shall take and subscribe to an oath of allegiance, and file the same in the office of the Assistant Provost Marshal of the locality in which the assemblage is held.

"3. It is hereby made the duty of all such assemblages to ascertain, before proceeding to organize and transact business, those who have taken, subscribed and filed the required oath, and permit only such to participate in their proceedings; and in case any such assemblage shall neglect or refuse so to do, or shall knowingly permit any one who has failed to comply with the requirements of this order to participate in its proceedings, it will be deemed a military offence, for which its members may be held amenable, and any Provost Marshal present shall immediately order the assemblage to disperse, and prevent the continuance of its proceedings.

"4. The form of the oath of allegiance to be taken, subscribed and filed, as aforesaid, shall be in these words:

"I, ... of . . . . . county, State of . . . . . do hereby solemnly swear that I will bear true allegiance to the United States, and support and sustain the Constitution and laws thereof: that I will maintain the national sovereignty paramount to that of all State, county, or Confederate powers; that I will discourage, discountenance and for ever oppose secession, rebellion and the disintegration of the Federal Union; that I disclaim and denounce all faith and fellowship with the so-called Confederate armies, and pledge my honour, my property, and my life to the sacred performance of this my solemn oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States of America.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me, this . . day of . . 1864, at . . .

"Witnesses, ... of . . . . . .

"5. District Provost Marshals will give their immediate and special attention to the enforcement of this order in their respective districts, and enjoin upon each Assistant Provost Marshal the duty of attending all such assemblages which may be held in his locality, advise those assemblages of this order, and enforce its direction. And they will also report immediately to these head-quarters all cases of neglect or refusal, giving a full description of the character of the assemblage, the names of those present, and an account of its proceedings.

"By command of MAJOR-GENERAL ROSECRANS.

"J. P. SANDERSON, Provost Marshal General."

Acting under this order as the rule of procedure, it is obvious that the complainants could not have taken an appeal from the decision of the Moderator, nor the Moderator have entertained it, nor the Synod have voted on it, much less have sustained it, without violating, in the very act, the military order aforesaid, and so bringing themselves all and several into collision with the military powers. That this was the view of Synod, is itself beyond all question, in the remark which was made by one of the members of the Synod, when demanding that Mr. Farris should not be allowed to speak—"that he did not wish to be sent to Gratiot street military prison." Whether the Moderator and members of the Synod ought to have refused a member of the Synod his seat, in obedience to this military order, is neither affirmed nor denied in this protest. This is one of the questions which the complainants desired to bring before the Assembly, that they might judge concerning it, and decide it agreeably to the Scriptures and the Constitution of the Church. But the fact that the Synod did so decide, is clear from the testimony on record, and upon this the complainants ground their appeal to this body, and ask of them relief from its injustice and oppression. And, in our judgment, the Assembly ought to have considered the questions involved, and given so clear and unequivocal a deliverance in the premises, as would have satisfied the whole Church that it is their purpose to maintain the freedom of Christ's commonwealth, and to protect the ministers and elders of the Church in the enjoyment and exercise of their constitutional rights.

IV. Because the Assembly has, by this decision, contravened the principles upon which the Church depended, in large measure, for its defence in the case of the commissioners from the exscinded Synods and Presbyteries. When a member of the Assembly (Rev. Dr. Mason) presented the commissions of the delegates from those Presbyteries, and asked that they be enrolled, the Moderator (Dr. Elliott) ruled them out of order, and when Dr. Mason appealed to the House, the Moderator declared the appeal out of order at that time. When, thereupon, one of the commissioners himself demanded that his name should be enrolled, the Moderator refused to recognize the person (Rev. Mr. Squire) who made the claim, and said to him—"We do not know you, sir." Upon this, the commissioners withdrew, just as Messrs. Watson and Farris did, when having demanded to have their names enrolled as members of the Synod, the Moderator refused to recognize them, and ordered them to be silent. And, as in the case of the Assembly, the silence of the whole body was taken as sustaining the decision of its presiding officer; so also must it be in this case of the Synod of Missouri and its presiding officer.

V. Because the Assembly, by refusing to entertain these complaints, has inflicted upon these parties a grievous censure for not doing that which they could not do, without violating the order of General Rosecrans, which order the Synod had sworn to carry out, and in enforcing which the Moderator required the complainants to be silent.

VI. Because there were other acts of the Synod against which the parties complain to the General Assembly, to wit., That the Records of Synod in the matter are both defective and not conformable to fact. Even if there had been no just cause for complaint on the ground of the first allegation, yet this could not render the second ground alleged invalid. And of both the allegations of the complainants, the Assembly were alone competent to judge, as to their truth and justice, after a full and candid hearing of the testimony and the parties. It was, therefore, incompetent for the Committee to decide the case, or the Assembly to endorse that decision, and thus summarily throw the case out of court, leaving the complainants no possible means of redress.

For these reasons we are constrained to record our solemn protest against this action of the Assembly, as in a high degree unjust, injurious, and fraught with danger in its influence upon the lower courts.

ANSWER.

In answer to what is urged by the protestants, it is sufficient to recite the facts as set forth in the complaints themselves, as shown by the records of Synod, and abundantly sustained by the accompanying evidence that no action whatever was taken by the Synod in the matter complained of, viz., the refusal to allow the complainants, in a certain instance, to act as members of that body. It is true that there was a decision by the Moderator that Rev. Mr. Farris and Mr. Watson, the elder of the Church of St. Charles, were members of Synod, and entitled to a seat upon the floor, but that under the military order, which was at the time enforced in the district, they could not be allowed to participate in the proceedings. But this decision at no time received the formal sanction of the Synod. Motions were made that they be not allowed to act as members, and remarks offered upon them pro and con, but these were either withdrawn or not acted upon. At the opening of the session, on the next day after the organization of the Synod, the Moderator reversed his former decision, and announced his readiness to accord to Messrs. Farris and Watson all the privileges of members, to which they were thenceforth acknowledged to be entitled by unanimous consent. But that the Synod did not regard itself as having made the action of the Moderator its own, nor as having taken any action in the case, appears from no entry whatever being made upon the subject in its records—a fact of which complaint is made, and which the protestants also urge, but, as appears to this Assembly, without sufficient reason.

It is claimed by the protestants that the acquiescence of the members of Synod in the original decision of the Moderator, made it the decision of the body itself; but if the fact that no appeal was taken from the Moderator's decision renders the entire body responsible, the fact that Messrs. Farris and Watson did not themselves appeal from this decision, precludes them from now entering complaint against it. The decision of the Moderator, that though Messrs. Farris and Watson were members of Synod, and entitled to their seats, they could not, under the circumstances in which they were met, be suffered to take part in its acts and its deliberations, supposing it to be as grievous and unjust as the protestants allege, could not debar the complainants from taking an appeal from this decision, or at least making an attempt to take such an appeal, which it does not appear was done. Nor could the military order alleged by the protestants interfere with such an appeal, since it did not prevent their appearing in Synod, and preferring a claim to their seats and privileges as members. Nor is the case alleged from the Assembly of 1838 parallel, since the membership of Messrs. Farris and Watson was not denied by the Moderator. It may further be observed, that great allowance should be made for the peculiarly embarrassing circumstances under which the Synod met, and the caution and deliberation which were requisite to avoid a needless conflict with the military authorities. The Assembly is not called upon to decide anything in regard to the propriety or impropriety of the military order referred to in the protest, but it is fully satisfied that it is no just cause of complaint against church officers or church courts, that they rendered obedience to it, or refused to disobey it. If office-bearers and judicatories of the Church felt in conscience bound to submit to this order, they who desired to resist it have no good ground for complaint against those who refused to aid them in such resistance.

Dr. Craven presented and read an answer to the Protest of Dr. S. R. Wilson and others, against the action of the Assembly on Overtures Nos. 6 and 7. The answer was adopted, and ordered to be entered on the minutes with the Protest. They are as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned would respectfully enter their protest against the action of the General Assembly, on Overtures Nos. 6 and 7, with regard to the Southern Presbyteries and Synods, for the following reasons, viz.

I. The minute adopted by the Assembly, declares that "the Presbyteries and Synods in the Southern States organized an Assembly in order to render their aid in the attempt to establish, by means of the rebellion, a separate national existence, and to conserve and perpetuate the system of slavery." To us such an allegation by this Assembly appears to be most extraordinary, when viewed in the light of the facts. It is well known that the Southern Church did not take any step toward a withdrawal from our connection until after the meeting of the General Assembly in Philadelphia, in May, 1861. It was at that meeting that the Assembly passed the resolutions on the subject of allegiance to the federal government, commonly known since as the "Spring Resolutions," together with the order for a day of general prayer. Against this action, a large minority of the Assembly most earnestly protested, as calculated to bring about that very separation on the part of the Southern brethren, which did actually follow. That action, in the opinion of many of the wisest men in the Church, amongst whom was the Rev. Dr. Hodge, of Princeton, was "unjust and cruel in its bearings upon our Southern brethren;" "a violation of the law of love to adopt an act which must expose the Southern churches that remain in connection with our Church, to suspicion, to loss of property, to personal danger, and which tends to destroy their usefulness in their appointed fields of labour."

It was this action of the Assembly, thus characterized and condemned, that gave occasion to the withdrawal of the Southern Presbyteries and Synods, and which, in their view, left them no alternative but either to withdraw and form a separate and independent body, or to be utterly destroyed. It was not in the spirit of schism that they adopted this course; much less was it from a purpose "to aid in the establishment, by means of the rebellion, of a separate national existence, and to conserve and perpetuate the system of slavery." It was to avoid the strife and ruin which must, as they supposed, inevitably follow, if they continued in connection with an Assembly which by its acts had decided "the great political question which agitated the country," "a question which the Assembly had no right to decide," and which "was clearly beyond the jurisdiction of the Assembly." To be satisfied with this, it needs only to weigh with candour the grounds and reasons of this separation, as they were set forth by the Southern General Assembly itself, in an address "to the churches of Jesus Christ throughout the earth," and which was drawn up by the Rev. Dr. Thornwell, now deceased. And the following passages, from that "address," which embrace in substance the whole ground of the separation, leave no room for mistake: they say,

"We should be sorry to be regarded by our brethren in any part of the world as guilty of schism. We are not conscious of any purpose to rend the body of Christ. On the contrary, our aim has been to promote the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace. If we know our own hearts, and can form any just estimate of the motives which have governed us, we have been prompted by a sincere desire to promote the glory of God, and the efficiency, energy, harmony, and zeal of his visible kingdom in the earth. We have separated from our brethren at the North, as Abraham separated from Lot, because we are persuaded that the interests of true religion will be more effectually subserved by two independent churches, under the circumstances in which the two countries are placed, than by one united body.

"1. In the first place, the course of the last Assembly at Philadelphia conclusively shows, that if we should remain together, the political questions which divide us as citizens will be obtruded on our Church courts, and discussed by Christian ministers and elders with all the acrimony, bitterness, and rancour with which such questions are usually discussed by men of the world. Our Assembly would present a mournful spectacle of strife and debate. Commissioners from the Northern would meet with Commissioners from the Southern Confederacy, to wrangle over the questions which have split them into two Confederacies, and involved them in furious and bloody war. They would denounce each other on the one hand as tyrants and oppressors, and on the other as traitors and rebels. The Spirit of God would take his departure from these scenes of confusion, and leave the Church lifeless and powerless, an easy prey to the sectional divisions and angry passions of its members."

"An Assembly composed of representations from two such countries could have no security for peace, except in a steady, uncompromising adherence to the scriptural principle that it would know no man after the flesh, that it would abolish the distinctions of Barbarian, Scythian, bond and free, and recognize nothing but the new creature in Christ Jesus.

"The only conceivable condition, therefore, upon which the Church of the North and the South could remain together as one body with any prospect of success, is the rigorous exclusion of the questions and passions of the forum from its halls of debate. This is what always ought to be done. The provinces of Church and State are perfectly distinct, and the one has no right to usurp the jurisdiction of the other. The State is a natural institute, founded in the constitution of man as moral and social, and designed to realize the idea of justice. It is the society of rights. The Church is a supernatural institute, founded in the facts of redemption, and is designed to realize the idea of grace. It is the society of the redeemed. The State aims at social order; the Church at spiritual holiness. The State looks to the visible and outward; the Church is concerned for the invisible and inward."

"Had these principles been steadily maintained by the Assembly at Philadelphia, it is possible that the Ecclesiastical separation of the North and the South might have been deferred for years to come. Our Presbyteries, many of them clung with tenderness to the recollections of the past." * * * "It was ardently desired that the sublime spectacle might be presented of one Church upon earth combining in cordial fellowship and holy love, the disciples of Jesus in different and even in hostile lands. But alas, for the weakness of man, these golden visions were soon dispelled! The first thing which roused our Presbyteries to look the question of separation seriously in the face, was the course of the Assembly in venturing to determine, as a court of Jesus Christ, which it did, by necessary implication, the true interpretation of the Constitution of the United States, as to the kind of government it intended to form. A political theory was, to all intents and purposes, propounded, which made secession a crime, the seceding States rebellious, and the citizens who obeyed them traitors. We say nothing here as to the righteousness or unrighteousness of these decrees. What we maintain is, that, whether right or wrong, the Church had no right to make them. She transcended her sphere, and usurped the duties of the State."

"We frankly admit that the mere unconstitutionality of the proceedings of the last Assembly is not, in itself, considered a sufficient ground of separation. It is the consequences of these proceedings which make them so offensive. It is the door which they open for the introduction of the worst passions of human nature into the deliberations of Church courts. The spirit of these proceedings, if allowed to prevail, would for ever banish peace from the Church, and there is no reason to hope that the tide, which has begun to flow, can soon be arrested."

Such, then, are the officially declared reasons for the separation of the Southern churches. In connection with these statements, they also declare their belief in accordance with the teachings of God's word, as interpreted by the orthodox teachers of his Church in all ages, that the institution of slavery as part of the social and political order is to be tolerated in the church where it exists, and the duties of masters and servants to be enjoined. But so far from making the Church an instrument for conserving this or any other social or political system they expressly declare,

"We would have it distinctly understood, that in our ecclesiastical capacity we are neither the friends nor the foes of slavery; that is to say, we have no commission either to propagate or abolish it. The policy of its existence or non-existence is a question which exclusively belongs to the State. We have no right as a Church to enjoin it as a duty, or to condemn it as a sin. Our business is with the duties which spring from the relation, the duties of the masters on the one hand, and of their slaves on the other. These duties we are to proclaim and to enforce by spiritual sanction. The social, civil, and political problems connected with this great subject transcend our sphere, as God has not entrusted to his Church the organization of society, the construction of governments, nor the allotment of individuals to their various stations."

In all this not one word is said about aiding any government in any political measure whatsoever, and so far as slavery is concerned, it is expressly affirmed that as a Church they have "no commission either to propagate or abolish it." And it is manifestly unjust to seize upon a single expression taken, it may be, from some resolution passed in the Southern Assembly in 1864, and to represent it as expressing the grounds upon which the body separated from us in 1861; or to hold it up as the distinguishing feature of the Southern Church. And, in our opinion, this Assembly should the rather abstain from such a representation upon so insufficient a ground, inasmuch as a large portion of the ministers and members of the Church do look upon the deliverance of the Assembly on the subject of slavery at Newark in 1864, as contravening the former doctrine of the Church on that question; and also regard the action of the Assembly for the past four years, touching matters of state policy, as a grievous departure from our constitutional prerogatives, and practically seeming to say that it is a special, if not the peculiar mission of the Church, to uphold and perpetuate the federal government and promote the war. Can it be thought strange if the Southern Church, in some of its utterances, should have departed from its former scriptural and conservative ground touching this vexed question of slavery, when we ourselves have, in the judgment of not a few, gone so far away from the ground once held by us upon this and kindred subjects?

II. We protest, in the second place, because by this action the Assembly have set up a new test and established a new term of membership in the Church and of standing in the ministry—a test unauthorized by the word of God and the Confession of Faith, and contrary to the uniform declarations and practice of this Church from its foundation up to the year 1861. And this test is made primary and indispensable, no matter what may be the Christian knowledge or piety of those who refuse to submit to it, or who cannot say they are in cordial sympathy with the Assembly in respect to it. In thus making the views or opinions or feelings, or even practice, of men in the matter of slavery, or their particular sentiments touching the subject of loyalty, a condition of recognition or admission as members of the Church, or as ruling elders and ministers in the Church, and a condition sine qua non, the Assembly has, in our judgment, "violated the Constitution of the Church, and usurped the prerogatives of its Divine Master." (Protest of Dr. Hodge and others, in 1861.)

III. In the third place, we protest against this action of the Assembly, because it seems to us to tend to destruction, rather than to edification. It puts it into the power of any two ministers, in any particular district, with the aid of any other whom they may choose to select, to claim to themselves all the power, rights and immunities, ecclesiastical and civil, belonging to the Presbytery or Presbyteries of which they may be members; and in like manner it recognizes any two or three members of a particular Church as constituting the Church, and, as far as lies in the power of this Assembly, invests such members with all the rights, religious and secular, belonging to the whole Church. This measure, therefore, whatever its intent, in its practical workings, is calculated, we are constrained to think, to promote strife and discord amongst the brethren in the South themselves, and to widen and perpetuate the breach already existing to so sad an extent between the Northern and Southern portions of the Presbyterian Church. We therefore deprecate this action of the Assembly as most inauspicious. There was and is, in our judgment, a more excellent way. The fortunes of war have laid the whole Southern country prostrate at the feet of the National Government. The Southern Church seems to lie very much at the mercy of Northern Christians. Our victory calls for the display of the largest Christian magnanimity. It is for us to hold out the olive branch. By a prompt reconsideration and withdrawal of such action during the years past, of at least doubtful constitutionality, by which the Church has been entangled with the State in "matters which do alone pertain unto the civil magistrate," and occasion of offence given to many, both North and South, the way would be opened for recalling our brethren of the Southern Church from the errors into which they have fallen. Approaching them in the spirit of meekness and love, we might have hoped, with the blessing of God, to win back all who have wandered away from the old paths, and restore that "unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace" which, amid the raging storm of civil and fratricidal war, has been broken up. Such a course, if it had been adopted by this Assembly, could not fail to have exerted a most salutary influence in allaying the irritation which exists throughout the whole country, and in repairing the breaches which have been made both in the Church and the State. But now, instead of adopting some such plan of pacification, based upon the old foundation principles of the Presbyterian Church, and pervaded with the spirit of the gospel of good-will to men, the Assembly seem to us to have been led hastily to give their sanction to measures far different both in their spirit and tendency. Much better, in our judgment, would it have been if the Assembly had deferred all action on the subject for the present.

Against these measures, therefore, for these and other reasons, we most earnestly and solemnly protest; and this not in any captious or factious spirit, but under the profound conviction that it is required of us in the faithful discharge of our duty to the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Church of our fathers, and by a proper regard to the momentous interests involved in the issues.

ANSWER.

In answer to the first point of this protest, viz., that the Assembly erred in declaring that "the Presbyteries and the Synods in the Southern States organized an Assembly in order to render their aid in the attempt to establish, by means of the rebellion, a separate national existence, and to conserve and perpetuate the system of slavery"—the Assembly hereby declares that this judgment was founded not on any isolated and specific deliverance to that effect by the seceding Assembly, but upon a multitude of facts, notorious and uncontradicted, patent to every observer of the course of events. Amongst these we specify the following—others will suggest themselves to every reflecting mind—viz., That the clergy of the South—Presbyterians being prominent—were amongst the most influential leaders and abettors of rebellion; and that professedly for the establishment of a new government, under whose protection slavery might be perpetuated and conserved. The sermons and addresses of Drs. Palmer, Thornwell, and others, were printed and scattered as campaign documents throughout the South. The former of these—who, in a sermon preached in the city of New Orleans, entitled "Slavery a Divine Trust—Duty of the South to preserve and perpetuate it"—in answer to a question, proposed by himself, concerning the South—"What, at this juncture, is their providential trust?" declared "It is to conserve and perpetuate the institution of slavery as now existing;" and who further declared, "The course to be pursued in this emergency is already inaugurated—let the people in all the Southern States, in solemn counsel assembled, retain the powers they have delegated"—was upon the proposition of several Presbyteries requested to preach the opening sermon of the first Southern Assembly, and was subsequently elected Moderator. (See Minutes in Wilson's Hist. Alm. for 1863.) The Rev. Dr. Thornwell, who was recognized throughout the land as a great leader of secession, was appointed chairman of the committee to whom was entrusted the delicate and important duty of preparing the address "to all the churches of Jesus Christ throughout the earth." In that address, which is quoted largely by the protestants, it is set forth that "there is one difference which so radically and fundamentally distinguishes the North from the South, that it is becoming every day more and more apparent that the religious, as well as the secular, interests of both will be more effectually promoted by a complete and lasting separation. The antagonism of Northern and Southern sentiment on the subject of slavery, lies at the root of all the difficulties which have resulted in the dismemberment of the Federal Union, and involved us in the horrors of an unnatural war;" and in that paper, though civil war was raging, it is continually assumed that the country was already divided into two nationalities—thus, in effect, declaring the sinlessness of the rebellion. In the Narrative on the State of Religion, adopted at the second meeting of the Assembly, in May, 1862, occurs the following: "In the first place, we notice the relation of our congregations to the great struggle in which we are engaged. All the Presbyterial narratives, without exception, mention the fact that their congregations have evinced the most cordial sympathy with the people of the Confederate States in their efforts to maintain their cherished rights and institutions against the despotic power which is attempting to crush them. Deeply convinced that this struggle is not alone for civil rights and property and home, but also for religion—for the Church, for the gospel, and for existence itself,—the churches in our connection have freely contributed to its prosecution, of their substance, their prayers, and above all, of their members and the beloved youth of their congregations. They have parted, without a murmur, with those who constituted the hope of the Church, and have bidden them go forth to the support of this great and sacred cause, with their benedictions and with their supplications for their protection and success. The Assembly desire to record, with its solemn approval, this fact of the unanimity of our people in supporting a contest to which religion, as well as patriotism, now summons the citizens of this country, and to implore for them the blessing of God in the course which they are now pursuing." (Wilson's Hist. Alm., 1863, p. 449.) At the meeting of the Assembly, in May last, the following declaration was made: "We hesitate not to affirm, that it is the peculiar mission of the Southern Church to conserve the institution of slavery, and to make it both a blessing to the master and the slave." In view of such facts as these, the Assembly cannot but judge that it was a leading motive in the breasts of Southern ministers and elders, in their formation of a separate and distinct Assembly, "to render their aid in the attempt to establish by means of a rebellion, a separate national existence, and to conserve and perpetuate the system of slavery."

Nor is this conclusion invalidated by the facts adduced by the protestants.

The first of these is that "the Southern churches did not take any step toward a withdrawal from our connection until after the meeting of the General Assembly in Philadelphia, in May, 1861." At which "the Assembly passed the resolutions on the subject of allegiance to the General Government, &c." That, as a body, no overt steps were taken, is freely admitted. Nor would it have been expedient for them so to have done. Unless the resolutions alluded to had been adopted, it would have been more to the interests of the rebellion, for the Southern Church to have continued in connection with the General Assembly, than to have withdrawn. Until the passage of these resolutions, it was in the interests of rebellion, both at the North and the South, that the Southern churches should continue under the mantle of a great national Church, which failed to declare that treason was a sin, and thus tacitly admitted that the continuance of allegiance to the national government was a matter to be determined by the preponderance of earthly profit and loss.

Nor can the second consideration adduced by the protestants be regarded as having weight on this subject, viz., the absence of all declaration in the address set forth by the first Southern Assembly, of the design imputed to the Southern churches by this Assembly. In view of the peculiar circumstances of the Southern churches before the world, in further view of the expressed declaration of that Assembly, touching the relations of the Church as an organization, to the State, in connection with the fact that the individuals who composed the Assembly did not regard the secession of the Southern States as a sin, and the doctrine that it was the providential mission of the South to conserve and perpetuate the institution of slavery as a heresy; it was to have been expected that all reference to such design of individuals would be studiously avoided. It is not the intention of the Assembly to assert that the reasons set forth in that address were not influential with those who uttered them, nor is it their intention in this paper to discuss their validity; but they do declare that in their judgment, there is nothing in that document to forbid the idea that the individuals who framed it, and the members of the Southern churches generally, were principally moved by the designs imputed. And in this judgment they believe they are fully sustained by the subsequent deliverances of the Southern Assembly, by the preceding and following conduct of ministers, and the declarations of the religious press. Nay, more, it must be evident to every reflecting mind, that the address itself, by its assumptions and declarations concerning the existence of two nations, and the general tenor of its arguments, was written as much in the interests of the Southern Confederacy, as in those of the Southern Church.

The last two points of the protest logically proceed upon the assumption that treason, such as has existed in the Southern States, is not a sin, and that the doctrine that Southern slavery is a divine institution, to be conserved and perpetuated, is not a heresy. These topics, in view of their past deliverances, and in the light of history, the Assembly deems it needless to discuss. In reference to the last point of the protestants, the Assembly fully recognize the facts that the directions given by them will involve much personal affliction—and perhaps in some instances temporary hardships—for this they are not responsible. Those who have sown the wind, must expect to reap the whirlwind. Duty to the great Head of the Church forbids that the Assembly should compromise with heresy and sin; nor can they walk in any way as "more excellent," because apparently more peaceful, which involves such compromise. They know no scriptural way by which those who have gone out from us, proclaiming heresy, can be restored to the bosom of the Church, until after recantation, or those who have fallen into the grievous sin of treason, but upon confession and repentance.

The answer to the protest of the Rev. R. Morrison and others, against the admission of Hamilton Smith, ruling elder, as commissioner from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, was taken from the docket, adopted, and ordered to be entered upon the minutes with the protest. They are as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned hereby enter an earnest protest against the action of the General Assembly in admitting to a seat in this body, Hamilton Smith, a ruling elder, as a delegate or commissioner from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri.

Our constitution declares that "the General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and ruling elders from each Presbytery." Chap. xii. 2. And further points out that "the Commissioners to the General Assembly shall always be appointed by the Presbytery from which they come, at its last stated meeting immediately preceding the meeting of the General Assembly," and that "a commission under the hand of the Moderator and Clerk," shall be given them, "and the Presbytery shall record the appointment." Chap. xxii. 1, 2, 3.

None of these requirements have been complied with by Mr. Smith. No Presbytery has made a record of his appointment: no commission from any Presbytery has ever been given him, since no Presbytery has chosen him its delegate or commissioner to this General Assembly. This objection is of all the more force in view of the fact that a ruling elder is not ex officio, a member of Presbytery, and therefore cannot be said in any sense to represent a body to which he does not belong. If it requires a special formal appointment before a minister, who is a permanent member of the Presbytery, can become a representative of Presbytery, and a commissioner to the General Assembly, much more is an appointment necessary in the case of a ruling elder, who, as a commissioner to the General Assembly, is in a peculiar sense the representative of all the churches under the care of a particular Presbytery.

Hence we are constrained to regard this action of the Assembly as irregular, unconstitutional, of dangerous precedent, and unnecessary, as we are not aware of any special advantage that this Assembly could not confer on that Presbytery, quite as well without admitting Mr. Smith as a member of this body.

ANSWER.

The Committee report the following answer to the protest of Robert Morrison and others, against the action of the General Assembly in admitting to a seat in this body, Hamilton Smith, a ruling elder, as a delegate or commissioner from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri:

In this, as in cases which have occurred in previous years, the Assembly has exercised its legitimate and proper function in the application of constitutional rules in special and extraordinary cases, relaxing the rule in favour of frontier and missionary Presbyteries.

In view of the remote situation of the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, and the difficulties incident to the war, which have prevented its meeting for a long time, the Assembly consider that a technical irregularity caused thereby, may justly plead exemption from a vigorous application of the letter of the law, and that the informality in this case does not violate the spirit of the Constitution.

Furthermore, as a ruling elder of any church session in connection with the Presbytery, though not actually present at the meeting of his Presbytery, is eligible to election as commissioner to the General Assembly, this Assembly consider that the distinction between ministers and ruling elders ought not to be a bar to the representation of that remote Presbytery, by a ruling elder under the extraordinary circumstances of this case.

The Rev. S. J. Niccolls presented and read an answer to the protest of Dr. R. S. Wilson and others, against the adoption of the resolution in the report on the Board of Domestic Missions, directing that Board to send only loyal missionaries to the South. The answer was adopted, and ordered to be entered on the minutes with the protest. They are as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned feel constrained to protest against the action of the General Assembly, whereby they adopted the following order, directed to the Board of Domestic Missions, viz.

"Resolved, That no missionaries be appointed by the Board, except those giving satisfactory evidence of loyalty to the National Government, and of cordial sympathy with the Presbyterian Church in her testimony on doctrine, loyalty, and freedom."

Against this order of the Assembly we protest—

1. Because it establishes an entirely new rule respecting the appointment of missionaries by the Board; and this not with reference to all parts of the field, but only to a particular section. There is no reason for thus establishing an inequality and a distinction which is manifestly invidious between the missionaries of the Board. If it is proper and necessary to require "satisfactory evidence" of the possession of the qualifications specified in respect to missionaries going into one part of the country, we cannot see why the same thing is not equally proper and necessary in regard to those who may be sent to any other part.

2. Because, whilst requiring satisfactory evidence of "loyalty," the Assembly furnishes no measure by which the Board are to determine the nature or the degree of evidence which shall be deemed satisfactory. Nor does the Assembly explain what is meant by "loyalty to the National Government," nor does it give any clear definition of what it means by "loyalty" in itself considered; but all this it was requisite the Assembly should have done, inasmuch as the standards of the Church are silent upon the whole question, and do not anywhere prescribe loyalty to any particular human government as a condition either of membership or office in the Church of Christ in general, or in the Presbyterian branch of that Church in particular. This whole matter, therefore, involving so grave interests and influences, is left to be determined by the Board itself in the exercise of those plenary powers with which this order has clothed its members. As Christian freemen we cannot consent to the investing any mere handful of men, however wise and zealous and pious they may be, with a power so unlimited and yet so undefined.

3. Because this order is not content merely with empowering the Board to judge concerning the evidence of loyalty to the National Government of the missionaries appointed by it, and of their acquiescence in the testimony of the Presbyterian Church on "loyalty and freedom," but it requires more than this. It requires and empowers the Board to make inquisition into the inmost thoughts and feelings of these missionaries. It demands that they shall examine concerning the hidden sympathies of their hearts.

It forbids them to appoint any man to preach the gospel, no matter how sound he may be in the faith, or devoted to the order of the Church, or unimpeachable in his conduct as a Christian and a citizen, until they have obtained what they may be pleased to regard as "satisfactory evidence" of his "cordial sympathy" with the various and varying utterances of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church on the political questions of allegiance and human rights.

4. Because by this act the Board, which practically means in such connection, the Committee at Philadelphia, are constituted, as it seems to us, an Ecclesiastical Privy Council, with unlimited authority over the ministers of the Church, to decide upon their orthodoxy as ministers and their character as citizens. It puts this Privy Council above the Church and the State both. It empowers, nay it orders them, to go behind the certificate of recommendation of the Presbytery, and if they are not satisfied, to refuse to appoint upon that recommendation: that is to condemn a minister as not sound in doctrine, as not loyal to the National Government, or as not in cordial sympathy with the testimony of the Church on loyalty and freedom. It is not enough that a man should be in good and regular standing in his Presbytery; it is not enough that he should be an American citizen unimpeached and uncondemned; it is not enough that he should have the approbation of his peers, to whom by the Constitution of the Church he is amenable. Something more is required. He must pass the inquisition of "the Board," that is, "the Committee" of Missions at Philadelphia, who by this act, in our opinion, are exalted above all that are called Presbyteries or Synods in the Church, and all that are ordained in the State to administer the laws thereof. All which seems to us most clearly to be disloyal in its spirit as it respects the civil power, and as respects the Church, in its tendency, revolutionary and destructive to her faith, constitution, government, discipline, and liberty, as she has been endowed with these precious and inalienable gifts by her King and Head; and as they have been handed down to her sealed with the blood of her holy martyrs of blessed memory. And in this view of the meaning of this act, against which for these reasons we protest, we are sustained by the fact that the Assembly did refuse, by large majorities, to entertain three several propositions so to amend the order as to limit the power of the Board, and to make the certificate and recommendation of a Presbytery all the evidence they should have a right to require in the premises.

For these reasons we do hereby enter our respectful but earnest and solemn protest against an act which seems to us so utterly subversive of that which to us is dearer than life, the divine and beautiful order of the Presbyterian Church, and the freedom of the commonwealth of Christ, in the setting up of a new court unknown to our system and paramount to the Presbyteries, which, holding in its hand the purse, is vested with both the ecclesiastical and the secular powers.

ANSWER.

The Committee to whom was referred the protest of the Rev. Samuel R. Wilson, D. D., and others, against the action of this Assembly, in adopting the fourth resolution in the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, directing said Board to send and support no missionaries in the Southern States but such as give satisfactory evidence of loyalty, &c., would respectfully report the following answer, viz.

1. That this Assembly, in said resolution, does not instruct the Board concerning a rule of action in sending missionaries to the loyal States, but to those in which slavery, disloyalty, and rebellion have prevailed, and where a new state of things not only warrants, but, in the judgment of this Assembly, most imperatively demands a rule of action in the appointment of missionaries, adapted to the peculiar exigencies of the times, and the condition of the churches in that field.

2. In regard to the second reason of the protestants, touching "loyalty," &c., the Assembly would answer, that no specific "definition" or "standard" of loyalty is needful in the premises, except that in our Confession of Faith; as, in the judgment of common sense and practical wisdom, the principle and spirit of loyalty to the Government and to the Church are as readily discoverable in men's words and actions as are the principles and spirit of the Christian religion in their walk and conversation. The same rule applies to both. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," and "by their fruits ye shall know them," are axiomatic truths in regard to both religion and loyalty. Moreover, this Assembly has, by repeated and most solemn deliverances, declared disloyalty and rebellion, especially as against a wise and equitable government, such as ours, to be a most heinous sin against God and "the powers that be, as ordained of God;" and, by similar deliverances, has pronounced in favour of loyalty and freedom. Consequently, to appoint as missionaries for the Southern States, men who are disloyal to the government, and not in harmony with the General Assembly in its deliverances, would be not only to ignore and neutralize its testimonies, but to stultify itself, and scatter anew the seeds of schism, disloyalty, and rebellion.

3. As to the leading statements by the protestants, in the third reason, they are simply untrue—mere gratuitous assumptions, which require no further answer from this Assembly.

4. This Assembly has the right to direct the Board of Domestic Missions to go behind the certificate of a Presbytery, and inquire whether a man is loyal and true to the Government and the Church, before sending him as a missionary to the Southern States, just as it has enjoined all the Presbyteries to examine a man as to his orthodoxy before he be received into the Presbytery, or have liberty to preach in any of its churches. This has been a standing rule for nearly thirty years, acquiesced in by the Churches and Presbyteries, and especially by those in the Southern States, as wise and salutary.

The Assembly is sorry to see in the protest generally a spirit and sentiment which does not evince a cordial sympathy with and respect for this body, in its solemn deliverances on certain questions involving the purity and peace of the Church.

Dr. Wood, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported back the memorial from the Executive Committee of the Trustees of the Ashmun Institute, with amendments.

On motion, the memorial and the report thereon were laid upon the table.

Also, a report on a usage found on the Records of the Synod of New Jersey, concerning the dismissal of ministers to Congregational Associations. The report was, on motion, referred to Dr. Green to prepare a report and send it to the next Assembly.

Also a report on Overture No. 20, which asks directions how church sessions ought to proceed with regard to members who have been absent several years without taking a dismission. They recommend that the overture be answered by saying:

1. That members of the Church do not cease to be such except by death, dismission, excommunication, or by connecting themselves with some other Christian Church. And hence that a member does not lose his membership by absence. See Minutes of the General Assembly for 1825, p. 255 (Digest, p. 34).

2. That when a member is absent two years and his place of residence and Christian life are unknown to the session, they shall mark him on the roll of the church as absent; after which time such member shall not be counted in the statistical report of the church to the Presbytery, nor in any action of the church or congregation which requires the concurrence of a majority of the church in order to give it validity. And on the return of such member the session shall call him before them and inquire concerning his deportment during his absence, and shall restore his name to the roll of actual members, or proceed to administer discipline according as the case may require.

The report was adopted.

Also a Report on Overture No. 19, concerning the milk traffic in and around our large cities, from the Presbytery of Connecticut. The overture and report were, on motion, placed in the hands of a special Committee, to prepare a report and send it to the next General Assembly. The Rev. N. West, D. D., the Rev. D. J. Waller, and Ruling Elder W. M. Awl were appointed the Committee of reference.

Also a report on Overture No. 10, from the Synod of the Pacific requesting action with regard to the amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, so as to recognize God and Jesus Christ in that instrument. The Committee recommend that the overture be answered by referring to the action of the General Assembly on this subject last year. See Minutes for 1864, p. 315.

The report was adopted.

Also a report on Overture No. 11, from the Presbytery of Newton, asking the General Assembly to take action with regard to the amendment of the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery.

The report was amended, and adopted, as follows:

That the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1864 on the subject of slavery be considered a sufficient answer.

Also a report on Overture No. 24, from the Rev. H. Hervey, asking the General Assembly to recommend the use of the Bible as a class-book in Colleges. The Committee report the overture itself as a suitable paper to be adopted and spread on our Minutes.

The report was adopted. The overture is as follows:

Inasmuch as the General Assembly has given its influence, encouragement, and patronage, to establish and support literary institutions, academies, and colleges. And inasmuch as it should be expected, that in such institutions of learning, Bible instruction would have an important place, especially in such as are under the supervision of the Church.

And inasmuch as there is reason to believe that more of this kind of instruction should be incorporated into the classical and literary course of study, for forming the principles and character of the youth of the Church, and of the country, not only that they may be intelligent and useful Christians, but good and loyal citizens.

And inasmuch as there seems to be a tendency in the times, to rationalism, and other different forms of infidelity, among the educated classes; and a great want of a religiously educated conscience, in the public conscience generally; against which the Church and her institutions should be the most faithful and effectual guard, by the scriptural instruction of the youth of the country;

Therefore the General Assembly would advise the guardians, and instructors of the Colleges and Academies under Presbyterial supervision and influence, and all others having the oversight and charge of such institutions, to give special attention to this subject, and to make the Bible, in the original languages, a class-book in such institutions.

On motion, Judicial Case No. 6, being a complaint of John Crozier and John Mack against the Synod of Illinois, was continued and referred to the next Assembly.

It was ordered that when the Assembly adjourn, it be to to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock, for religious exercises.

Judge Strong moved the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to the Committee of Arrangements, through whom temporary homes have been provided for the members and officers of the Assembly, and for the representatives of the press in attendance upon the meetings of this body; and also to the citizens of Pittsburg, Allegheny, and vicinity, for the generous and cordial hospitality extended to them. The Assembly would also extend their thanks to those bridge and railroad companies which have extended courtesies to members attending the Assembly, and also to the press for publishing our proceedings.

On motion of the Rev. S. F. Colt, the resolution directing the report of the Committee on Courts of Appeal to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, was reconsidered, and that Committee was authorized instead, to publish and circulate the report.

The Rev. S. J. Niccolls moved the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this General Assembly recommend to the sessions of our churches to set apart, as a period of special prayer for the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the churches, and for the conversion of the world, the week beginning January 1st, 1866, including also the last Sabbath of December and the first Sabbath of January.

Dr. Martin presented and read a protest against the decision made in his judicial case, when, on motion of the Rev. D. J. Waller, it was Resolved, That Dr. Martin's protest is only such in name, while it is in reality an argument of the case which the Assembly has refused to hear, as not regularly before it, and that he therefore have leave to withdraw the same.

The tellers reported that the following persons had received the highest number of votes for Directors in the Seminary of the Northwest, and they were accordingly declared elected.

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.

Wm. Sheets, in place of John Todd, deceased.

The minutes of to-day were read and approved.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. John Winn.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, June 1st, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and spent an hour in devotional exercises, with reference to the object for which the day was appointed by the President of the United States. Dr. Elliott presided.

Dr. West read the Narrative of the State of Religion, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

A pastoral letter was read by Dr. Wood, the committee appointed for that purpose, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Rev. F. Buell addressed the Assembly, and offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly acknowledges the good hand of our God, by which the American Bible Society has been enabled, during the first half century of its existence, to circulate so many million copies of the Holy Scriptures; and especially during the past few years in the blessing conferred upon our soldiers and sailors, in supplying them with the support and consolation of the gospel through the written word. The General Assembly also bids the Society God-speed, in entering into the fields now opening so widely before it, both in the home and foreign field, through Divine Providence.

Resolved, 2d, That in view of the important work now devolved upon the Society, this Assembly adopts the resolution of last year, in commending the Society to the liberal contributions of the churches.

The minutes of to-day were approved.

On motion of Dr. Wood, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the Second Presbyterian Church, in the City of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, on the third Thursday of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord 1866.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, TO ALL THE CHURCHES UNDER ITS CARE:

DEARLY BELOVED—"Grace be unto you, and peace from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ." Another year of eventful history has passed away—a year of war and tumult in all the land—a year of sore trial and embarrassment in all our churches—a year of apprehension and sorrow in many of our households—a year fraught with vital issues to the nation, and results of the highest and most lasting moment to the Church of God. It is our happiness to meet once more, just when the clangour of war gives place to the glad tidings of accomplished victory and peace, and the night of thick darkness to the morning of joy. We can now look back over all the way along which the Lord hath led us, and see that, although that way has been gloomy and perilous indeed, it has been, nevertheless, the right way, and, inspired with confidence as we anticipate and behold the glorious destiny which awaits the Church and the nation, in the vista of the future, can say from our hearts, in the words of the Psalmist, "Because thou hast been our help, therefore under the shadow of thy wings will we rejoice." In this confidence and hope, we pause to review the past, and while recounting the goodness of God, take note of our spiritual state, whether as to the progress or decay of vital religion in our bounds.

The geographical field is large. Embracing, as it does, the territory from Atlantic to Pacific, and from Gulf to Lakes, with the foreign field besides, it affords the most ample opportunity, by comparison of the various and numerous reports submitted to us, of reaching an accurate though general knowledge of the condition of the Church throughout all its borders. There is one exception, however, which occurs to abate the universality of this statement, and in its measure to diminish the sources of our information. As we enter upon this review, we are saddened at the thought that from many portions of our Zion no watchman reports the kindness and care of God, no messenger comes to bring us tidings of a glad and spiritual release for the captive daughter of our people. No voice is heard from Presbyteries, once vocal with thanksgiving, and once burdened with recitals of what blessings had descended upon them from the long-suffering and patience of the Spirit of all grace. Silence, painful and profound as the darkness and desolation where it dwells, broods over that region of our ecclesiastical territory within whose limits was nurtured into life a crime of unparalleled enormity against the government and free institutions of our country—a solemn stillness which tells of the terrible retributions and judgments of God. We can only learn that, in many places, the "candle" has been quenched, the "candlestick" removed, and that the Lord hath "violently taken away his tabernacle," "swallowed up the habitations of Jacob," and "covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger."

With this exception, the sources of our information are satisfactory and complete. And, first, notwithstanding the fearful ordeal through which the nation has passed, the effects of which have been seriously felt by the Church, we have very much for which to lift up our hearts in devout gratitude and praise to God. In all the Presbyteries which have reported to us, mention is made of the constant, earnest, faithful preaching of the word of reconciliation and life. Nearly three thousand ministers of our denomination have been publishing to perishing sinners the unsearchable riches of Christ. Utterance has been given to the great and fundamental doctrines of salvation as revealed in the sacred Scriptures, and as expounded in the inimitable standards of our Church. The good seed of the kingdom has been scattered broadcast everywhere: in the heart of the great metropolis, in the streets of the less busy and tumultuous city, in the more humble village, in the rural spot, over mountain and prairie, along river and lake, on the distant and far-stretching frontier, in the temple, the cabin, the tent, and under the open canopy of heaven. For such an inestimable blessing as this, in times of such trial as ours—a blessing continued to us notwithstanding our unworthiness to receive it, we have the most abundant reason to bless and praise God.

Additional reason for gratitude is discovered in the precious fact that, in many places, the Holy Spirit has attended with power the word preached, and rendered it effectual to the salvation of souls. Some parts of the vast field have been blessed with special outpourings of grace. The Redeemer has come down in the plenitude of his promise, "like rain upon the mown grass, and as showers that water the earth." The Spirit has been "poured" from on high, in answer to the earnest and believing prayers of God's people. The Presbyteries of Des Moines, Huntingdon, Baltimore, Newcastle, Steubenville, Raritan, Sangamon, Allegheny, West Lexington, Missouri, Crawfordsville, Mohawk, and Monmouth, report gracious revivals of religion in many of their churches. God's people have been refreshed, strengthened, and encouraged: and numbers of precious youth, gathered from the Sabbath school, the Bible class, and even from haunts of crime where no religious instruction was found, have been converted and consecrated to Christ. In other portions of the field, God has been as the "dew" unto Israel, causing his Church to grow as the lily, and cast forth its roots as Lebanon. No marked and special outpouring of Divine grace has been witnessed; but the calm, quiet influence of the Spirit, accompanying the truth, has settled gently upon the hearts of men, and resulted in conversions equal in number to those where the presence of grace was more demonstrative and powerful. From still other portions of the field the reports, though bringing no intelligence of conversions, abound in gratitude to God for the more than accustomed seriousness manifested under the preaching of the word and the administration of the sacraments. Enlarged attendance upon the services of the sanctuary, increase of the churches by reception of members from distant parts of the country, and the general prevalence of harmony and peace, are narrated as causes of thanksgiving. A pleasing feature in many of the reports is the expression of pious confidence in the covenant, well-ordered and sure, of a covenant-keeping God, and the growing disposition of believing parents to lay hold upon the promises of grace in behalf of the children upon whose heads baptismal waters have been shed. In connection with this, it is gratifying to be able to say that, in the churches of not a few of our Presbyteries, more than ordinary attention has been given to catechetical instruction, and earnest Sabbath-school effort is reported as one of the most efficient instrumentalities in the practical development of the Church, for the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Among the causes for special gratitude to God during the past year, is the evidence of his favour to our Theological Seminaries, our Colleges, Presbyterial Academies, and other institutions of learning. In the former, especially Princeton and Allegheny, the tokens of God's presence with the students, in a noticeable manner, at different times during the past year, are made subjects of grateful remark. Princeton College reports a good state of religious feeling and a number of conversions, as also the encouraging fact that more than one half of the students are professors of religion. The Presbyterial Academy, at Blairsville, reports a religious interest deep and solemn. The Witherspoon Institute tells of the goodness of God in the conversion of many of the youth under its care. The Steubenville Female Seminary, in like manner, though unvisited by any extensive work of grace, reports a score of conversions to God during the past year. Other institutions of learning speak in the same way of Divine favour to them in spiritual things. We are led to infer that the observance of the Day of Prayer for our Schools, Colleges, and Seminaries, last year, was a day blessed in its results to the salvation of many souls. For these mercies we are bound evermore to return heartfelt thanks to God, and encouraged by the experience of his readiness to answer prayer, to plead the more earnestly that not only will he multiply and continue these tokens of heavenly grace to these Seminaries and Colleges, but vouchsafe the same with increasing measure, to all our Theological and Literary Institutions, and make them fountains of blessing to the Church, the nation, and the world.

The past year has been one of unusual temporal prosperity to the Church, and the increase of power to contribute to benevolent objects has been accompanied, in many instances, with an unusual increase of Christian liberality. Some of our Presbyteries report a beneficence in many of their churches unsurpassed by that of any former year, throughout all their history. The contributions to the Boards have, in numerous cases, been greater than ever before. From nearly every quarter the tidings reach us that a commendable increase of pecuniary support has been justly and generously given by the churches to the ministry. Congregations, which for years have laboured under the incubus of heavy-pressing debts, have been relieved of their burden, and the blessing of God has every where attended every such effort with results of restored strength, mutual confidence, and augmented harmony and usefulness. Institutions of learning also have been freed from the embarrassment of debt, and munificently endowed with a liberality corresponding to their importance. New church edifices have been erected, and are almost entirely free from pecuniary burden. And edifices for mission schools, in appropriate fields, are among the proofs of the Church's liberality during the past year. Thankful to God for such evidences of his goodness to us, it is still only too sadly true, that after all the exhibition of our beneficence, in the various channels where it has coursed its way, it is, in proportion to the actual increase and gain of the Church in wealth, far less than has been, in former days, the expenditure of Christian liberality, upon a pecuniary basis and capital less by one-third than it is now. Let it be ours continually to cry unto God that he will sanctify the accumulated wealth of the Church, that with the increase of riches there may also be an increase of true consecration to Christ, until the Gentile Church, like the Eastern kings who came glittering in barbaric gold to offer gifts at the feet of the infant Jesus, or like her who, having the alabaster-box of ointment of spikenard, very precious, poured it on His head, shall regard it no waste to make the prodigality of her devotion and love to Christ commensurate with her ability and opportunity to display it.

Much of the active benevolence of the Church, during the past year, has been manifested Christianly and duteously in the distribution of charities to the bodies, and the ministering of spiritual benefit to the souls of thousands of brave men who have offered themselves, in the warfare of strife, for the defence of their country. Into this wide field of usefulness hundreds and thousands of the members of our churches and congregations, operating in various ways, have entered, not without the blessing of God attending their labours. Thus it has eventuated, that in the midst of evils, the magnitude of which it is impossible to describe, the providence of God has opened up channels of compensating mercy to those who needed his mercy, and evoked energies of hand and heart upon his Church in behalf of those who were ready to be drawn unto death, which otherwise had lain dormant and unexercised. The battlefields of the country, the hospitals of the sick and wounded, the graves too of the dead, and homes over which the dark cloud of bereavement and sorrow had settled, like the pall of Egyptian night, bear testimony to that tender compassion and care, the exhibition of which it has been the sad privilege of our beloved Zion, in common with others, to covet and bestow. "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not." The Church has hastened to alleviate the woe. Piety has knelt, with tearful eyes, by the side of patriotism, to extend a cup of cold water to the exhausted and stricken soldier, to wipe away the battle-sweat from his brow, to bind up his bleeding wounds, to ease his dying posture, to pour an earnest prayer, to give one last and tender ministry of love. Blessed be God for the gush and exuberance of holy gratitude which streams everywhere throughout the reports that come to us from the Presbyteries under our care, in that God has granted to so many hundreds in our Church so precious a reflex result of grace and blessing for their labour of love to others who were ready to perish. And blessed be his name for the precious testimony that hundreds of our brave soldiers have through this instrumentality been converted to Christ.

In those portions of the Master's vineyard, covered by the benevolent agency of the Boards of Domestic and Foreign Missions, we have the gratifying intelligence that God is still administering his grace to the Church, as in days past. In the home field there has been much to discourage, due to the influence of war, in the increase of trials unusually severe. Still, there is yet from many parts of it the cheering report of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, giving efficacy to the arduous labours of our faithful and cross-bearing missionaries. In the foreign field, so far as it is reported to us, there is much for which we feel truly thankful to God. Our mission in South America is slowly but steadily increasing in influence, and not a few of the people, priest-ridden and ignorant worshippers at the shrine of Mary, have been converted from Papal superstition to the pure truth of the go pel. Among the Indian tribes there are several marked instances of the special converting grace of God. In Western Africa, though as yet our missionaries have not obtained access to the important tribes of the interior, still the increasing favour with which the natives on the coast receive them, gives great promise of access to the interior at a period not far distant. That which appears prominent in the reports of missionaries, is the blessing of God upon the schools of instruction everywhere connected with our missionary stations. In India, the stations of Lodiana and Furrukhabad, though reporting but a very few converts during the past year, yet tell of the more than usual fidelity and c nsistent Christian character of those who have already professed their faith in Christ. From China there is very much that is cheering. The brethren, especially of the Presbytery of Ningpo, rejoice exceedingly in the evidences of God's favour toward them. Impediments to the progress of Christ's kingdom are being gradually but surely removed. Sixty-four converts, during the past year, have united with the four churches of this Presbytery. Two additional churches have been organized during the year. The number of native ministers has increased, and the fidelity of native converts has been exhibited to a remarkable degree, sometimes under circumstances most trying. In the language of the Presbytery, "The Presbytery desire to recognize the distinguished and constant blessing and mercy which have marked our course during the past year." Siam and Japan report no additions to the Church, and nothing of special encouragement. Our supplications, earnest and constant, should ever ascend to the mercy-seat in behalf of our toiling, our sometimes desponding brethren, who, labouring in a foreign field, amid so much to hinder the progress of the gospel, amid a people so enslaved by the delusions of Satan, and sunk so low in moral degradation, ignorance, and wretchedness, are compelled to fly to the shelter of a Divine promise alone, and failing to behold the blest vision of a present reward in their work, yet labour on, believing that it shall not be in vain in the Lord, and that they who go forth weeping and bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again rejoicing, bringing their sheaves with them.

But while thus recounting the goodness of God to our beloved Zion in continuing to her the enjoyment of the means of grace, in pouring out his Holy Spirit, in blessing us with temporal prosperity, and opening up so many channels for usefulness, while in the home and foreign fields we see the clearest evidences of his grace and power, there is yet, on the other hand, much, very much, on account of which it becomes us to humble ourselves, and repent before God. The narration of God's goodness to us over a territory so vast as that we have been contemplating, might perhaps leave the impression that a high spiritual state has been the characteristic of the churches under our care during the past year. This is unhappily not true. The large majority of our Presbyteries deplore, with uniform utterance, the low state of religion in their churches. They report not only the absence of any special work of grace in the conversion of souls, or in the edification of believers, but mourn that the evidences of languishing piety, lukewarmness, and even apostasy in some cases, are so painful and abundant. Increasing conformity to the world, insatiate thirst and avidity in the pursuit of riches, the fatal influence of the rapid acquisition of wealth on personal character, social manners, and religious life, the love of worldly amusements, frivolity, vanity, fashion, thoughtlessness, and excitement, all fostering pride, curiosity, and perverseness, chilling pious affections, quenching spiritual ardour, rendering the soul callous and formal in the outward observance of its devotions, remiss in its duties, and insensible to divine things, have fearfully paralyzed the spiritual vigour of the Church, and well-nigh extinguished her vitality and zeal. The spirit of true worship has almost fled from the sanctuary. In many places the fires that once burned brightly and warmly upon the domestic altar are entirely gone out. Multitudes of professing Christians have learned to abandon the place of social prayer, and exchange the audience-chamber of Heaven for the concert-room, the secular lecture, the public entertainment, the opera, or the theatre. Parallel with the growth of material prosperity, has been the growth of self-importance and complacency, and with this the destruction of Christian humility and obedience to Christ. Solemn vows of covenant consecration to Christ, and fellowship with the Church of God have been broken. The result of this has been the neglect of ordinances, and the relaxation of discipline in the house of God. Three Presbyteries especially report the almost entire destruction of spiritual authority, in some of the churches within their bounds. Pastors and sessions, unwilling to venture upon the discipline of disorderly members, appalled at the prospect of protracted judicial trial, and the uncertainty of justice, as also swayed, to some degree, by considerations of pecuniary advantage to the Church, consent to the continuance of an evil in the Church, which, if not eradicated in time, may result in her total corruption and disintegration. And thus it is that no small part of the professing church, unrestrained in worldliness, becoming engrossed in other things than "the one thing needful," have sought "their own," and "not the things that are Christ's," and are now content with a "name to live," while they are "dead."

It is but proper to add, that to the differences of political opinion incident to the fearful rebellion through which we have passed, and also to the influence of military excitement, many divisions and strifes in our beloved Zion during the past year are to be attributed. The long agony of the nation, and the streams of human blood which have flown, seem not yet to have satisfied some that the American rebellion is one of the greatest crimes that will ever blacken the annals of history. One Presbytery reports continued disputation in reference to a military order which required, as a protection of the Government from the plotting of treason, a pledge of unconditional allegiance from ministers of Christ, in that region of country where treason was rife. The effect of this disputation has been only what might be expected upon the private members of the churches, and upon some of our ecclesiastical courts. It is pleasing, however, to be able to turn from a contest in one Presbytery, professedly conducted in vindication of the Headship and Crown Rights of the Lord Jesus, but generally believed to be actuated by a desire on the part of some, however sincere others may be, to evade the just claims of the Government, in times of national peril, and contemplate the picture drawn in the report of another Presbytery, once almost broken up by rebellion, but now restored, through the mercy of God, by the overthrow of our national foes. A single word from the narrative submitted to us will suffice on this point: "Doors that once were closed against us, at the formation of our Presbytery, are now open, and many who at first were unwilling to co-operate and mingle with those who were loyal to our country and to the General Assembly of our Church, are now willing and ready to aid us in the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom in their midst." Let us rejoice in a result so glorious, and pray earnestly that such instances may be abundantly multiplied. And while we recount the goodness of God herein, let the whole Church unite in the glowing spirit and language of thanksgiving which everywhere illuminate and warm the pages of Presbyterial narrative that have reached us from the different portions of our Zion; the spirit and language of jubilant praise, that a fearful and gigantic rebellion in behalf of evil has been crushed to the earth, and that a deepening sense of the necessity of laying the foundations of national greatness and stability, and of public morality, in the principles of the word of God, has been lodged in the bosom of his people. "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He shall thrust out the enemy before thee, and shall say, Destroy them. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone. The fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop dew. Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thine excellency! And thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places!"

In the midst of gratulation the voice of God speaks to us in tones of solemn providence. The past year has been one of bereavement for our beloved Zion. The Church mourns over the loss of trusted fathers and beloved sons. While patriot heroes have been falling upon the field of battle, the soldiers of the Cross have also been stricken down at their post. The sentinels upon our watch-towers and the captains in Israel have succumbed to the fell stroke of the destroyer. The venerable Swift, the father of our Board of Foreign Missions the eloquent preacher whose words were redolent with unction of the Spirit, the able divine and loving pastor has been taken away in the fullness of his ripened experience, and in the rich fruitage of his useful life. The valued and trusted chief of our Board of Education, the beloved Chester, after a life of self-sacrificing devotion to the high purposes of benevolence, has been summoned to rest from his labours. The lamented Magie has closed his long and useful career of duties so zealously discharged in the Master's service. The honoured and revered pastors, Phillips and Potts, after long and effectual pastorates in the great commercial centre of our nation, where Mammon holds his throne, and Fashion displays her gaudy colours, have laid aside their commissions at the touch of death, and gone up to God and his throne. The eloquent voices that cried out amid the din of the busy mart, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul, or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" are hushed in silence for ever. All have fallen in the midst of active labours. These, with others, to mention whom time would fail, laborious in Christian work, have entered upon their blessed reward, whilst many of our younger brothers, in the prime of life and in the ardour of Christian manhood, brilliant in attainment, and devoted in service, have been called from the scenes of their earthly conflict and care, at the moment when most of all the Church seemed to need their graces and their gifts. The First Presbytery of New York sends to us little more than its necrology for the past year. With a tone of sadness, yet humble submission to God, she mourns no less than the loss of eight of her loved members during the ecclesiastical year just elapsed. The Foreign field, too, weeps the untimely and violent departure of two of her most honoured and loved missionaries. The gifted Lœwenthal, shot by mistake, and the amiable Janvier, killed by an assassin, have both ended their missionary toils, and gone to the communion of worshippers in heaven, and the fellowship of the eternal life.

> "O, is it not a noble thing to die
> Upon the walls of Zion; to be called
> Like a watch-worn and weary sentinel,
> To put his armour off and rest in heaven!"

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them." How powerfully does the voice of God speak to us all, ministers, elders, and people together, still struggling in the field, bidding us work while the day lasts, knowing that the night of death soon cometh, when no man can work!

Finally, brethren, there is one other feature of paramount importance and of pleasing interest which characterizes nearly all the reports of our Presbyteries. From almost every portion of the Church a deep-breathed prayer comes up into the ear of this Assembly, a prayer of earnest appeal that the whole Church will implore God to pour out his Holy Spirit over the whole land. The atmosphere of prayer floats around nearly very one of the reports. A general conviction seems to rest in the mind of the Church, that a visitation of heavenly grace is soon to succeed the infliction of our righteous punishment as a nation, and that the clouds of Divine displeasure we have dreaded so much, are big with mercy, and ready to break in blessing on our head. What heart will not beat responsive, with sympathy, to this sublime and sacred anticipation? Who that beholds what desolations the Lord hath made, or remembers the agony and bloodshed in the land, or recalls the distractions of Zion, will not lift up the cry, "O, that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence." Why be content to linger among the judgments of God, when the glories of a brighter era are ready to burst upon us in answer to prayer, and in the experience of gracious promises now waiting to be fulfilled? "Come, let us return unto the Lord, for he hath torn and he will heal us, he hath smitten and he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." All the discordant tones we have heard in the troubled tragedy of the nation, and in the distress of the Church, are but parts of a Divine and providential alternation, intended for our good, notes in a grand harmony of music, inspiring and consoling, sounding the glorious battle-march of the Redeemer as he moves on with salvation for his people, along the track of ages, bidding us lift up our heads, for our redemption draweth nigh. Ours it is to besiege a throne of grace with importunate entreaty, now, and attract to ourselves the blessings God is waiting to bestow. "O thou that art named the House of Jacob, is the Spirit of the Lord straitened?" The promise of Christ to his Church is the promise of Omnipotent grace to lift her up from her deadness and decay. He who is the Resurrection and the Life, has said, "Thy dead men shall live: together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in the dust, for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast forth her dead." "O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When the Lord bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad!"

PASTORAL LETTER.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, in the year of our Lord, 1865, send to the Churches under their care, greeting:

The terrible calamities which have befallen our country during the last four years, and their injurious influence on the material, intellectual, moral and religious condition of the people, render it peculiarly important for the General Assembly, composed of your representatives from most of the loyal States, to remind you of the solemn responsibilities which this state of things devolves upon our churches, as well as upon the other Christian churches of this land.

Immense districts in the Southern States, now redeemed from the civil rebellion, have become, by the casualties of war, desolate wastes, the repairing of which demands immediate and earnest attention. Their political status is under the direction and control of the civil government. Their desolated fields must be put under cultivation, and their ruined dwellings, villages and cities rebuilt by individual industry and enterprise. But their intellectual, moral, and religious privileges, by means of literary institutions and gospel ordinances, must be restored by the exertions of Christian philanthropy. And in the Northern States, though the war has not materially diminished their wealth and prosperity, nor closed their schools, colleges, and churches, we have reason to apprehend that the demoralizing influences of the camp upon the habits of our brave and patriotic soldiers, will introduce into hundreds of neighbourhoods in the North, vices heretofore unknown, unless counteracted by timely and efficient efforts. "The patriotism of the nation, under God, has saved the Union, and it now remains for the piety of the Church to sanctify the people."

The means for accomplishing this work have been instituted by God himself, viz. earnest and believing prayer for the outpouring of his Holy Spirit, the faithful preaching of his word, and the liberal contribution of our substance for keeping in vigorous operation those auxiliary agencies which are adapted to benefit and save the souls of men.

The first great want of the Church and country is the effusion of the Holy Spirit, for which earnest prayer should be daily offered to God. The gift of the Spirit, descending in Pentecostal showers upon all our borders, will heal the breaches which have been made among us by this cruel and bloody war—reclaim from sin and ruin the many thousands who, in consequence of the war, have yielded too much to the corrupting tendencies of their depraved appetites and passions—purify the fountains of literature, and make all our schools and colleges the sources of virtuous and holy influences—impart to our firesides and places of business, to our popular assemblies and halls of legislation, a spirit of healthful and happy piety, and surround our whole land with a halo of celestial light and love.

But this inestimable blessing must be sought by earnest and importunate supplication. God will be inquired of by the house of Israel to do these things for them. Brethren, pray without ceasing until the Lord shall rain righteousness upon us; like the prophet Elijah on Mount Carmel, who cast himself down upon the earth in prayer, and sent his servant seven times in succession to look toward the sea, until at last a little cloud appeared like a man's hand, and speedily a refreshing and fertilizing rain covered the whole land of Israel. In addition to daily prayer in the closet and family, the Assembly recommend that our pastors and church sessions, at their discretion, appoint meetings for prayer in their respective congregations, daily if practicable, but if not, then once or twice a week, to pray especially for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit; and that like the pious and faithful few who assembled daily for prayer for ten days prior to the day of Pentecost, these praying ones look and wait in believing expectation for the fulfilment of the Divine promise to send this blessing upon his Church.

In connection with prayer, the Assembly recommend that as often as may be deemed expedient by our ministers and church sessions, they also appoint special public services for preaching the gospel. God has visited some of our congregations with large outpourings of his Holy Spirit in connection with these extra services. By these means the unconverted are brought daily under the influence of the preached word, and impressions produced one day are deepened by warnings reiterated on the next, and the result has often been a precious ingathering of souls.

The Assembly further exhort the churches under their care to practise an enlarged liberality in sustaining the cause of Christian benevolence. Not to mention other benevolent objects and associations, the operations of the several Boards of our own Church, and of the committee recently appointed to benefit the freedmen, are of the first importance, and they are increasing in magnitude every year; and with regard to some of them, owing to the extraordinary condition of our country, particularly in the Southern States, there is an urgent call for the most liberal contributions. Our nation has been appropriating the public treasure by hundreds of millions for the suppression of the rebellion, and our citizens have voluntarily contributed with remarkable liberality for the relief and comfort of our suffering soldiers, refugees, and freedmen. Let our churches contribute with corresponding liberality to promote their spiritual welfare. A special thank-offering is due to our Saviour God, the King of kings and Lord of lords, in view of the signal deliverance over which we now rejoice.

Finally, the Assembly would add to these several recommendations, that there is a special demand on all loyal and Christian men, in the hopeful termination of our national calamities, to endeavour, by every appropriate means in their power, to bring together in friendly relations the discordant and conflicting elements of civil society. Let all become good Samaritans to heal the wounds which have been made by this fratricidal war, and to administer to the wants of the distressed and unfortunate. Even those who have been our avowed and bitter enemies, once defiant but now conquered, are entitled to our sympathy and kindness. Act with regard to them, dear brethren, according to the spirit of those inspired words of the prophet Isaiah, which were put on record for our instruction, with the assurance that the reward promised will also be yours: "Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be thy re-reward. Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity; and if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light arise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday; and the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places; thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." Isa. lviii. 6—12.

And now, dear brethren, may "the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

Princeton, April 26, 1865.

Extract from the Minutes of the Board of Trustees of the Princeton Theological Seminary, April 26, 1865.

"The Committee appointed at the last meeting of this Board to confer with the Faculty and the Board of Directors, in reference to the appointment of a General Agent, presented a report submitting the following paper, adopted by the Board of Directors, on the 25th instant, viz.,

"Whereas the last General Assembly (Min. of 1864, p. 284) in view of the greatly enhanced expenses of living, recommended not only to the churches to increase the salaries of their pastors, but also to the persons having the management of our Colleges, Seminaries and Boards, to take measures for increasing the salaries of those ministers who are faithfully serving the Church in these institutions; therefore,

"Resolved, That it be recommended to the General Assembly to advance the salaries of the Professors in the Seminary by at least thirty-three per cent. upon the present salaries; and meanwhile, until the Seminary shall be put into possession of the adequate permanent funds, to authorize application to be made annually, if need be, to the churches, for the means of meeting the proposed increase.

"And in order the more effectually to provide the adequate means therefor, and also for the purpose of restoring to the scholarships in this Seminary the portion of their respective endowments which have been lost, and for increasing the number of scholarships, as well as for the more perfect endowment of the institution, and for its enlargement and greater efficiency in days to come,

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the Board of Trustees, as soon as possible, to make application, by an authorized agent, to individuals and to the churches for the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as an addition to the permanent funds of the Seminary,—and to invest and apportion the same, as far as necessary, for the purposes aforesaid, and for such other purposes of the institution as the Assembly may hereafter appoint.

"Resolved, That the Board of Trustees be requested to appoint the agent contemplated in their paper, to affix his salary, prescribe his duties and appropriate the funds raised."

This report, with the paper from the Board of Directors, was referred to J. Edwards, J. Hall, and S. Colwell, who subsequently reported, recommending the adoption of the following resolution, viz.,

"Resolved, That as this Board of Trustees has never yet, since they were incorporated, made such an appointment as that of General Agent, to collect funds, or in any wise interfered with the amount of the salaries of the Professors, this whole matter be respectfully referred to the General Assembly."

At the close of the term, the students were examined before a committee of the Board, who report "their gratification with these exercises, manifesting the ability, diligence, skill and earnestness of both Professors and students—and that at no former period has the Seminary given better evidence of its efficiency in the work for which it is appointed."

The health of Professors and students has been good, and the conduct of the

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the following arrangement of studies in the several departments has been made, and is now submitted to the Assembly in obedience to their order, viz.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Twelfth Annual Report, as follows:

During the session just closed, the whole number of students connected with the institution has been fifteen. Of these, the following are the names of the five students admitted since our last report:

John F. Hendy,	graduate of	Centre College, Ky.
A. N. Keigwin,	"	Louisville College, Ky.
W. J. Lapsley,	"	Centre College, Ky.
Frederick Lippe,	"	St. Elizabeth Gymnasium, Germany.
E. H. Semple,	"	Centre College, Ky.

It gives the Board much pleasure, especially in view of the state of things in Kentucky for the past few years, to report that the exercises of the Seminary have not been interrupted during the past session; and that we are able to state that the funds of the institution are safely invested; have been well managed by the Board of Trustees (to whose report we refer you for details); and are in as prosperous a condition as could possibly be expected at this time.

It is matter of congratulation that the following young men have been recommended by the Faculty, sustained an examination before the Board, and have received the certificate of the Seminary, viz.

Samuel F. Allen, of Kentucky,
William R. Brown, of Kentucky,
Joseph M. Evans, of Kentucky,
Charles Hill, of Ohio,
F. J. Reichert, of Missouri,
William C. Young, of Kentucky, all of whom are licentiates of the church.

The character of the students, as received from the Faculty, is good, and their diligence commendable.

The Librarian reports that the only additions to the Library since our last report, have been by donation,—the Eighth Census of the United States, 1860; and a large bundle of pamphlets by Rev. George Morrison.

The Board further report that the term of office of the following Directors expire with the sessions of the General Assembly of this year, to wit,

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
E. Forman,	S. E. Hibben,
J. L. Yantis, D. D.	William Ernst,
F. G. Strahan,	D. H. Coulter,
J. M. Worrall,	N. Wade,
A. E. Dickerson,	J. C. Maxwell, M. D.
W. C. Matthews, D. D.	William Sampson,
A. A. Hogue,	James Simpson,
T. H. Cleland,	George Welsh,
S. A. Mutchmore,	W. W. Scarborough.

We report no vacancies in the other classes.

The Board, however, cannot close their report without calling the special attention of the Assembly to a condition of things in this institution which is a source of great anxiety and perplexity. On account of his failing health, Dr. Humphrey felt constrained to offer his resignation of the chair he now fills. At the earnest request of the Board, he withdrew his resignation upon condition of release from his duties with relinquishment of his salary for one year. Dr. Breckinridge also requested to be relieved from the labours and cares of his professorship for the same year, and upon the same conditions as proposed by Dr. Humphrey and granted by the Board. Thus the two senior professors—the men whose names and labours have been associated with the seminary from its foundation, have been lost to it for the year. This the Board profoundly regrets; and entertains serious fears of the effect of this providence upon, at least, the temporary condition of the school. The Board is deeply impressed with the importance of sustaining this seminary at this time and in this locality. This field is one which we do not think the Assembly can afford to abandon at the present. The cause of our church at this time in Kentucky, needs, as we suppose, every proper aid and support. The Board desires, if it can be prevented, that the Seminary shall not be closed for a day. But overwhelmed by the blow which this failing health of these eminent servants of the Lord and the church has inflicted upon us, we appeal to the General Assembly for their counsel, and for whatever relief they may have it in their power and feel it to be proper to extend.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. L. Breckinridge, President.

Danville, Ky., May 4th, 1865.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTHWEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Northwest, respectfully report to the General Assembly, that during the term now closed, there have been twenty-three students in attendance, every one remaining to the end, and being present at the examination. The new students received were,

Alanson Carroll,	graduate of	Western Reserve College, Ohio.
John Giffen,	"	Nassau Hall, N. J.
Samuel C. Hay,	"	Hamilton College, N. Y.
C. M. Howard,	"	Gates Academy, Mass.
J. W. Knott,	"	Wesleyan University, Ohio.
T. Carter Kirkwood,	"	Monmouth College, Ill.
A. J. Leyenberger,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
A. Rush Mathes,	"	Hanover College, Ind.
Clay McCauley,	"	Nassau Hall, N. J.
John S. McClung,	"	Illinois College, Ill.
Edward Quinche,	"	Hanover, Ind.
William L. Rabe,	"	Richmond College, Ohio.
Charles E. Ryder,	"	Hebrew College, London.
Thomas E. Spillman,	"	Sangamon Academy, Ill.
John Weston,	"	Hanover College, Ind.
Frank M. Woods,	"	Washington College, Pa.

Of these, Samuel C. Hay was received from the Union Theological Seminary, N. Y., and John Giffen, Wm. L. Rabe, and Clay McCauley, from the Western Theological Seminary, Pa.

The Board take pleasure in calling the attention of the Assembly to the very marked increase of good students, the first session the new building was occupied. The Junior class already numbers fourteen. There is every reason to anticipate a more decided increase next session. The Faculty report that this first term "in our new building has throughout been a pleasant one to both Professors and students. With students as with Professors, there has been a feeling of encouragement arising from the occupancy of a permanent Seminary home, at once so comfortable and so well adapted to its purposes." The Committee to attend the examination, "report that the examination indicated thorough instruction on the part of the Professors, and much diligence on the part of the students. And the Committee would express great satisfaction with the course of instruction, and with its apparent results."

Six students have completed the prescribed course of study, and after a most satisfactory examination, have been awarded the usual certificates,—viz., P. Lynet Carden, John Giffen, Samuel C. Hay, John Miller, Henry F. Nelson, and Alexander G. Wilson. One of these is accepted as a missionary for the foreign field, and most of the others are already engaged for important fields in the wide North-west.

The grounds and buildings have been sufficiently equipped for the comfortable lodging and boarding of the twenty-three students in attendance, and the public rooms have also been tastefully furnished. The furnishing of the remaining students' rooms, and providing for the accommodation of the forty students the building will contain, and the further improvement of the grounds, will require a very considerable outlay the present season. A few churches and individuals in the North-west—chiefly in Northern and Central Illinois—have cheerfully contributed the liberal sum required for the furnishing and equipping already done, and at the same time to provide for contingent expenses, as reducing board and special aid to students, insurance, etc., besides paying a balance due on the building, and a part of the arrears to Professors. The whole sum, aside from the revenue from the endowment of the Professorships and Scholarships, collected and expended, exceeds $11,000.

The Librarian (Dr. Elliott) reports additions to the library of one hundred and forty-seven volumes, purchased with money donated by H. K. Corning, Esq., the liberal friend of the Seminary—and one hundred and ninety-one volumes, donated as follows:

Presbyterian Board of Publication,	140 volumes.
Rev. Joseph Warren, D. D.,	32 "
Rev. Dr. Davidson,	1 "
U. S. Government,	2 "
Rev. W. W. Harsha,	3 "
Rev. D. X. Junkin, D.D.,	1 "
Rev. A. A. E. Taylor,	5 "
Rev. S. T. Wells,	7 "

In view of the insufficiency of the endowment, the Board do not deem it expedient to ask the Assembly at present to fill the vacant "McCormick Professorship of Theology," a full course of instruction in that department being still given by Dr. Lord.

Early in the year, Mr. McCormick paid over to the Treasurer, in advance of maturity, the third $25,000, which sum the Trustees advise the Board has, after a serious loss of time, been loaned out on good security, but at a lower rate than in former years. This loss of time and diminished rate of interest, materially lessens the revenue for the Professors' salaries. A similar reduction of rate had to be submitted to in re-loaning the sums previously paid by Mr. McCormick. The result is a lighter income from the endowment than in any former year. And until the endowment of each chair is increased very materially, say $15,000, the Seminary must be embarrassed. The Board ventures to express the hope that this subject will receive the serious consideration of the Assembly.

An examination of the Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and of the General Agent, shows—

Receipts.

1. Balance from last year,			$1,661 78
2. From Scholarships—Dr. Bergen,	$150 00
O. Powers,	150 00
Dr. A. M. Bruen, U. S. Bonds,	246 00

4. Miscellaneous—chiefly per agent, for furnishing, for assistance to students, and deficit to Professors, with contingent expenses,			11,209 26
Total,			$18,038 71

Disbursements.

1. To Professors, including part of arrears,	$6,721 21
2. Balance in full on Seminary building,	1,040 24
3. Appropriated towards support of students from Scholarships and special donations,	699 50
4. Improving ground, furnishing Seminary, miscellaneous and contingent expenses,	7,369 62
5. Insurance on building, furniture and library—one policy for five years,	332 75
6. Balance on hand, to be paid to Professors at once,	1,875 39
Total,	$18,038 71

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1864–5.

L. H. Christian, D. D., is the only member of the Board who has died during the year. Five of our missionaries have ceased from their toils and entered upon their everlasting rest—Rev. D. Motzer in Maryland, C. B. Magill, Iowa, P. Twichell, New York, Thomas J. Taylor, Illinois, and H. H. Humphreys. Exemplary men, and ill spared in this day of increasing labour.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS.

The whole number in the service of the Board, as will be seen in the tables accompanying this report, during the year closing March 1, 1865, is 503, an increase on the year preceding. These have been distributed in twenty-five States and Territories, as follows: Massachusetts 1, New York 36, New Jersey 22, Pennsylvania 80, Delaware 3, Maryland 17, West Virginia 9, Ohio 46, Indiana 34, Illinois 70, Michigan 6, Wisconsin 37, Minnesota 19, Iowa 61, Missouri 19, Kansas 16, Nebraska 5, Colorado 2, Kentucky 6, Tennessee 1, Oregon 3, Washington 1, California 8, Mississippi 1, Louisiana 1.

The number of churches and mission stations in whole or part supplied (so far as reported) by these brethren, is 781. Twenty-two churches are reported as organized, the number admitted to the Church on profession of faith 1549, and on certificate 1092, making a total of 2441.

The entire membership in churches connected with the Board is 21,241.

The Sabbath-schools number 350, with teachers, 2938, and 20,880 scholars.

The number of baptisms reported is 2288.

Many do not report, and our details are therefore incomplete. Our exhibit, therefore, only approximates the truth. How the evil, which the Assembly of last year rebuked, is to be met, we do not know.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The amount promised to the missionaries during the year closing March 1, 1865, has been $78,926.16, an increase of twenty thousand dollars over the year preceding. Gratifying as this may seem, and for which our devout thanks are due to Almighty God, it is manifestly inadequate to the magnitude of the work, and the vastness of the field. The increase of appropriations has been reached not only by the employing of more missionaries, beyond that of the year 1864, but because of the pressing need of those already in the field, occasioned by the high prices of living. There may have been cases in which no increase has been made, but it was because the applying Presbyteries made no request for an advance. The Board were ready to any reasonable amount, and in view of the demands of the whole field, to enlarge the appropriations, knowing how well they are deserved.

THE TREASURY.

Receipts.—The entire amount, during the fiscal year ending March 1864, received from all sources, was $102,365.12, an excess beyond the year preceding of $19,678.83.

Payments.—The amount paid, including the Presbytery of West Jersey, was $116,489.09. The balance we were happy to report to the last Assembly enabled us to pay regularly the salaries of the missionaries as they matured. It is a matter of prime necessity to pay punctually the comparatively small sums we promise the brethren on the mission field. It gives them credit in the eyes of the communities amid whom they live, and adds to the dignity of their office.

In legacies received there has been an increase of $19,449.76, and in miscellaneous and individual donations a decrease of 3533. The most pleasing fact revealed by these statistics is in the increase from the churches; on these must ever be our main reliance. The legacies of the sainted dead, and the offerings of large-hearted individuals, must, of necessity, vary in the ever-changing circumstances of human life.

The interests of the Church, and the future of missions, require her people to be educated in this respect. It is the steadily increasing flow of the streamlets—the pittance of the poor, as well as the more princely offerings of the wealthy—which makes the river of God, which is full of water. It is to be feared multitudes professing Christ realize not their duty in this respect—leave to other and warmer hearts the precious privilege, at once the measure of their piety, and the means of its increase. It will not be, till every church member shall awake to the fact that his connection with the church makes him a life-member of the great mission family, that the advent of the millennium may be hailed.

CLOTHING.

Clothing valued at $16,650.80 has been received and distributed over and above the salaries of the missionaries; this is an increase of $2,661.72 over the preceding year, and the more noteworthy, in the midst of the great demand to aid our patriot soldiers.

OUR WORK.

The number of missionaries has been increased and more land has been occupied. The evolutions of Providence in the marvellous results of the war, show the prospect of a brilliant future. The fields in the older States, to be cultivated, are the seed-plots of the distant West. The States unfolding with unprecedented rapidity, this side of the Mississippi—the States and Territories beyond—the plains full of gold and the wide and populous regions beyond the Rocky Mountains, washed by the loud resounding waves of the Pacific, all present wonderful openings for Christian effort.

The increase in our population—doubling in less than twenty-five years, and spreading over areas so vast and enticing—regions but yesterday known in geography—bid us be solemn and earnest, if we would seize our high reward.

The amazing immigration from the old world, bringing, with muscle and bone and sinew, increasing our national wealth, the seeds of many a pestilential heresy, social and religious, excites our liveliest apprehensions, and enlarges the field of Christian effort. God has a purpose in this, kind we doubt not, and creating no fear, if we do our duty. The coming generations will speak our language and read our Bible. The South in its desolations creates uneasiness—that we have a work to perform there, we doubt not, and by God's grace we will enter upon it when that seething caldron shall cease to boil, and when the quieted feelings of the people shall prepare them to receive the gospel of love and peace. For years the South will be a mission field, and the white and black population require the labour of love.

Expansion is the great law given to the Church by her ascended Lord. This is the glory of her work—her high mission. The Home field has been assigned to this Board. In one hundred and sixty years in this land, we have done something. But how much undone—what fields unbroken—what territories unvisited! Never has the Church been presented with such privileges—the work of reclaiming a continent for Christ. The crisis of fast-fulfilling prophecies—the marvellous providences of an all-wise God, the very character of the war and its results, present a work to sanctified patriotism, which no other people ever saw. Will our Church be true—true to her traditions as a missionary Church, and march in the fore-front of the army, to whom Christ has entrusted the conquest of the land?

We need men—earnest, fervent men. We have not met the requisitions of the last year, and how can we hope to overtake the demands of the future? Unless the Lord of the harvest raise up and thrust forth labourers, as far as our Church is concerned, the harvest will be ungathered. Earthly sacrifices are not counted by earnest hearts who have received the baptism—men of whom, our fathers have told us, counted it an honour to suffer for Christ, when they laid the foundations of our Church in this land. We confess to some alarm about the future. The Church needs instruction—her views are not intelligent—the grandeur of the work is not considered—a new spirit must be given, or a fresh baptism and a new missionary impulse, or we shall be laggard in the march of glory, and yield to others those blessed openings, which so constantly and so imperatively ask for men to come and occupy them. The glory of a Church is its missionary character, which sends forth its sons to occupy and hold in the name of her Redeemer.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1864-5.

PART I.—MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Candidates.—The following table exhibits the operations of the Board of Education in the department of candidates for the ministry:

The number of new candidates received during the year has been		54
The number received from the beginning (in 1819,) . . .		3317
The whole number on the roll during the past year has been . .		254
Of these latter there have been,
In their Theological course, ...	152
" Collegiate "	70
" Academical "	32
	——	254

The number of new candidates this year is not so large as that reported last year.

In the year 1847, the General Assembly directed the Board to expend all moneys committed to them for that purpose in establishing Parochial Schools and Academies; and one year later Colleges were included among the literary institutions to be aided.

Since the inception of this work $106,381.09, have been received and disbursed as follows: Schools, $27,900.35; Academies, $31 255.35; Theological Seminaries, $1,843; Colleges, $36,939.94; and Teachers, $2 217.74.

In addition to these amounts, which have passed directly through our own Treasurer's hands, it is believed that the Board have been instrumental in securing at least one million of dollars for the endowment of Colleges and Academies.

The department of Schools, Academies, and Colleges, is of so kindred a nature to the original object for which the Board was organized, that they have been carried on in entire harmony and efficiency and with little additional expense.

Facts prove, that literary institutions, conducted on Christian principles, have a natural tendency to increase the number of candidates for the gospel ministry.

The operations of this department of the Board, for the past year, will be given more in detail in another part of the Report.

The following general conclusions suggest themselves from this brief historical review.

1st. The organization of the Board of Education was only a more formal recognition, on the part of the Presbyterian Church, of the obligation which rests upon her diligently to employ all scriptural means to train a learned, efficient, and godly ministry; for the acknowledgment of this obligation dates back to the origin of Presbyterianism in this country.

2d. That the work committed to the Board of Education cannot be successfully carried on without the zealous, persistent, and systematic coöperation of the Church, and the diligent use of all appointed means for increasing the number of candidates.

3d. That while earnest and believing prayer is the chief, it is not the only means for the attainment of this object. Our young men as much need instruction, counsel, and encouragement, as to the obligations resting upon them to preach the gospel, as upon any other question of Christian duty.

The want of knowledge prevents many from a calm, prayerful, and intelligent consideration of this momentous question.

In the life of the late Dr. John McDowell, the following statement is made: "That in his efforts to promote the cause of piety and learning, he surpassed any pastor of my acquaintance. I refer to his constantly directing the attention of the pious and promising youth of his Church to the importance of the Christian ministry, and their own obligations in reference to it."

4th. It cannot be denied that the great work of furnishing a numerous and able ministry not only fails to awaken that interest which its paramount importance demands, but that there is a growing apathy in regard to this chief and vital instrumentality, which is all the more painful, in view of the fact that during the last ten years, the increase of our ministry has not kept pace with the increase of the communion of our Church.

5th. It is a suggestive fact that a large portion of the candidates who have been aided by the Board of Education trace their desire to preach the gospel to a mother's influence; teaching us that home nurture is one of the chief channels by which the perpetuation of the ministry is to be secured.

STATE OF THE TREASURY.

The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board during the ecclesiastical year ending May 5, 1865.

I. CANDIDATES' FUND.		II. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.
Receipts, . .	$48,664 95	$2,212 43
Balance 1864, .	11,878 42	4,534 58
	$60,543 37	6,747 01
Payments, .	42,224 84	3,248 45
Balance 1865, .	$18,318 53	3,498 56

III. AFRICAN FUND.
Receipts, . .	$431 31
Balance, 1864, .	923 11
	$1,354 42
Payments, . .	315 07
Balance, 1865, .	$1,039 35

The total receipts of the year from all sources are $51,308.69. Total receipts of the Candidate's Fund are $48,664.95—$5,226.79 more than those of last year, and larger than any year since 1860.

The balance in the treasury, though larger than in former years, is not too large to enable the Board to commence its next year's operations free from embarrassment.

In accordance with the direction of the last General Assembly, the Board of Education have increased the maximum of their scholarships, from eighty to one hundred dollars for Academical Students; from one hundred to one hundred and twenty dollars for College Students; from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty dollars for Theological Students; in addition to which, in a number of cases, to meet special necessities, extra appropriations have been granted for the current year.

During the past year, seven candidates have withdrawn from the care of the Board. Two have died, and from one the recommendation of his Presbytery has been withheld, on the ground of the want of requisite qualifications.

The Board of Education respectfully report to the General Assembly the death during the past year of three of their highly esteemed members, Rev. William W. Phillips, D. D., Rev. Elisha P. Swift, D. D., and Hon. R. R. Reed, M. D.

II. General Education.

The Department of Schools, Academies, and Colleges.

A survey of the field which the Board of Education have had more or less directly under their supervision for the past year, in the Department of General Education, all things considered, is calculated to excite heartfelt gratitude to the God of our fathers, for the substantial successes already achieved, while at the same time it inspires renewed hopes of much cheering progress in the future.

The Board would very respectfully suggest to the Assembly their firm conviction, that if our churches can be aroused to an appreciation of the crisis through which, as a denomination, we are now passing, the year to come and the immediate future will be wondrous rich in healthful results, opening in almost every direction such inviting fields in which to demonstrate the value and practical workings of the Church's plan of parochial education, as have never before been known in this country. Every year makes it more manifest that the weak point in the Assembly's judicious and well conceived scheme of parochial education, is the mournful failure of the great body of our church officers to heed and act upon the explicit and necessary recommendations of all our church courts, viz., to originate schools under ecclesiastical supervision, wherever these can be effectively introduced, and then with concerted generosity enable the Board to cherish them, in every quarter where pecuniary aid may be required, permanently to establish them.

If the opinion is correct, (and the Board incline to think it is,) that a chief agency for the speedy obliteration of the fearful footprints and desolations of rebellion through our land, is to be the revival, multiplication, and fostering of schools, academies, and colleges in every section where havoc and ruin, civil, social and domestic, have had their sway, then it can be no longer doubtful what is the magnitude of the immediate work of the Church in this department of her operations, nor what should be the course of all Christian people in the matter of liberal patronage towards this important cause.

The most reliable information that can be obtained from the Southern States, assures us that nearly all the institutions of learning within their bounds are in a disorganized and abandoned condition. Few, if any, of them are now in operation, and such as have survived the fiery ordeal are probably so much exhausted, and their resources so embarrassed, that the helping hand of Christian aid and sympathy will be necessary and acceptable, and will render effective service to all the interests of Christ's kingdom.

During the fiscal year, appropriations have been granted to twenty-four institutions, viz., thirteen Parochial Schools, seven Academies, and four Colleges, which have an aggregate of two thousand one hundred and forty-three students. These facts, though not all they should be, preclude the necessity of extended argument to commend what has so long been the accepted policy of the Presbyterian Church. Her schools have at all times been the necessary adjuncts of her churches; in them has been her denominational boast, while her glory, the world over, has been her persistent efforts to "train up her children in the way they should go," assured that "when they are old they will not depart therefrom."

1. Parochial Schools.—Dr. Van Rensselaer has said, that "the object of the General Assembly, in recommending the establishment of parochial schools, was to provide for the better religious instruction of the children under the influence of the Presbyterian Church." What better or more efficient agency, then, can be demanded, than the parochial school, with which to aid the pioneer preacher, as he goes forth to reclaim the desolations of our land, and to plant anew the seeds of Christian truth and human liberty.

Much more money is needed, and many more pious and well-trained teachers, both male and female, are daily demanded, to occupy the fields now white to the harvest, and soon, we trust, to be unrestrictedly open to the Christian reaper.

The Parochial School is the peculiar sphere of earnest-minded Christ-loving, self-denying, and unwearied female teachers.

What multitudes of such, eminently qualified, but as yet unemployed, true sisters of mercy, are now, at this very time, in the membership of the Presbyterian Church.

Who will point them to the work for which God has so remarkably fitted them, and thus enlist a new soldier in the thickening struggle?

2. Academies.—In the Academical Department the success of the past year has been of a very gratifying character.

For various reasons the number of these essential elementary, training schools has not greatly increased of late years. But those which have withstood the unparalleled pressure recently undergone by every good thing of an educational kind, now feel themselves to be upon firmer ground, and their often disheartened patrons do take fresh courage in putting forth renewed efforts to place their institutions upon a satisfactory pecuniary basis.

The advancement of the schedule of study, and the more frequent—in some cases annual—visitation of the Holy Spirit upon this grade of our Church institutions, is what the Board would, with much satisfaction, and with unfeigned gratitude to the Head of the Church, bring to the notice of the Assembly.

God has given the Presbyterial Academy favour in the sight of the people, and most of these institutions, where they have had fair opportunities to develope, stand acknowledged to be of a higher order, and more effective, than any which have preceded them, in the districts where they are located. The patrons of sound learning in our newer and more thinly settled regions, begin to discover the fallacy of former years, and to appreciate the lessons so long and persistently inculcated by the Board of Education concerning the absolute necessity, and paramount importance, of thorough academic instruction, as the basis of all subsequent satisfactory intellectual attainment.

The Board, therefore, do not feel that they are needlessly taxing the patience of the Assembly, nor the true friends of scriptural education, when they reiterate the hope that every Presbytery throughout our entire Church, yet destitute of a Presbyterial Academy, will faithfully keep the matter of its organization before them, and at the earliest favourable opportunity execute their most cherished plans.

That observation must be circumscribed, and the faith very small, which limits the beneficial effects flowing directly from rightly conducted Presbyterial Academies to the churches and families that surround them.

3. Colleges.—The Board is gratified in being able to report to the Assembly, that the Colleges under Church supervision, so far as they have been reported, are enjoying an encouraging prosperity and advancing in their means of usefulness.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, the Board of Education feels impelled to renew the representations of former years, both as to the magnitude of their work, and the primal importance of a more general and personal interest on the part of the Ministry and Eldership, in the execution of the judicious and practicable plans, heretofore approved by the Assembly and the inferior Church Courts. As to the department of General Education it is to be borne in mind that, "the general principles of aid adopted by the Board, under the Assembly, has been to apply whatever funds may be at their command, to the support of teachers in Schools, Academies, and Colleges, until the institutions become self-sustaining, either by the increase of income, or in the case of the higher institutions, by the added revenue of a complete endowment."

The Assembly of 1859 authorized a collection in all the churches, at the Annual Concert of Prayer for Colleges, the results of which offering were to be devoted to the educational measures of the Church. This repeated recommendation of the Assembly has been but very partially observed, in either of its essential features. Multitudes of our congregations do not observe the concert of prayer for Colleges on the last Thursday of February, and still greater numbers never pretend to unite almsgiving with their supplications, thus making a consecrated provision for the vast and rapidly expanding work of the department of General Education. Withdraw the offering of a single individual, and the contributions of the entire Church to this fund for 1864, will not amount to $2000.

It appears on the very face of the Assembly's instructions to the Board, that their work in this department was only designed to be supplemental. Hence the Board have always so considered all the appropriations which they have made from the fund for General Education. But, perhaps, because of their more extended and intimate acquaintance with the educational condition of localities and the wants of the different Schools, Academies, and Colleges of our Church, the disposition is somewhat manifested in recent years to hold the Board under obligation for the endowment, as well as for supplementing the salaries of what are technically termed Church institutions. To put such a construction upon the functions of the Board, will be to add another and altogether different feature to their present policy, requiring a very different line of operations from that heretofore pursued.

Experience has shown, that in the efforts to establish Church colleges, much embarrassment and great sacrifices of the energies and resources of the Church have resulted, from the fact that no provision has yet been made to secure concert of action and mutual adjustment of arrangements and plans throughout the whole field. The result is, that each Presbytery and Synod is left to make such provision as may be in its power, or seem to it demanded by the exigencies of its own district. In consequence, enterprises are initiated, which having no proper adjustment to the general condition of the field, operate injuriously upon each other, fail to secure the confidence of the churches, linger for a season, and then fail, to the great injury of the cause of education and detriment of our Church. The deficiency of our system in this respect leaves the subject in a position greatly to straiten the liberality of our people.

Whether some plan cannot be devised to secure a more judicious and concerted action in the location and endowment of such institutions, is respectfully submitted to the wisdom of the Assembly.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT, MAY 1, 1865.

During the last year the Executive Committee have been called to mourn over the removal by death of beloved fellow-labourers, and they have never before had to contend with such great pecuniary discouragement, for several months; but they are permitted to close the year with thanksgiving for the goodness of God towards the work of their hands. The list of departed friends includes two members of their own number, Drs. Potts and Phillips—the latter for twenty-eight years Chairman of the Committee; and Dr. Swift, the first Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society, which afterwards became the Board of Foreign Missions; two missionary brethren in India, Dr. Janvier and Mr. Lœwenthal, both taken from this life by the hand of violence; one in Liberia, Mr. Miller; and two missionary ladies—Mrs. Simonton in Brazil, and Mrs. Owen in India. These all died in faith, counting it their happiness to have been connected officially with the cause of missions; and they have departed to be with Christ, which is far better.

State of the Treasury.—The great rise in the rate of foreign exchange during the last summer, created serious fears of disaster to the missions. An appeal was made on the subject to the churches in September, which was nobly responded to by many of them, and by many private donors. The rate of exchange declined in the later months of the year, and at the end the Committee are thankful indeed to report the mission treasury as free from debt. There remains, however, a heavy liability for extra exchange on bills sent out but not yet matured. The entire income was larger than in any preceding year, the receipts being $271,621 72; the expenditures were $268,442 57.

New Missionaries.—Sixteen missionaries and assistant missionaries were sent out, of whom three are ministers of the gospel. Besides these, five returned to their fields of labour, three of whom are ministers. The list of native assistants includes two Chinese brethren who received ordination during the year, and the number of native labourers has received an increase of twenty-nine.

The Work of Missions appears to be marked by the blessing of God, in greater or less degree, in all the countries where it is carried on. Among several Indian tribes, the Chinese in California, and the Jews of our chief city; in New Granada and Brazil; in Liberia, and on the coast of Africa, near the equator; in Japan, China, Siam, and India; and in some of the Roman Catholic countries of Europe, by funds remitted to Protestant brethren for missionary purposes, our Church is endeavouring to fulfil the Saviour's last commandment. The missionary labourers are three hundred and eleven in number, including the wives of the missionaries from this country. Sixty-seven of these labourers are ministers of the gospel; seven are physicians; one hundred and fifty-two are natives of the countries in which the missions are established. Their work is that of preaching the gospel, teaching the young, healing the sick, translating the Scriptures and preparing other Christian books, which are largely printed and circulated. Over thirty churches are reported in different countries, having upwards of a thousand communicants, of whom a goodly number were received last year. The schools of the missions contain over 5,800 scholars, nearly 800 of them girls; of the scholars, 445 are in boarding-schools; and special attention is given to the work of training up native missionary labourers, to whose hands the work of giving the gospel to their own people must eventually be transferred. Further details need not be given in this abstract. It is believed that the Annual Report will be found to contain pleasing evidence that good progress has been made in the general work of evangelization.

Enlarged Efforts Needed.—This work never called for greater efforts than it does now. Many of the missions need more men and larger pecuniary means for the work at their doors; and new stations wait for missionaries in the midst of people who have not yet heard the gospel preached. "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1865.

The sales have been considerably larger than during the preceding year. Receipts for colportage and distribution are in advance of those of any preceding year. Our books and tracts have been scattered far and wide by various channels, in larger numbers than ever, and among classes of our population where they promise to be productive of abundant good. An increasing disposition has been manifested by our pastors and churches to co-operate cordially with the Board in its labours of love. And, above all, the witness of the Holy Spirit has in a most pleasing measure been given, in the converting, sanctifying, and edifying power which has attended the Board's publications. The Board desires to express its profound gratitude to the great Head of the Church, while it humbly implores his continued favour and help for time to come.

The Board has issued during the year,

46 new books, of which have been printed	86,250 copies.

Sabbath-School Books.

In obedience to the frequently expressed will of the General Assembly, as well as in accordance with what the Board believes to be a pressing want of the Church at large, it has continued to add to its Sabbath-school library as fast as it could judiciously do so. During the year 33 new volumes have been added to the Board's Sabbath-school library, making the whole number of volumes now contained therein three hundred and eighty.

The Sabbath-School Visitor continues to be widely a favourite in our Sabbath-schools. The number of copies published last year, as stated in the last Annual Report, was 52,000 per month. Since that time its circulation has steadily increased, and has now reached 62,000 thousand. The aggregate number of copies circulated during the year has been 662,000. This increase of subscriptions is in some degree attributable to a change in the terms upon which the paper is furnished, by which the smaller schools are enabled to procure it upon terms as advantageous as the larger ones.

The Home and Foreign Record. The circulation of the Record on the first of March, 1865, was 11,000 copies, being an increase of 250 copies during the year.

II. Department of Distribution.

1. Sales in the Depository.—The sales in the Depository during the year have been 193,622 volumes, an increase of 13,751 over the volumes sold the preceding year. Of tracts, 381,740 pages have been sold in the Depository.

The net value of these sales is $41,656,06, being an increase of $3,798,32 on those of the year before.

These figures do not comprehend the sales by colporteurs, which may be found further on in this Report.

Books have been sent to the libraries of our Theological seminaries by order of the General Assembly, and to authors and editors, to the value of $1312.78.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—The amount contributed to the Distribution Fund during the year has been $6,620.40, and the value of the books and tracts distributed from it, $4,051.01, as follows:

1.	To mission and other needy Sabbath schools,	5,882 volumes.
2.	" Ships and naval and military stations, hospitals, soldiers, and prisoners,	14,022 "
3.	" Humane institutions,	2,768 "
4.	" Ministers,	223 "
5.	" Feeble churches and literary institutions,	650 "
6.	" Individuals, for gratuitous distribution,	1,143 "
	Total of volumes granted	24,688
	Pages of tracts granted,	382,653

The dependence of this Fund for supplies is not upon church collections, which it very rarely receives, but upon the offerings of benevolent individuals.

3. Distributions by Colportage.—The number of colporteurs in the service of the Board during the past year has been 126. Of these some have been voluntary or unpaid colporteurs, who, while acting as chaplains, army officers, hospital nurses, or in other capacities, have proffered their aid in distributing the books and tracts of the Board to those within their reach. Great good has been accomplished by such persons in this way.

The reports received from colporteurs show that they have performed 7383 days of labour. They have sold 53,706 volumes, and distributed gratuitously 84,989 volumes and 2,669,713 pages of tracts, valued in the aggregate at $34,787.64, and have visited 311,241 persons, with a large majority of whom they have had prayer and conversation in reference to their eternal interests. Large numbers of soldiers, sailors, freedmen, and others, have been reached, without having been comprehended in these figures.

The Prisoners.—It was found, at an early period in the war, that no class was more eager to receive religious reading than the prisoners in the hands of our government. During the past year, the Board has steadily continued to furnish such books and tracts as seemed suitable for their instruction in the way of salvation. Supplies have been sent to Point Lookout, Maryland; to Fort Delaware, Delaware; to Johnson's Island, Ohio; to Rock Island, Illinois, and other military prisons. To several of these places colporteurs were sent, for the special purpose of making distributions among the prisoners. We believe that, at the lowest estimate, thirty thousand prisoners have received books or tracts from the hands of the Board.

The net value of the issues of the year has been,

This is an increase of $12,537.83 over the issues of the preceding year.

This total comprehends credit sales and donations.

The catalogue value of this total would be $108,179.58. The difference is made up of discounts allowed to clergymen, theological students, booksellers, and synodical depositories.

In order to increase their interest in the Board's publications, and diffuse a more accurate knowledge of their value and variety, the Board has just published, at considerable cost, a carefully prepared Descriptive Catalogue of all its publications, making a good sized 12mo. volume, which will be sent by mail to any one desiring to have a copy.

III. Department of Sustentation.

The receipts of the Treasury from all sources during the year, exclusive of the balance on hand at its beginning, have been $125,034.07, an increase of $27,136.93.

The aggregate expenditures of the year have been $110,734.13; an increase of $4,111.82 upon those of the previous year.

The amount of cash received from the sales of books, tracts, and periodicals, has been $83,889.30, an increase upon the receipts of the previous year from this source of $20,802.81.

The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year was $21,482.47.

The Colportage Fund.—The receipts for Colportage have been $33,815.93, an increase of $5,307.66 over those of the year before, and by about the same amount, larger than ever received in any single year.

The number of contributing churches has been 761, an increase of 58 over those contributing the year before.

The expenditures for Colportage have been $25,789.93, leaving a balance in the Colportage Fund, March 1, 1865, of $13,510.27.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

President—Rev. S. A. Muchmore.
Corresponding Secretary—Rev. H. I. Coe.
Treasurer—David Keith, Esq., St. Louis, Missouri.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

On the twentieth day of March, 1865, Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D., of New York, a member of the Board from its organization, and one of its most valued friends, entered into his rest. While the removal of this strong staff, in which perhaps we trusted too much, reminds us to cease from man, the year whose record we now present to the Assembly has abounded in manifest tokens of the goodness of our ever-living Head to the Church Extension enterprise. He has increased the receipts of the Board fifty-six per cent., its payments nearly eighty per cent., and its appropriations more than one hundred and twenty-two per cent. over those of the preceding year. Especially do we deem it a marvellous fact, worthy of grateful mention, that during the fourth year of a civil war of unparalleled magnitude, the income of the Board, from a divided Church, has been larger and from a greater number of congregations than during any preceding year of its existence.

Applications.—From April 1, 1864, to April 1, 1865, seventy-two churches applied for aid. These churches were in the bounds of twenty-one Synods, fifty Presbyteries, and seventeen States and Territories. They ask for aid amounting in the aggregate to $42,272.44, averaging $587.12 to each church.

Adding to these the applications on file, and undisposed of April 1, 1864, we find that the Board, during the year under review, had before it one hundred and fourteen applications, calling for $64,382.

During the year, fifteen applications, asking for $3,700, were stricken from the file, because they had not furnished the requisite information in the two years allowed for that purpose.

There remained on file and undisposed of April 1, 1865, applications from thirty-six churches, amounting to $35,389.

Appropriations.—During the year, appropriations were made to sixty-two churches, in the bounds of seventeen Synods, forty-two Presbyteries, and eighteen States and Territories. The amount granted to these churches was $24,127.26—averaging $381.08 to each. If the special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility, be left out of view, the average to each church would be $398.44.

Appropriations, amounting to $2,662.50, were, during the year, withdrawn from eleven churches which had not called for them in the two years to which they were limited.

From April 1, 1864, to April 1, 1865, fifty-three churches drew their appropriations, amounting to $17,694.26.

Cost of Church Edifices.—In the ten years of the existence of the Board, appropriations have been made to five hundred and sixty-six different churches. Eighty of these were aided by special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility. As nearly as we can ascertain, the remaining four hundred and eighty-six churches cost $976,577, or an average of $2,009.42 each.

The average cost of the churches aided by the Board during the year was $2,596.93. This is an advance of $342.54, or fifteen per cent. over the reported cost of the churches aided during the previous year.

In the last three years the average cost of churches has risen one hundred and thirty per cent., while, so far as we can judge, the size and style of building have not changed. The appropriations of the Board, during the same time, have advanced one-hundred and thirty-one per cent.

Receipts and Expenditures.—The balance, appropriated and unappropriated, on hand April 1, 1864, was $33,051.26.

The receipts from all sources, during the year, were $38,796.98; of which sum $21,927.20 was from seven hundred and fifty-one churches. The available means, therefore, of the year were $71,848.24.

The expenditures of the year, according to the Treasurer's statement in the Appendix, were $20,326.42. The balance in the Treasury, April 1, 1865, was, consequently, $51,521.82. There were, however, unpaid at that time, liabilities amounting to $27,473.17, leaving as the unpledged balance, at the close of the fiscal year, $24,048.65. Concerning this unexpectedly large balance, we think it proper to say—

1st. There are on file, awaiting the receipt of the necessary information, applications amounting to $35,389, or $11,340.35 more than this balance.

2d. An appropriation was made to every church that, during the year, furnished the necessary papers, and came within the limits prescribed by the Assembly to the Board. In but two instances did the amount granted fall short of the sum asked by the Presbyteries, and the liberal appropriations made in those cases enabled them to complete their sanctuaries free from debt.

3d. The appropriations have risen more rapidly than the cost of building. Last year the cost of building advanced fifteen per cent., while the appropriation rose more than thirty per cent.

4th. While the applications before the Board, during the year, amounted to $64,382, those perfected so that aid could be granted amounted to only $24,877 26, which is but $750 more than the appropriations. The extreme cost of labour and materials; the uncertainties of perilous times, and the absence of many efficient members serving their country in the army, have combined to check church building, of late, to a remarkable degree. With the dawn of brighter days, and the removal of these difficulties, now apparently near at hand, we may reasonably expect the erection of an unusual number of churches, and the speedy consumption of this temporary balance, so exceptional in our history.

The Past.—The present closes ten years of Church Extension work through this Board. In that time its receipts have been $252,366.89, and formal appropriations amounting to $203,316.27 have been made to five hundred and sixty-six different churches—being an average of $359 22 to each church. While we cannot give exact figures, we think it safe, from the many facts in our possession, to say that these appropriations have aided in securing church property to the value of one and a half million of dollars, and in providing church accommodation for more than one hundred thousand worshippers.

It may not be improper to add that the gifts of a very few friends for that special purpose, and the interest of the funds while on hand awaiting proper disbursement, have met all the expenses of the Board from the beginning.

For nearly eleven years prior to the organization of the present Board, the General Assembly conducted the work of Church Extension through a Committee of the Board of Domestic Missions, and in that time made appropriations to three hundred and eighty-two churches, and received donations amounting to $68,544.06.

It appears, therefore, that since 1844 our Church, through her organized agencies, has aided in the erection of nine hundred and forty-eight different churches, and has raised $320,910.93 for that purpose.

It may also be observed that the Board, in a somewhat less period, has aided one hundred and eighty-four more churches, and received $183,822.81 more than the previously existing Committee.

It is a noteworthy fact, illustrating alike the vital necessity of the Church Extension work, and the perilous times through which we are passing, that the number of churches organized in our communion in 1862, 1863, and 1864 (the three years of the war, whose statistics are known,) has not only diminished immensely, as compared with preceding years, but has even fallen behind the number of appropriations made by the Board during the same period. In these three years but one hundred and three churches appear to have been organized; while the Board, during the same time, made grants to one hundred and thirty-seven different churches. The preceding three years witnessed the organization of three hundred and forty-nine churches—an average of one hundred and sixteen churches per annum; and appropriations by the Board to two hundred and thirty-nine congregations—being an average of seventy-nine churches a year. Comparing these successive periods of peace and war, we find that in the latter the number of churches organized has diminished more than seventy per cent., while the number of appropriations has decreased less than forty per cent. We also find that the Board has actually aided thirty-four churches more than the number reported as organized in that time.

The Future.—The past may well encourage us for the future. Far as the Church has come short of her duty, the work already done may well increase her faith in God, and gird her for greater efforts in the eventful era before her. The work to be done is great. At least four hundred churches in her communion are houseless. Three hundred more are dwarfed by insufficient sanctuaries, or oppressed with debt. To these accumulations of the past must be added an annual growth that may soon reach again one hundred churches a year. If we remember that nearly all of these will need aid, and are duly impressed with the blessings of the sanctuary, and the losses entailed by its absence, we shall realize that yet larger gifts must flow from the people of God, or our duty in this department remain unfulfilled.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF ITS TRUSTEES ON THE FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS IN NEED, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

During the year ending April 30, 1865, the Trustees have disbursed from the fund for disabled ministers, widows and orphans of deceased ministers, seventeen thousand five hundred and thirty dollars. This exceeds the amount expended in any former year, by four thousand three hundred and seventy dollars. In conformity with the recommendation of the last Assembly, they have increased their appropriation to the recipients, the number of whom has been greater than that of any preceding year by seventeen. Of these, fifty-eight are widows, forty-three ministers, and four are families of orphans. Five have died. Most of the ministers have wives, and the widows, with but few exceptions, have children, so that it is computed that the whole number assisted from the fund during the year, is little short of four hundred persons.

The age of the ministers aided, is near the average of seventy years. Among them are two cases of palsy, two of consumption, one of epilepsy, four of mental decay. The mind and general health of these aged men are so much impaired, that they require the watch and supervision given to young children. Two of them are no longer able to recognize their own relatives, or call them by name.

The least helpless of the four, is now in his seventy-first year. A letter of the Presbytery commending his case to the Committee, says that "he is absolutely penniless, and without a single person on whom he possesses a natural claim for support. His wife, many years his senior, is dead. His only child, a son, lost his life in the Mexican war. He enjoys the confidence and affection of his brethren as a good man, but is utterly useless in the ministry. His memory has failed deplorably, and he gives constant evidence of a disposition to sink into a vague despondency and practically impotent aberration. The present appearance is that he will not live to burden the Church a long time, and the alternatives with respect to his future are only three: begging, the poor-house, or the assistance of the Church." The letter requests that the money asked for him, be sent to another member of the Presbytery, to be expended as his circumstances may suggest.

The Trustees would not appear as attempting to stir up a factitious sympathy in behalf of suffering ministers, by the recital of a few extreme cases, nor is there occasion for any artifice of this sort. So numerous are the examples of severe privation among elderly ministers, so much discarded in these fastidious times by the public distaste, that anxiety and want are fast becoming their normal condition. To embody in this Report half the letters of this afflicted class, would make it too long. Room can be afforded to only a few to whom the opportunity is due for relating their own experience.

Several months ago an appropriation was asked by a Presbytery in behalf of one of their members, disabled by repeated attacks of disease, beginning with a stroke of the palsy. On a partial recovery of his strength, he felt deeply the necessity of trying to do something to support a wife and four children, for whom he foresaw nothing but want and distress. He became so restless and unhappy in his confinement, that he determined to risk the experiment of resuming his labours.

Against the advice of both physicians and friends he left home, went into another State, and undertook the charge of a congregation and of a school. The trial of a few months brought his labours to a sudden close. His eyesight so far failed, that he was obliged to return to his family, where he has remained ever since in a state of almost total blindness. The letter adds, that he has been a most efficient minister, self-sacrificing and zealous, having devoted himself wholly to the service of his Master, but that he is now utterly disabled, has no property, and unless the church, for whom he has so long laboured, supports him, he must suffer. An appropriation made him, was acknowledged to the Trustees in the following letter, written by the hand of another.

"With heartfelt gratitude, I acknowledge the receipt of your most timely and generous remittance. Before I had any intimation of receiving this aid, I looked with deep, fearful, and chilling anxiety to the future. Smitten with almost total blindness, with a broken-down body shattered by paralysis, I felt cut off from every avenue of support in this world. But it has rebuked me, and exhorted me to trust in a covenant-keeping God—the God of my fathers. It has taught me that the Great Shepherd of Israel is faithful to his promises, and that he watches over his under-shepherds as he did over Elijah of old. I feel constrained to say with the Psalmist, 'Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.' I wish I could so use my pen as to clear up the gloomy prospects before the minds of the young in the ministry, to assure them that they need not look for starvation and wretchedness for themselves and for their families, when they have become old and infirm in the ministry. God will care for his chosen prophets in the time of decrepitude, and not suffer the righteous to be forsaken, nor his seed to beg their bread."

An appropriation was asked by another Presbytery for a minister with a wife and seven children, only three of whom are old enough to support themselves, but not able to do much for the parents. Though a man of more than ordinary talents and culture, he has preached for several years to a small congregation, deriving more than half his support from a school taught by an accomplished wife. Within the past two years his health has so far failed that he has ceased to preach, and is evidently losing the powers of his mind. Both husband and wife have had a high social position, but it has availed them nothing in the present extremity. They have been saved from severe domestic want only by the interposition of the Assembly's fund.

The widow of a missionary, now past the age of seventy, writes to remind the Trustees of her expected appropriation, giving directions how to send it. She says: "I have not a pound of flour in the house, and am in debt for all I have eaten for three months. If I could do anything for a living, I would cheerfully do it; but my health is so shattered that I dare not attempt it. I am subject to spasms, from nervous agitation, which sometimes keep me in the hands of the doctors for three or four days. They ascribe it to an overtaxing of my system, too feeble, in my advanced life, to endure much excitement, either bodily or mental. But my faith is unwavering in my Saviour, who is near. He is all-sufficient, and will sustain those who put their trust in him."

The last appropriation of the year was made to the surviving family of a missionary in Arkansas, consisting of nine members, all of whom are females but one, a youth of sixteen, made a cripple three years ago by the fall of a tree. Four of this household are under ten years of age, and one of the adults is a confirmed invalid. The application on their behalf was made without consulting them, it being made known to the Presbytery that they had suffered greatly by sickness, as well as by the condition of the country; that they had a scanty supply of provisions for about two months—after which time they knew not what to do, nor where to look for more.

The letters of gratitude received by the Trustees are many and affecting. They furnish a valid answer to every objection which has been urged to this fund, whether it be the mode of raising or of dispensing it.

In the month of February the Treasurer received from a superannuated minister his annual subscription, for a few years past, of ten dollars and fifty cents. "I am about to resign my present charge," he says, "and there is no probability that I shall ever have another. Without the means of living for six months, you cannot imagine how discouraged and sad I feel. I have served four different churches over forty years, for about three hundred and forty dollars per annum, besides spending some hundreds of my own, just to live. But now, an old man, burdened with years and bodily infirmities, I must cease to labour. All the property I own is an old house worth but a little; and what would become of me, but for the Ministers' Fund? My own self-interest in it, if nothing else, would lead me to pray for its success."

Another retired minister, one of the oldest in our Church, living in a very distant missionary field, says: "Your appropriations have not only rescued me from much suffering, but have relieved my mind from a mountain of painful anxiety about the future. What can be more in accordance with the spirit of Christ and of his gospel, than this late institution of our Church? May the Lord prosper and abundantly bless all who take interest in its welfare."

Another writes the Trustees: "Your letter, announcing the sum of one hundred dollars, to relieve myself and family, is indeed like a hill of frankincense to our drooping spirits. The donation is the more acceptable, because unexpected, and its value is much enhanced by the manner in which it has been conferred. God grant that a willing people may always empower you to help the aged and infirm."

From the fifty-eight widows aided by the fund, letters have been received, in which they have poured out the unrestrained emotions of their joyous and thankful hearts; and it is a noteworthy characteristic of their letters, that they so generally connect the benefit with the answer of prayer. "I do think," writes one of these ladies, "that the prayers of my husband on my behalf are being heard. I cannot attribute the kindness I receive to any goodness in myself. I have not exercised as much of a childlike faith as I ought; and when I think of what is done for me, I resolve never again to doubt God's willingness to provide for his children."

The Assembly will be glad to hear of the increasing number of contributing churches, as well as of the gradual enlargement of the permanent fund. Soon after the addresses of several speakers in the last General Assembly, on the subject of a fund, were published, an earnest friend of the cause, and a generous annual contributor, who read them, proposed to be one of a hundred persons to give five hundred dollars to form the nucleus for such a fund. Up to the present, the list of subscribers by this plan is smaller than had been anticipated, and increases very slowly. It is to be regretted that among the many liberal bequests to various objects of Christian philanthropy, no more have been made to this.

Within a few weeks, two gentlemen have promised each to be one of a hundred, to subscribe one thousand dollars for the establishing of a permanent fund. The proposition has been made so recently, that it has become known to comparatively few. We have reason to hope that it will be received with favour. The Trustees have reliable information that several bequests to a considerable amount have been made to such a fund, but the number and amount of these legacies will not be known until the death of the testators.

In view therefore of the strong probability that the money put at their disposal for this and other objects, will much exceed the amount which they could hold by their original charter, it was thought advisable to have its capacity enlarged. Under the charter of 1799, the annual income of the corporation was limited to ten thousand dollars. The income of the trust properties now held, almost reaches that limit. At the last meeting of the Legislature of this State, on application of the Trustees, an act was passed by which the Corporation can now hold property whose annual income does not exceed fifty thousand dollars. The way is therefore open for them to receive for permanent investment the large donations and bequests which the Assembly have so often solicited in their Annual Reports. It is not foreseen nor is it believed that this permanent fund when obtained, will soon, if ever, supersede the necessity for annual collections. It is not improbable that the increased numbers of recipients will ultimately require all the money which may be derived from both sources. The present provision of the Assembly contemplates the case only of such ministers as are disabled by some physical cause. And yet such is the condition of a large and increasing class of elderly ministers without employment, though not too old nor infirm to labour, that it calls earnestly for the interposition of the Assembly to provide for them some remunerative occupation, or to furnish the means of saving them from want.

In 1837, the Board of Publication, at the expense of Mr. James Lenox of New York, issued a pamphlet of the late Dr. Chalmers on the subject of ministerial support. In this paper it is assumed as an axiom of common justice, as well as of religion, that the Church is as much bound to provide for her servants as the state is for hers. And although the work contemplates the condition of the Presbyterian Churches in Scotland, which, in many respects is different from our own,—yet it discusses, with the characteristic ability of its author, a subject of much importance to us. It proposes a plan for the removal of a great and growing evil which is common to the Churches in both countries, and which is every year calling more loudly for redress. The Trustees do not propose to enlarge upon this topic, though closely akin to the subject of their Report. This allusion is made in passing, with a view to the suggestion that the present plan of providing for the disabled, needs no material modification in order to meet the case of every minister requiring temporary or permanent relief. Let the many non contributing churches all co-operate, and others add a little to their annual gifts, and the amount furnished would be abundant. The Trustees have noticed what they had early anticipated, that the Fund for disabled ministers is becoming a special handmaid to the cause of Domestic Missions. Its connection is so essential as a supplement, that it is not easily explained why such a provision should have been delayed so long. Not a small proportion of the ministers on our list of recipients are worn-out missionaries. They continued in the service of the Board as long, and sometimes longer than they were able to sustain their great labours with satisfaction to themselves. In many instances they have solicited their own discharge with no other wealth than the answer of a good conscience and the promise of God that their bread shall be given them and their water shall be sure. The only channel through which many are now receiving the fulfilment of this Divine pledge, is the Assembly's fund for the disabled.

A district missionary employed by the Board to superintend the work and provide ministers for a remote region in the west, when on his way to one of our Theological Seminaries, called to confer with the Committee on the fund for Disabled Ministers. "I wish to obtain several young men," he says, "for a great field, to whom I can make no promise, but an opportunity for abundant labours, great usefulness, manifold trials, and a rich reward in heaven, but plenty of self-denial and poverty here." "I come," he adds, "to know whether you can promise to aid them if they need it when disabled by premature disease or old age. It will help me much in my application to these young brethren to be able to carry from you a favourable answer to my inquiry. I do not wonder," he says "that so many of them shrink from the prospect of a missionary life, without some such guaranty against the contingencies of helplessness and poverty, which the fund at your disposal can furnish."

Not long ago, a letter was received from a missionary in Wisconsin, conveying the dying thoughts of a co-labourer in that region, and which are only a fair exposition of the anxieties of many. "I am now," says the writer, "beside the sick-bed of a brother missionary, who will in all probability within a few days be taken to his reward in heaven. There is but one subject that gives him anxiety at this time, and that is the care of his family when he is gone. He will leave a wife and one child almost without any means of support. His mind turns to you, and the noble department of which you are the Secretary, and asks will you help his widow and orphan when he is gone? Our brother has been faithful in the ministry, although his time has been short. For about two years he laboured with great earnestness and self-denial as a missionary in Indiana. For the past year or more, he has preached in this place with great acceptance. His people are devotedly attached to him, and his prospects for future usefulness were most flattering, when the hand of that fell destroyer, consumption, cut short his labours. It will be but a few days, or at most a few weeks, till his work will have ended, and he have entered into rest. Now if you could assure him that you will do all you can for his family when application is made to you in the proper form, it would be a source of great comfort to him. Will you write me on the subject as soon as possible, and mention what amount could be given in such a case?"

This letter was written on February 2d, 1865, and was answered on the day it was received. On the 3d of March another letter from the same writer announced the death of this friend, which occurred two or three days after the reply of the Committee was written, and before it reached the desolate home of the new-made widow.

"Our lamented brother died," says his friend, "the next Monday after I wrote you. The only means his wife has left her, is their household furniture and his small library. She is prudent, modest, and would rather suffer than make her wants known. But she is young and intends to prepare herself to teach, so that she will not be dependent on others long," and then adds: "It is truly comforting to us who are enduring the hardships of frontier life, seeking to build up the Master's Kingdom, to have the assurance, that should we be called away, our dear ones left behind will be cared for. Since I got your letter, I feel that I can labour with a lighter heart. May God bless you in your work of love."

It was with much pleasure that the Committee expressed their belief that such a pledge as this brother asked, might be given.

Our confidence not only in the piety of the Church, but in the promises of God, would be shaken if we could for a moment doubt that every such servant of Christ will be provided for. We are doing it now in the case of all for whom their respective Presbyteries apply. The contributions of the Church, we believe, will enlarge with the increasing number of worn-out and disabled missionaries and other ministers, with the widows and orphans of the departed. We consider this last agency of our Church not initiated only, but established. The churches see and feel its utility, and are determined to sustain it generously to the end. It is connected with the Boards of the Church by a chain that is manifestly imperfect without this link. Should the annual contributions fail to supply sufficient means for current wants, the interest of the prospective permanent fund will be an important auxiliary in furnishing all that may be required for any probable demand in the future, however great.

The Trustees are more confirmed every year in the opinion expressed in prior Reports in favour of this mixed plan, which originated with the Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1849.

It unites the views of both classes of friends, those who favour collections most, and others who doubt the perpetuity of any supply which is not drawn from a fund. Neither object to the plan of annual collections, but the latter desire greatly to see the Church stimulated to more earnest efforts in behalf of the fund.

The Trustees do not think that there is occasion for the Assembly to reopen and agitate the question of a permanent fund, either to commend or give authority for raising it. Both of these have been done repeatedly in their annual published Resolutions for the last sixteen years. By the third on the list of those passed in 1849, any minister or layman is at liberty to solicit donations and bequests for the fund. He need not wait for a special commission from Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly. Their recommendation that "large donations and bequests be solicited to constitute a fund," is authority enough. The Assembly wisely declined the appointment of a number of paid agents to carry their resolutions into effect. They properly left it to the zeal of the many friends of the cause, some of whom it was presumed would employ their leisure and influence in the prosecution of a voluntary agency in its behalf, and that in this way the fund would be originated and increased gradually to adequate dimensions.

The Trustees are not without hope that this will be done, as they have shown by their application to the Legislature for the modification of their Charter. Let the special friends of a fund, then, bestir themselves by remembering it in the making of their own wills, as well as by securing an interest in the wills of others. Let others volunteer their agency in soliciting large donations, especially of those who, with the means and heart to do liberal things, are waiting only for an inviting opportunity.

The paramount excellence of this method, moreover, has been demonstrated not only by the experience of sixteen years, but by the concurrent testimony of sister denominations.

At the meeting of the other branch of the Presbyterian Church in May last, at Dayton, Ohio, our plan was adopted without change in one important feature. In the Report of an Association of Congregationalists in New England, our method is quoted largely and with approbation. It is substantially that of the Episcopalians, Moravians, and Methodists, and though not yet introduced into the Reformed Dutch, and several smaller Presbyterian bodies, prominent members in these Churches have inquired into its operation—have cordially approved, and hope to have it introduced among themselves.

The objection which was early urged by a few, that it would increase the annoyance of congregations by adding to the number of their collections, has been practically confuted by the experiment. The Trustees have evidence of the very limited influence of this objection, not only in the letters which they receive, but in the fact that collections for this object are increasing continually in number and in amount, and none are made with more cheerfulness.

Another objection urged by a few, is based on a mistake of the character of the fund, as if it were a charity, and placed the recipients in the position of beneficiaries. An erroneous view of this subject, which was disavowed by a unanimous vote of the last Assembly, to expunge the term beneficiary, in one of the resolutions reported by a Committee on this subject, but which was unhappily retained by the oversight of a transcriber.

It has been the repeated declaration of the Trustees in their annual Reports to the Assembly, that, like the pensions of retired officers, military or naval, of the state, the appropriations from this fund are a debt, not a charity.

The Church owes it to the receiver as his claim, and not as a favour. That any brother disabled by disease or age, should shrink from asking the relief he needs, would evince that he utterly misapprehended the nature of this bounty, as well as his own legitimate title to a suitable portion. And as it regards the great majority who ask assistance, the Trustees know that they feel nothing of this wounded sensibility and gratuitous mortification. The numerous letters from them are redolent with thankfulness to God and to their brethren, that this admirable provision has been made, and that they can avail themselves of it on the easy and cheap condition of making their wants known. Nor is it to them a mortification, but a pleasure, to know that they have the sympathy and confidence of their brethren, as is manifested by the application for their relief.

One of the few opposers to this part of the Assembly's plan died not long ago, leaving his widow entirely without property. At the request of this excellent lady, the Presbytery applied for assistance from the fund, and her condition is made comfortable by the very provision which her husband regarded with so little favour.

Doubtless there are some of the most deserving of our suffering brethren who recoil from any reference to their personal necessities,—who are constitutionally retiring, modest, and perhaps morbid. No organization in which they are involved can provide against the irritation of minds so sensitive and delicate.

With a view to meet as far as practicable cases of this sort, it is the custom of some Presbyteries, and might be of all, to have a standing committee on this subject, who are specially charged to search out any within their bounds that need relief, and ask of the Trustees without the knowledge of those in whose behalf they apply. The Assembly need not be assured that the Trustees understand the nature of this service, and have endeavoured from the first, to discharge it with the utmost delicacy as well as faithfulness. But these, as well as other objections, the Assembly will remember were all before the large and intelligent committee, of which Judge Leavitt was chairman, appointed at their meeting, 1856.

The subject was committed to these gentlemen to be investigated during the year, and report to the succeeding Assembly at their meeting in 1857.

Other plans that had been proposed at prior Assemblies for the r lief of their disabled brethren, (with the alleged objections to this,) were carefully considered and unanimously rejected.

The original plan of 1849 was again recommended to the Assembly with increased confidence in its paramount excellence to every other.

The Trustees therefore, would greatly deprecate any change in a plan which has succeeded so well as the present, which has been sustained by the accumulating evidence in its favour of more than sixteen years among ourselves, and which is recommended by the approval of so many sister denominations.

Could the Assembly sanction an experiment of something new, without hazarding the disastrous result recorded in the epitaph of the empiric, who lost his life from having sacrificed his excellent health by tampering with drugs to improve it,—I was well—would be better—and here I am!

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCE.

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence would report that there appears to have been a gratifying increase in the amount of contributions to the various Boards of our Church. Apprehensions, which were seriously entertained of retrenchment or debt, have not been realized. That such a result has been secured at a time when the resources of the country have been taxed to support its government, is a matter of great thankfulness. It shows that the Church is abundantly able, even in times of greatest depression, to sustain, and carry forward all its institutions, and that all that is needed, now that the immediate demands and presence of war is over, for her greatly to enlarge her work, is a spirit of liberality upon the part of her membership.

Notwithstanding repeated injunctions on the part of former Assemblies, it is to be feared that the great mass of our communion do not fully understand their obligations in reference to the work of systematic benevolence. Of our twenty-six hundred churches, only fifteen hundred, or a little over one-half, contribute to our Board of Foreign Missions, twelve hundred and seventy, or less than one-half, to our Board of Domestic Missions, seven hundred and eighty, or less than one-third, to our Board of Education, and seven hundred and fifty, a still lower proportion, to the Boards of Publication and Church Extension, and only six hundred and ninety to the fund for disabled ministers. Here we have the fact that one-half of our churches are doing little or nothing in the great work of Christian benevolence, and that in two-thirds of our churches the claims of three of our Boards are either never presented or fail in obtaining any response.

Take another fact: our churches, numbering two hundred and thirty thousand communicants, are reported as giving to benevolent objects four hundred thousand dollars (on the Minutes of the Assembly more, and by Reports of the Boards less) or less than an average of two dollars per member to all our Boards. In connection with this must be taken two other facts: first, that many give to these objects who are not communicants, and second, that many give hundreds and thousands of dollars, whose donations cover up the delinquencies of a great multitude, who it is to be feared give absolutely nothing, or a miserable pittance, such as they would dole out to a beggar to get rid of his importunity.

In striking contrast with the amount given for benevolent objects is the fact that we as a communion give more than one hundred times as much to the support of our National Government as we do to that kingdom which is superior in its claims to all earthly kingdoms.

The Committee feel that it is necessary to remind the Assembly, and through them the churches, that the necessity for greater liberality has very much increased. The work thrown upon our Boards in the work of Domestic Missions, and especially in that new claim of the coloured race, have greatly augmented our responsibilities. God calls upon his people to do a work for this land, which the Church alone can do, and which can only be done by the same willingness to place all that we have and are at the disposal of Christ's kingdom, which we manifest in reference to the support of our government. While from abroad the voice of Providence, as well as the command of our Saviour calls upon his Church to go forth and bring the nations of the earth in allegiance to Christ our King.

For these aggressive movements on the kingdom of darkness, money must furnish "the sinews of war."

It is not, however, from a mere pecuniary point of view, that we would look at this subject. Giving is an expression of love and attachment to our Redeemer, and of zeal for his cause. It is a Christian grace, as well as a necessity laid upon us by the great objects of benevolence. Covetousness is sin—it is selfishness, idolatry—which love to God is expected to counteract and overcome. Other things being equal, giving is in no small degree a measure of that love. Where there is an absence of this grace we have a right to inquire where is the love, the zeal for Christ and his cause, which should entitle the individual or the church to the Christian name? What does a profession profit that says, Be warmed, and Be filled, and yet provides not those things necessary? Is it not to be expected that God will forsake and leave unblessed those churches which neglect to honour him in this respect? And that when they return to him and bring in the tithes, he will return to them and open the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing? As, therefore, we need blessings—spiritual blessings, as we would show forth our love to God and his cause and furnish means for its promotion, we are called upon to abound in this grace.

In order to the right performance of the obligation resting upon us as a Church, your Committee feel that the first thing necessary is that systematic benevolence be carried back of an obligation on the churches, to the consciences of individual Christians. Let every one feel that he is called upon to act in this matter by virtue of the profession of his faith in Christ, just as he is called upon to live a life of prayer, and that in order to do it, it must be made a matter of principle, a matter of plan or system, and not left to impulse or the influence of appeals on benevolence.

As this is a Christian grace, all Christians need to be exhorted to abound in it, not merely that large amounts may be gathered, but that the members of the Church may have the opportunity of manifesting their love to Christ. We want the mites, the small offerings of the poor, as well as the larger ones of the rich, for the sake of the love and the prayers that go with them, and as an exercise of a grace which is fostered by action. The Church greatly needs more givers, than it does large gifts.

The instrumentalities on which the Church must rely for keeping this subject before the members are, 1st. The ministry together with the eldership, who are the appointed overseers of the flock. Ministers must be the agents for the Boards of our Church, and see that in their own sphere these interests are attended to. 2d. It seems very necessary that in order to intelligent giving, that the periodicals of our Church should be more thoroughly circulated. We would call the attention of pastors to more earnest use of this instrumentality. 3d. While much depends on grace and understanding the necessities of the field, much also depends on early training and habit. Sabbath-schools therefore become an important auxiliary in this work.

As to plans or methods of collections, the Committee do not feel inclined to recommend any specific plan, though some have been presented to its notice. Details can be best attended to by particular churches. In general, however, they are inclined to suggest that frequent collections in churches would stimulate to systematic giving on the part of individuals. It would act as a reminder of a duty which is too often neglected. The apostle enjoined upon the churches of Corinth and Galatia, that "every one lay by him in store upon the first day of the week, as God hath prospered him." We believe that a return to the same, or like frequency, of at least considering what we owe the Lord, would add vastly to our collections, and be more consistent with our obligations and professions, to seek first the kingdom of God.

For those churches which have no other plan or fixed times for taking up collections, the Committee would recommend that the times heretofore appointed, with the addition of the first Sabbath in October for the Freedmen's Committee, be continued, and that circulars be addressed to the pastors or churches by the Secretaries of the Boards, reminding them of the duty.

Though in the days specified, a collection for the Bible Society is not included, yet in accordance with the action of previous Assemblies, it is recommended that the churches remember this as well as the other objects belonging more specifically to us as a denomination.

They would further report that the experience of the present Assembly corresponds with those that have preceded, that statistical reports have been obtained only from a few Presbyteries. In the present case from 23 out of 150, and most of these are so meagre in their outlines as to be of no satisfaction to the Committee. And as a better and more reliable source of facts is found in the Reports of the Boards, they would recommend the discontinuance of such statistical* reports, and that the Secretaries of the Boards be requested in their Annual Reports, to state the number of churches contributing to the different objects of benevolence under their care.

* The reports referred to are the special statistical reports from the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries on the subject of Systematic Benevolence.

CORRESPONDENCE.

PITTSBURGH, May 30, 1865.

To the Rev. George Fisch, President of Commission Synodale:

MR. PRESIDENT—The reception and friendly salutations of your delegate, Rev. Theodore Monod, have afforded us a peculiar pleasure, and we have extended to him our most cordial welcome, as well for his own sake and his honoured father's, as on account of his being your chosen representative. Some of us remember with more than ordinary gratification the former visits and labours of Mr. Monod in this country, and we rejoice not only in all that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ has done for him and through him in the midst of us, but in the prospect of usefulness which he now has in his own land.

We have been rejoiced to hear, both through your letter and your beloved delegate, of the interest you have taken in the great struggle through which our nation has been passing, and to know also that you have so deeply sympathized with us in our great national sorrow at the loss of our beloved and honoured President.

The sympathy of the Free Protestants of France which has been so nobly manifested through four years of such severe national trial, has done much to nerve us for the terrible contest, and to give us that unfaltering confidence which has brought us to the present hour of our glorious triumph.

It is a pleasure to us to receive your congratulations upon the prospects we now have of the entire and speedy abolition of slavery throughout our American Union; and in the measures already set on foot towards its accomplishment, as well as in the establishment of our free institutions on a firmer and broader foundation than before, we are constrained to recognize the wonderful hand of our God.

These great events and great successes have cast upon us the necessity of undertaking great enterprises in behalf of Christ. Throughout the States that have been in insurrection our churches are to be restored and built up, and the Southern population that have been so grossly deceived and misled by the authors of a wicked rebellion, are now to be supplied with Christian ministers and teachers who will be true to the testimonies of our Church, and loyal to the national government.

Among the enterprises devolved upon us none is more pressing than that of the care and instruction of our millions of freedmen. And we have derived a sincere satisfaction in hearing of your own efforts in preparing subscriptions for our Freedmen's Association. Our own Church has efficient, well-organized committees, which is rapidly enlarging its plans to adapt itself to the extended operations which God is requiring of us in this behalf.

We take pleasure in reciprocating your Christian courtesy by accrediting to you, as our delegates, the Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., Professor of Exegetical Theology in our Western Theological Seminary, together with Rev. M. Newkirk, Jr., and Rev. Edwin Emerson, brethren whom we hold in very high esteem. They will more fully represent to you the bonds of national sympathy and Christian fellowship which have so long united us. We hope also that these same bonds may be continually strengthening through our mutual furtherance of the kingdom of Christ, no less than by the rapid progress of events through which that kingdom is brought nigh at hand.

THE CONTINGENT FUND AND THE MINUTES.

1. This fund is indispensable to the organization of the General Assembly. It pays the salaries and expenses of the Clerks, the Janitors, the Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, and for the Stationery used by the officers and members during the Sessions; besides the whole cost of printing and publishing the Minutes, annually.

2. To meet the increasing cost of the Minutes, the General Assembly, at Newark, in 1864, ordered that the price be seventy-five cents per copy; and previous regulations authorize the Stated Clerk to withhold the Minutes from any Presbytery that will not send in time the full price, including postage, and post-office address for each Minister and Licentiate on the list transmitted. When the sum transmitted is not sufficient, the Minutes will be sent only to the Stated Clerk, and others on the list, as far as the money will pay, according to the rate fixed by the Assembly. Any individual, officer, or member in the church, may obtain a copy of the Minutes by subscribing for the same, and paying before the first of June.

3. By act of the General Assembly at Pittsburgh, 1865, the Stated Clerk, the Treasurer, and the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, are made a Committee to assess the several Synods, in order to bring the Contingent Fund out of debt, and keep it out of debt, the assessment being subject to approval by each Synod.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of their respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly. If they have no printed blanks, after the form on the page opposite. Blanks can always be obtained gratis, on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If, therefore, they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or at Princeton, New Jersey, not later than the first day of June, fully post-paid.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterial Reports should be made out at, or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery, for ratification and sanction.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
